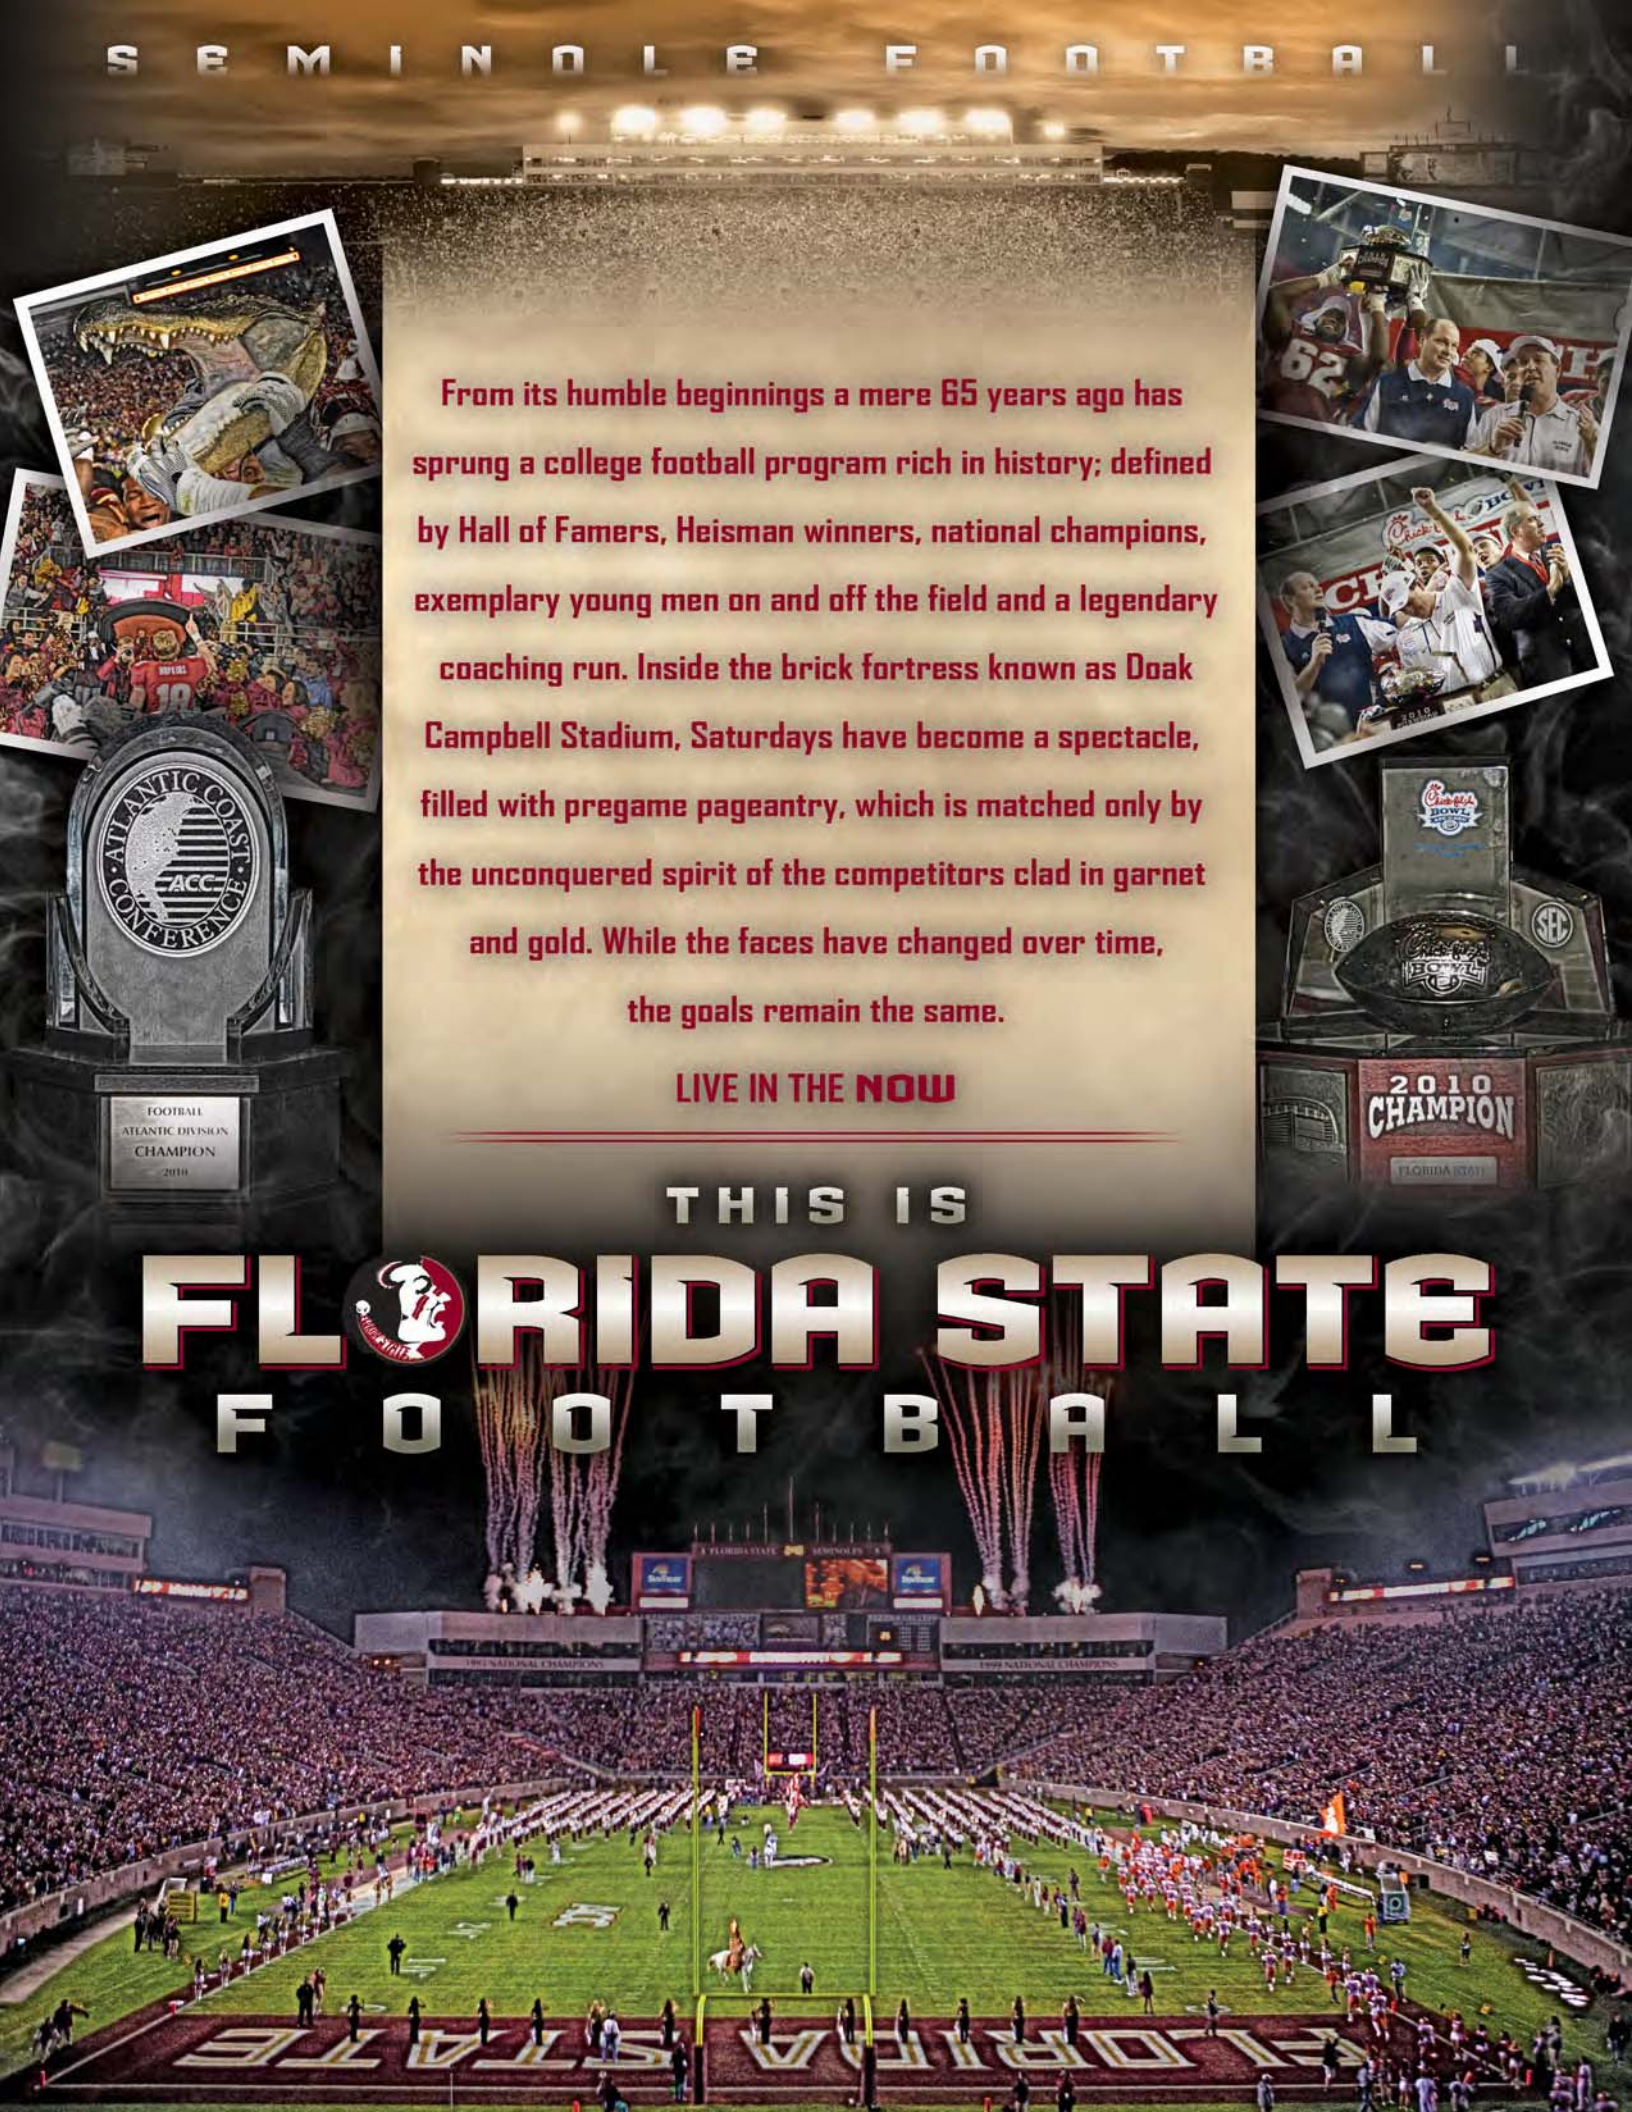
FOOTBALL



SEMINOLE FOOTBALL
From its humble beginnings a mere 65 years ago has sprung a college football program rich in history; defined by Hall of Famers, Heisman winners, national champions, exemplary young men on and off the field and a legendary coaching run. Inside the brick fortress known as Doak Campbell Stadium, Saturdays have become a spectacle, filled with pregame pageantry, which is matched only by the unconquered spirit of the competitors clad in garnet and gold. While the faces have changed over time, the goals remain the same.

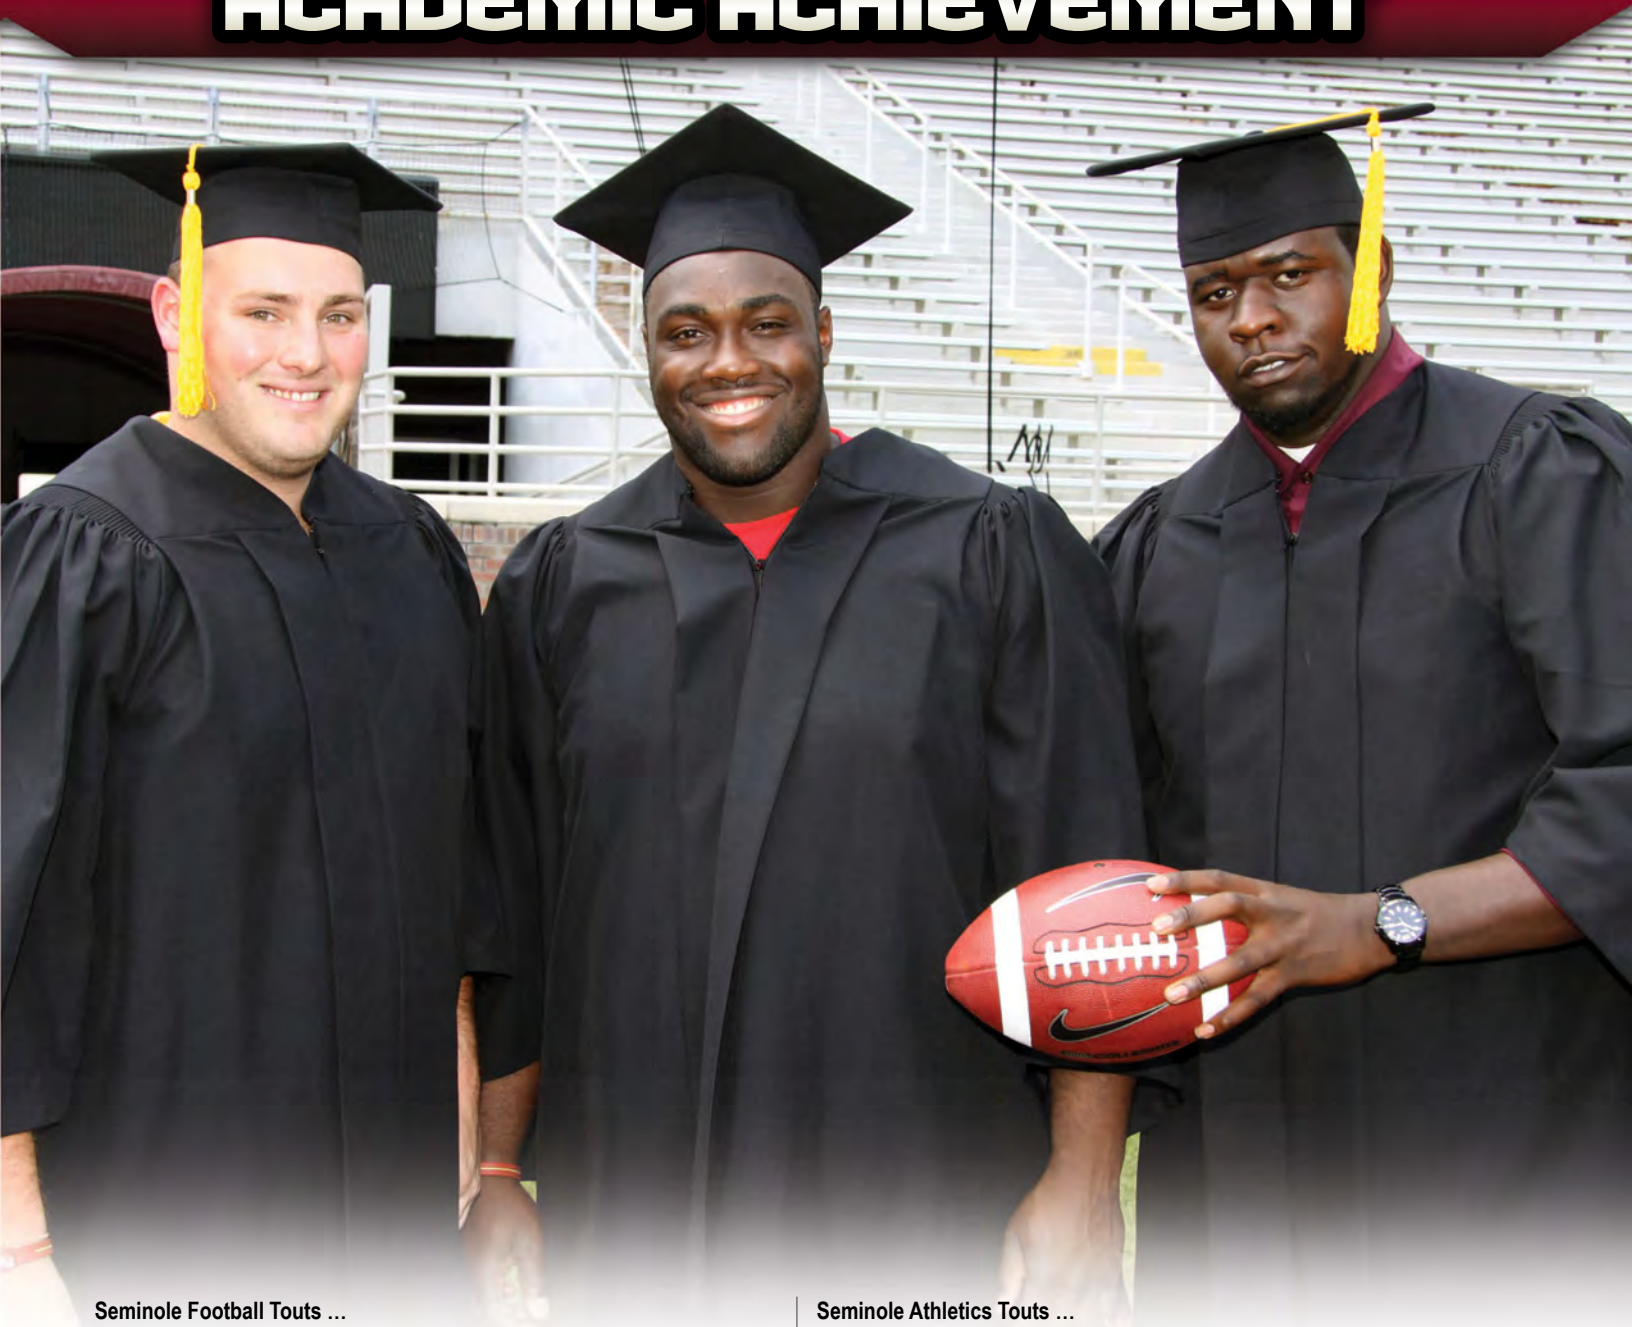
ACADEMIC ACHIEVEMENT



Seminole Football Touts …

- A Rhodes Scholar.
- 20 Academic All-American honors.
- 17 Postgraduate Scholarship Award winners, including six CFA and seven NFF Postgraduate Scholarship winners.
- 74 ACC All-Academic honorees since 1992, including the returning trio – Zebrie Sanders, EJ Manuel and Dustin Hopkins – who earned the distinction at the conclusion of the 2010 season.
- In 2010 Christian Ponder was one of 16 recipients of the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Award - one of the most prestigious honors bestowed upon a college football player. His inclusion on the list elevated him into a finalist for the William V. Campbell Trophy, presented to the nation's top scholar-athlete.
- In the spring 2011 semester, 13 football players earned Dean's List honors and overall 27 football players had a GPA above a 3.0.

Seminole Athletics Touts …

- Former football standout Myron Rolle became the second Florida State student-athlete in the past five years to earn the Rhodes Scholarship – one of the oldest and most prestigious awards for international study. Rolle was the first prominent college football player to earn the Rhodes Scholarship in nearly 25 years.
- Over the past 17 years over $500,000 in postgraduate money has been awarded to FSU student-athletes, as well as numerous other academic honors and awards.
- In the spring 2011 semester, 228 Seminole student-athletes achieved a 3.0 grade point average or better. In all, nine of 17 FSU athletic teams posted a 3.0 GPA or better.
- A total of 14 student-athletes posted a perfect 4.0 GPA, while 126 student-athletes earned Dean's List honors with a 3.5 GPA or higher.
- The Athletic Department posted a cumulative GPA of 2.91 following the 2010-11 athletic year.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Giving back to the community is more than a high priority at Florida State University. It is an integral part of the whole development of the student-athlete. Through the Athletic Department's Office of Student Services, student-athletes are encouraged to serve the community and participate in a program that focuses on life skills as well as personal, career and leadership development.

- For the 2010-2011 year, football contributed over 100 hours of community service participating and supporting such events as Relay for Life, "Celebrate" Literacy Week, National Student-Athlete Day, Tallahassee Fitness Festival, ABLE Trust Youth Leadership Forum, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Stomp Out Type 2 Diabetes.
- First round draft pick Christian Ponder not only left his mark on the field at Florida State but also on the Tallahassee community. The quarterback was recognized for his community service work by being named to the Allstate AFCA Good Works team. Ponder was recognized by the Atlantic Coast Conference and Florida State as a "Top 6 for Service" award recipient in 2010, an honor that former teammate and current Seminole Dustin Hopkins received this past year.
- Dustin Hopkins also received the Dean of Students Award.
- The Florida State Athletic Department has been honored three times as the National Consortium of Academies Sports Outreach Program of the Year for reaching more than 150,000 youth.
- For the 2010-2011 academic school year, Florida State athletic teams combined to serve almost 5,600 hours of Community Service in many of our local schools and organizations. Nine athletic teams completed over 200 hours each with women's swimming & diving, women's cross country and softball exceeding the 650-hour mark.
- Altogether, 469 of our 572 student-athletes volunteered their time and service to a variety of events, activities and organization this past academic school year.

SEMINOLES IN THE NFL

"No contest: Former Seminoles blow away the pack, finishing first by an 11 percent margin. Scouts say top athletes and emphasis on teaching fundamentals make the Seminoles great pros."

– Wall Street Journal article, which selected FSU as the top school for producing the best NFL players.

- Since 1993, 107 Florida State Seminoles have been selected in the NFL Draft.
- Former Seminole Darnell Dockett was selected to play in the 2010 and 2011 NFL Pro Bowls. FSU was represented by at least three Pro Bowl players from 2007-2009.
- Christian Ponder, selected in the first round by the Minnesota Vikings, was one of three Seminoles chosen in the 2011 NFL Draft.
- FSU has had at least one player chosen in the NFL Draft every year since 1984.
- Eight Seminole defensive linemen have been drafted in the last seven years, including three first round selections.

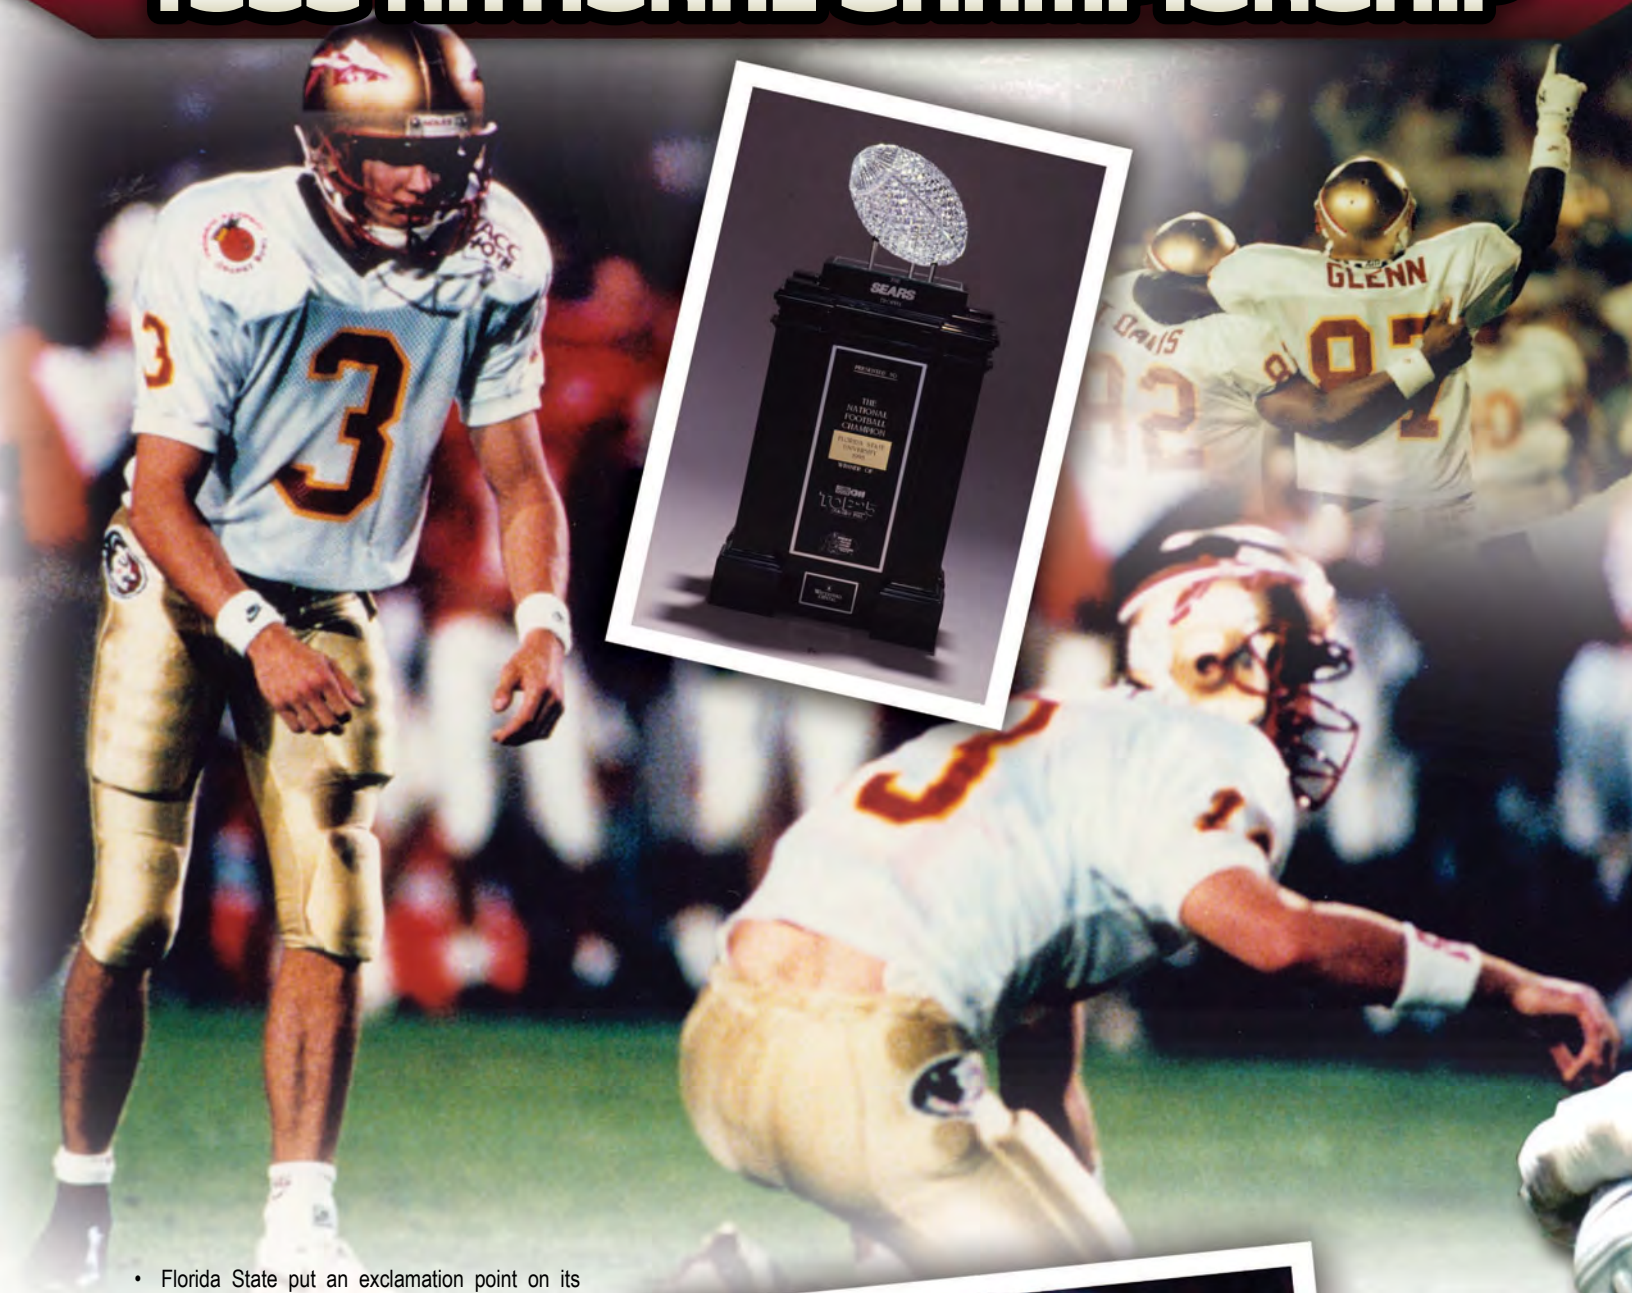
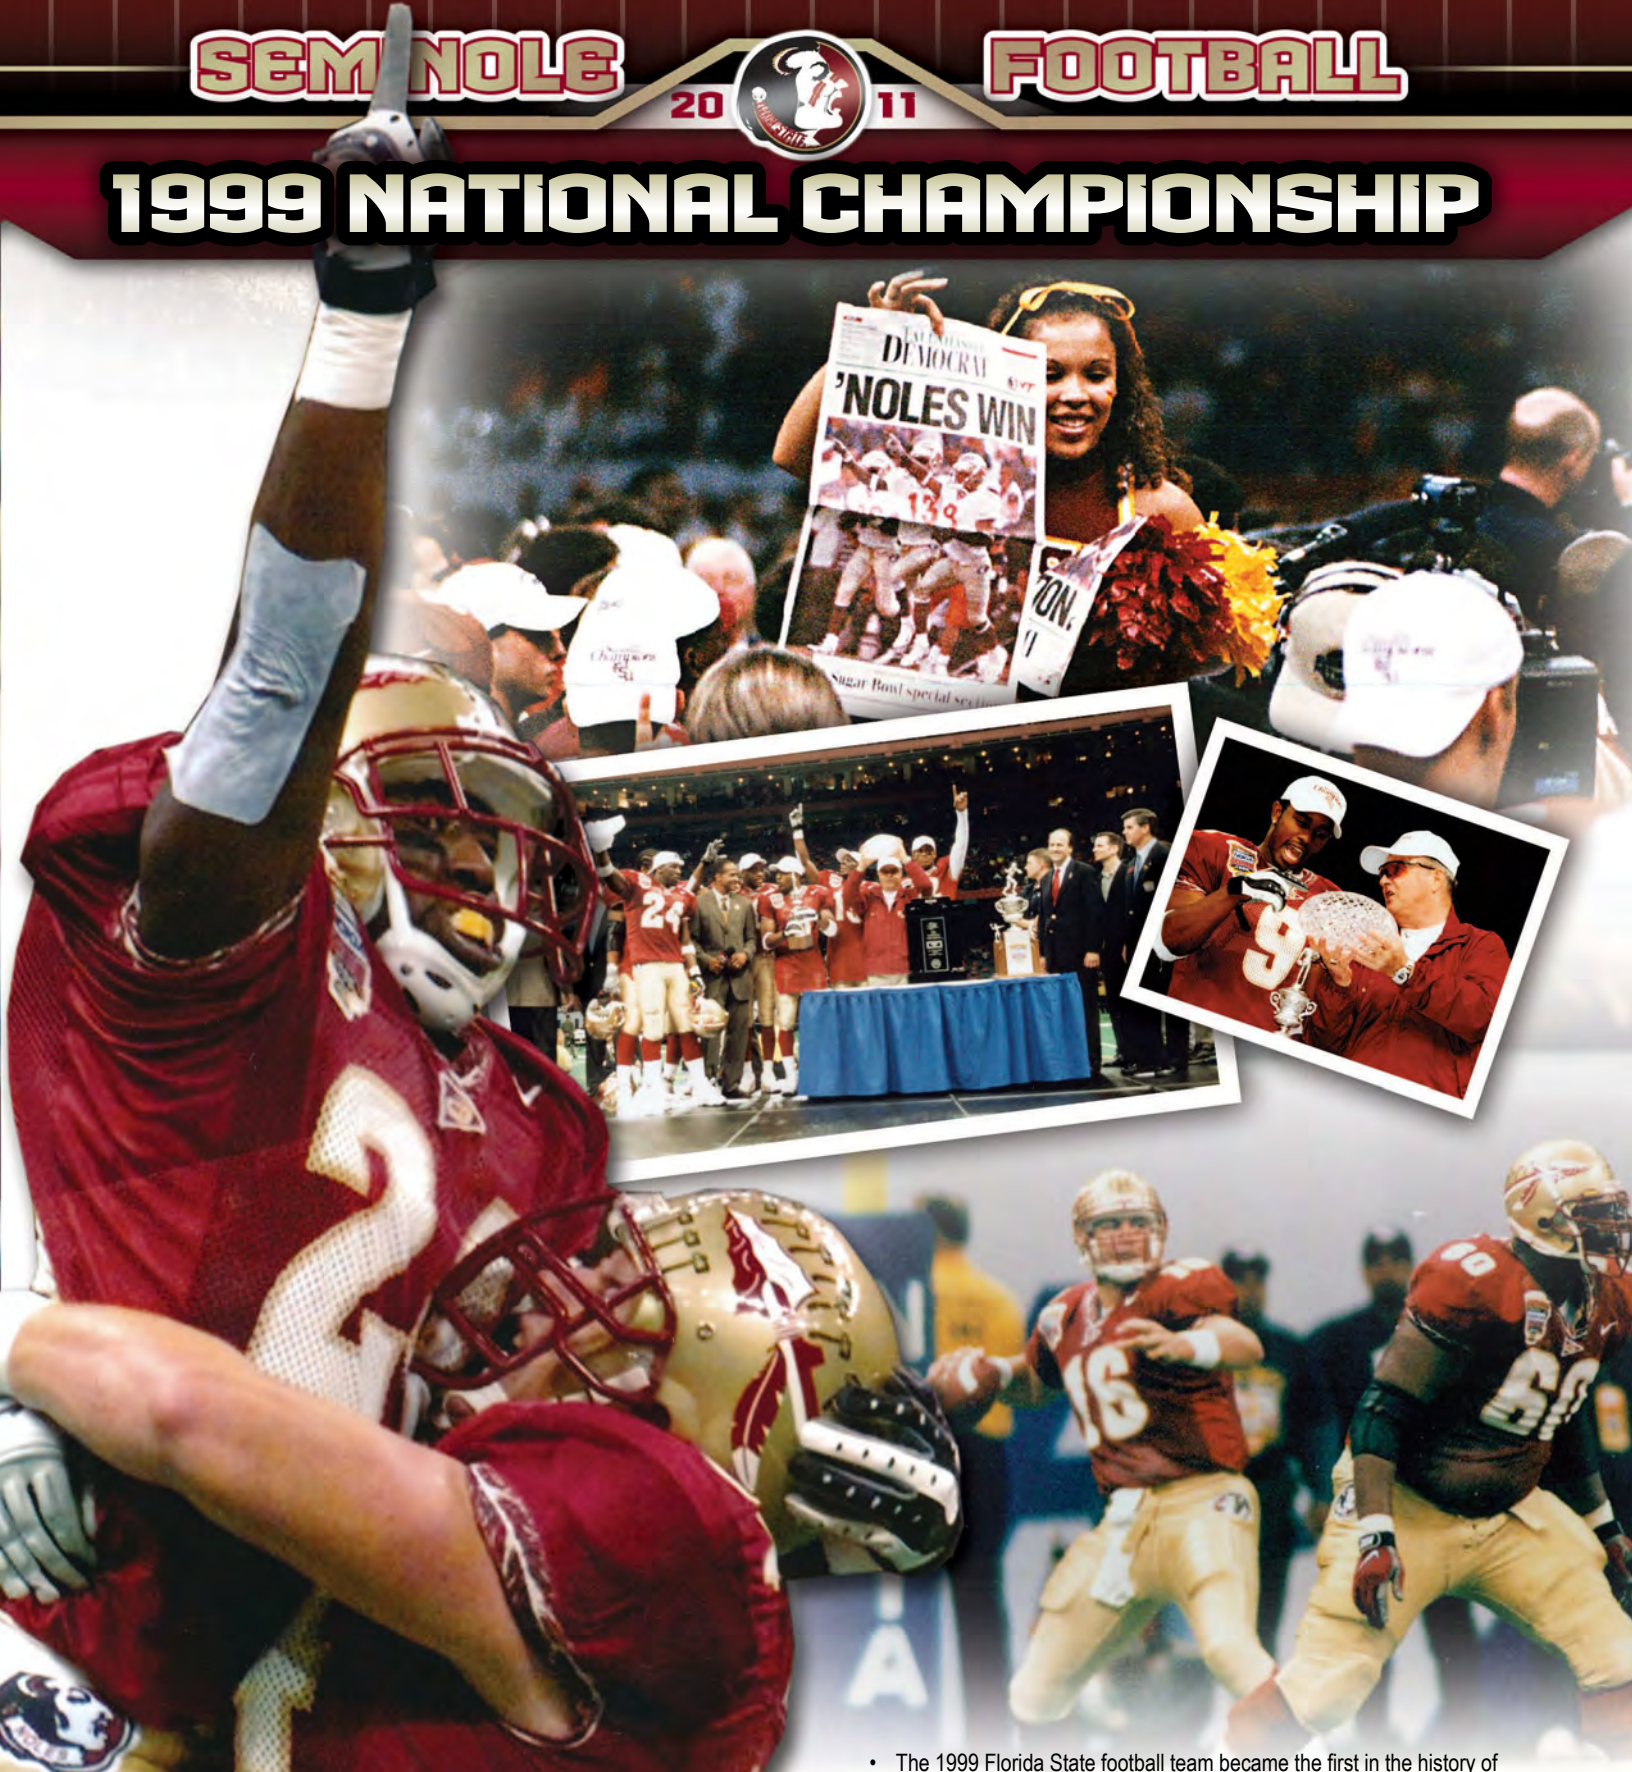
1993 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP



- Florida State put an exclamation point on its 1993 season by capturing the program's first National Championship with a dramatic, 18-16 victory over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl on January 1, 1994.
- The Seminoles closed the year with a 12-1 record and Florida State was the first team in eight years to open the season at No. 1 and go on to win the title.
- Senior quarterback Charlie Ward collected 20 national awards, including the Heisman Trophy, while leading the Seminoles to their long-awaited crown.
- FSU led the nation in scoring offense and defense, outscoring their 13 opponents by an average of 34 points per game.

1999 NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP



- The 1999 Florida State football team became the first in the history of the Associated Press poll to go wire-to-wire as the No. 1 team in the nation. The Seminoles completed their 12-0 campaign with a thrilling 46-29 Sugar Bowl victory over Virginia Tech on January 4, 2000.
- Not only did coach Bobby Bowden lead the Seminoles down a path no other team had traveled – wire-to-wire at No. 1 – he also recorded the first perfect season of his career. Along the way, Bowden picked up his 300th career victory.

BOBBY BOWDEN FIELD AT DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM

From a maximum capacity of 15,000 in 1953 to a record crowd of 84,347 in 2005 against Miami, Doak S. Campbell Stadium has risen along with the Florida State football program to the top of the college football ladder. In a special ceremony prior to the Florida game on November 20, 2004, the home of Florida State football took on a meaning even more special when Bobby Bowden Field was dedicated. Now, with numerous additions to enhance the gameday experience, Seminole fans are treated to one of college football's greatest venues.

The 2008 season saw Doak Campbell Stadium come alive with new and exciting features. The north endzone scoreboard went from a video board that was 33 feet wide to a new 100 foot wide high quality digital board. The south endzone, which did not have any scoreboard prior to 2008, now dons a 24'x 45' video board.

The video boards weren't the only improvements, however, as 500 feet of ribbon board was also added around the stadium which display colorful graphics. The LED displays, which stand four-feet high, were placed in all four corners of the stadium. There are also ribbon boards running under the scoreboard in the north end zone and one just below where the band is located on the south side.

In 2007 a new sound system was installed improving the sound quality and smoothness. The system provides high quality sound to each and every person in the 83,000+ seat stadium.

The newest structural portions of the stadium are a second deck of the Varsity Club in the northwest corner of the stadium and additional Skyboxes leased through Seminole Boosters in the northeast corner.

A brand new playing surface was installed in summer of 2010. The entire floor of the stadium was excavated eight inches deep and the old pump drainage system was replaced with a complete wall-to-wall system built exactly to USGA golf green standards. Sod, with the same variety of 419 Tiftway Bermuda that the Seminoles have been playing on for most of the previous 12 years, was laid on the entire field in 2004 and again in the spring of 2009.

The south end zone houses the Florida State University School of Hospitality, where students in the program receive hands-on experience in various aspects of the food and beverage industry. The multi-level facility includes a restaurant and a sports grill on the top floor that gives a breathtaking panoramic view of Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium.

The north end zone, which consisted of wood bleachers until the 1994 season kicked off, is topped by the offices of the football coaches. The offices are just part of the Daisy Parker Flory wing of the Moore Athletic Center which includes a number of amenities for the football staff. An even more drastic change came to completion in June of 2005 when the athletics department offices moved back into the newly rebuilt Moore Center.

Towering above college football action from the east side are skyboxes, which stretch from goal line to goal line. New skyboxes are located above the west stands on the eighth floor. The west addition also houses the president's level on the seventh floor (which includes an open air terrace in the northwest corner) and one of the largest press boxes in college football with seating for over 250 members of the media.

A brick facade surrounds the stadium, matching the architectural design of most of the buildings on the Florida State campus. The University Center surrounds Bobby Bowden Field at Doak Campbell Stadium and houses numerous offices that were located on the interior of the FSU campus.

BOBBY BOWDEN FIELD AT DOAK CAMPBELL STADIUM

Inside the stadium, the lowest tier of field level seats were removed, providing increased sideline space and better viewing lines for the first few rows of fans. A matching brick wall was constructed along the east and west sidelines, limiting field access, increasing safety and giving the inside of the stadium a whole new look.

In its last 137 home games, FSU is 119-17-1. During Bobby Bowden's Florida State tenure his teams lost only 30 games at home in 32 years, giving coach Bowden an impressive 164-30-2 record and an .842 winning percentage in Tallahassee. A milestone was reached on September 28, 1996 when Bowden won his 100th game in Doak Campbell Stadium as FSU's head coach with a 13-0 victory over North Carolina. In 2007, Bowden won his 300th career game at FSU right on the field that bears his name with a 24-16 win over Maryland.

But the winning tradition of Doak S. Campbell Stadium, which was named after the former FSU president of the same name, goes back before Bowden. All-time, Florida State is 263-87-4 in 354 home games for a winning percentage of .749.

Since the stadium opened on Oct. 7, 1950 with Florida State University taking a 40-7 victory over Randolph-Macon, millions of fans have packed Doak S. Campbell to see the finest in college football action. In 2003, Florida State set a single season attendance mark by drawing 498,895 fans over six home games. The latest expansion is the ninth in the history of the stadium. The current capacity of 82,300 reflects an increase of 28,281 since the end of the 1991 season.

Florida State first began play at Centennial Field during the inaugural 1947 season. In the three seasons that the Seminoles called Centennial Field their home, FSU had an overall home record of 8-4, including Coach Don Veller's undefeated 8-0 home mark over the 1948 and '49 seasons.

It's hard to imagine the first Doak Campbell Stadium, with a capacity of 15,000 back in 1950 was built at a cost of $250,000. In 1954, the stadium grew to a capacity of 19,000. Six thousand more seats were added in 1961.

During the Bill Peterson era (1960-70), the stadium was expanded to 40,500 seats, and it remained at that capacity for the next 14 years. Between 1978 and 1982, there were three more additions.

Doak Campbell continues to grow and improve and has become an outstanding showcase for Florida State University.

SOD CEMETERY

For nearly six decades, "sod games" and the Florida State University Sod Cemetery have been a rich part of the Seminoles college football history, commemorating many of the greatest victories.

In 1962, as the Seminoles completed their Thursday practice in preparation to face Georgia at Sanford Stadium, Dean Coyle Moore – a long-time professor and member of FSU's athletic board – issued a challenge: "Bring back some sod from between the hedges at Georgia." On Saturday, October 20, the Seminoles scored an 18-0 victory over the favored Bulldogs. Team captain Gene McDowell pulled a small piece of grass from the field, which was presented to Moore at the next football practice. Moore and FSU coach Bill Peterson had the sod buried on the practice field as a symbol of victory. A monument was placed to commemorate the triumph and the tradition of the sod game was born.

Since then, before leaving for all road games in which Florida State is the underdog, all road games at the University of Florida and all ACC championship and bowl games, Seminole captains gather their teammates to explain the significance of the tradition. Victorious captains return with a piece of the opponent's turf to be buried in the Sod Cemetery inside the gates of the practice field.

Away from home and against the odds, Florida State sod games represent the most difficult battles on the football field. The Sod Cemetery stands as a tribute to those triumphs, to be enjoyed by the Seminole faithful.

2011 FLORIDA STATE OUTLOOK

Chris Thompson

The stakes have been raised entering Jimbo Fisher's second season at the helm of the Florida State football program. A 10-win season, including an ACC Atlantic Division title and capped by a Chick-fil-A Bowl victory over South Carolina will do that.

Rampant enthusiasm among the FSU fan base is not unwarranted. The Seminoles open the 2011 campaign in the national championship conversation for good reason. Florida State returns a bountiful supply of experienced players on both sides of the football, and arguably the best specialty units the program has ever produced. Then add what many consider the nation's No. 1 recruiting class – on the heels of three previous top 10 classes – and it's clear the 'Noles have significantly improved, not only their talent pool, but added competitive depth throughout the lineup.

On the field the Seminoles return eight starters on both offense and defense, plus the full complement of specialists. Equally important is the added familiarity that comes with 18 months of work under Fisher and his staff. Collectively, the 'Noles have made tremendous strides in terms of physical development, on top of the confidence carried from a 10-4 campaign and a 26-17 bowl victory over South Carolina.

Offensively, FSU replaces a three-year starting quarterback with an experienced understudy in EJ Manuel, who is 4-2 as a starter and has guided the team to consecutive bowl victories. Defensively, Fisher has every reason to expect continued growth in the second year of coordinator Mark Stoops' scheme, which made significant strides in 2010.

With the season at hand, here's a segment-by-segment look at the Seminoles moving forward:

2011 OUTLOOK

QUARTERBACKS

• EJ Manuel grabs the reins after two years of significant seasoning behind Christian Ponder. Tested and successful on the big stage, the redshirt junior has prepared for the full-time job by compiling a 4-2 record as a starter. A polished passer with a career 67.3 percent completion rate, Manuel is also a threat on the move, with 366 rushing yards over 17 career appearances. His natural leadership skills were further enhanced as he successfully navigated the 'Noles through his first healthy spring practice.

• There is little experience behind Manuel, where redshirt sophomore Will Secord and redshirt freshman Clint Trickett continue to compete for the No. 2 spot. While Secord's three snaps in last season's opener represent the combined playing experience of the pair, both have complete command of the playbook.

EJ Manuel

RUNNING BACKS

• The Seminoles return their top three rushers in junior tailback Chris Thompson and seniors Ty Jones and Jermaine Thomas. In all, 92 percent of FSU's 2,400 rushing yards return, including the players who accounted for 23 of 27 rushing touchdowns.

• Thompson was the team's top rusher in 2010, piling up 845 yards at a clip of 6.3 ypc. A home run hitter, Thompson's breakaway speed led to scoring runs of 90, 83 and 70 yards, which were among his eight plays of 25 or more yards last season. His three 100-yard rushing performances included 147 in his Chick-fil-A Bowl Offensive MVP performance. Thompson also led all backs with 19 receptions, good for 155 yards.

• Jones, the designated power back of the trio, rushed for five TDs, including three in the ACC Championship game against Virginia Tech. He finished 2010 with a career-high 527 yards and a healthy 6.1 ypc average. Jones had a pair of 100-yard rushing performances, including a career-best 108 at NC State on 10 carries.

• Thomas enters his final season as the ACC's No. 2 active rushing leader with 1,804 yards. He ran for 490 yards and six TD's as a junior, despite missing three games with a knee sprain. His 18 career rushing touchdowns rank eighth in school history and his six 100-yard games is tops among FSU's current running backs.

• The potential wildcard contributor in the crowded backfield is true freshman Devonta Freeman, an early enrollee who gained invaluable experience in the spring.

• Junior Lonnie Pryor has spent the past two seasons as FSU's hybrid fullback. A punishing lead blocker, Pryor is equally skilled as a ball-carrier. He averaged 4.9 ypc and ran for four TD's, but also produced in the passing game with 12 receptions and three receiving scores.

• Junior Debrale Smiley, a 230-pounder who saw limited action last season, and sophomore Chad Abram, a converted safety, provide depth at the fullback position.

RECEIVERS

• While there is ample experience – FSU returns three of its top four wideouts who combined for 127 of 250 receptions – the receiving corps is one of the most competitive positions on the club. At one spot, senior Bert Reed and junior Rodney Smith are locked in a battle for the starting nod, while Willie Haulstead, Jarred Haggins and Greg Dent are the front-runners on the opposite side.

• Reed enters his final season as one of FSU's most productive receivers in school history. Coming off a team-leading 58-catch, 614-yard campaign in 2010, Reed ranks sixth in all-time receptions with 141, while his 1,619 yards rank 19th. He had two game-deciding TD's in 2010, including a career-long 44-yard reception to beat Maryland.

• Smith came into his own in the second half of his sophomore campaign, grabbing 25 of his 31 receptions over the final eight games The 6-foot-6 target had five plays over 25 yards and posted his first 100-yard game (4-121) against Clemson.

• Haulstead emerged as a big-play threat for the 'Noles in 2010, leading the team with six TD catches and a 15.4 ypc average. The junior is coming off a 38-catch, 587-yard season which included a team-high eight plays of 25 or more yards. His 10-reception, 154-yard game against UNC ranks as one of the most productive by an FSU wideout in recent history.

• A host of youngsters, sophomores Jarred Haggins, Kenny Shaw and Greg Dent, cut their teeth in limited action during the 2010 season. They combined for five receptions for 52 yards. Redshirt freshman Christian Green will also factor into the mix after the one-time high school quarterback gained invaluable experience on the scout team.

TIGHT ENDS

• Senior Beau Reliford made 10 starts and saw action in 13 games during the 2010 season, collecting a career-high 17 passes for 198 yards and one touchdown. More importantly, he began to emerge as an edge blocking force in FSU's running game.

• Ja'Baris Little returns for his senior season after making four starts in 2010. Primarily utilized as a blocker, especially in short-yardage situations, Little was instrumental in FSU's running game producing 171.4 yards a game.

• Redshirt freshman Will Tye was one of the team's most improved performers throughout the spring. Athletic and strong, he figures to play a more prominent role as both a blocker and mid-range target.

2011 OUTLOOK

OFFENSIVE LINE

• Led by senior offensive tackles Andrew Datko and Zebrie Sanders, the Seminoles return a core group of linemen who have been instrumental in the program's improvement over the past three seasons. Senior guard David Spurlock is slated to move from the right to left side, replacing consensus All-American Rodney Hudson, while sophomore guard Bryan Stork is working on the right side after gaining valuable experience in 2010. The veteran quartet brings 105 career starts to the table. JUCO All-American Jacob Fahrenkrug has stepped in to fill the void created at center by four-year starter Ryan McMahon's graduation.

• Datko is back for his fourth season as the starting left tackle with 36 career starts to his credit. He yielded just one sack last season and posted the team's second-highest overall grade among linemen. A relentless pass protector, he has been beaten for sacks just three times over the past two seasons, while refining his skills as a run-blocker.

• Sanders brings a unit-high 37 career starts to the table from his right tackle position, but has also stepped in and played well at left tackle when called on. He finished second on the team with 37 knockdown blocks in 2010, which proved to be a breakout campaign for the imposing physical presence.

• Spurlock started the first seven games at right guard before he was sidelined with a concussion and has 28 career starts. A physical force with a mean streak, his agility and relentless approach make him a viable candidate to replace Hudson at left guard.

• Stork stepped in when injuries hit the unit last season and made four starts, including the final three games of the season at right guard, where he's slated to step into the full-time role.

• Fahrenkrug, a late-bloomer out of high school, was an NJCAA All-American guard at North Dakota State College of Sciences. The nation's top-rated JUCO linemen is a gifted athlete, which should help him make the transition to center smoothly after working there in the spring.

• Offensive line coach Rick Trickett has built depth and developed versatility within the ranks. Veterans Jacob Stanley (G/C), Henry Orelus (G/T) and Garrett Faircloth (T) have all earned playing time in their careers.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE/NOSE GUARD

• Once a position of concern, the Seminoles can now turn to a core group of seven interior defensive linemen who have made dramatic gains in the weight room to go along with invaluable experience gained over the past few years. The defensive tackle and nose guard positions, often interchangeable, may well be a team strength moving forward with juniors Jacobbi McDaniel, Everett Dawkins and Anthony McCloud leading the charge.

• McDaniel and Dawkins are 1 and 1A entering the preseason at the defensive tackle spot. McDaniel has physically reinvented himself in the offseason, while already amassing 56 career stops, 9.5 tackles for loss and two forced fumbles. Explosive off the ball, Dawkins has racked up 55 tackles including 10.5 for lost yardage and 4.5 sacks in his career. Sophomore Demonte McAllister, who will push the veterans, had registered seven tackles for loss and three sacks among his 16 stops as a freshman.

• McCloud started the final seven games last season at nose guard and played in all 14 games, registering 35 tackles from the center of the line. He matched his season-high with six tackles in the Chick-fil-A Bowl win over South Carolina.

• Redshirt freshman Cameron Erving (6-5, 305) is an imposing figure who emerged from his first spring as a viable candidate for significant playing time. Sophomore Darious Cummings saw limited action last season but is an explosive force coming off the ball. The X-factor among nose guards could be redshirt junior Moses McCray, a one-time starter who has battled injuries throughout his career, but is one of the team's most physically gifted athletes.

DEFENSIVE ENDS

• The 2010 season saw the Seminoles re-establish their reputation for producing a relentless pass rush off the edge. Led by first-team All-ACC selection and preseason All-American Brandon Jenkins – and three of the top four ends from a year ago – the 'Noles look to improve on their nation-leading 48 sacks, in no small part because of the anticipated improvement of a more seasoned interior front.

• Jenkins, a junior starter on the right side, ranked third nationally in sacks (13.5) in his first season of significant action. He tied for fourth nationally in tackles for loss (21.5), which ranks as the third-best season in FSU history. An instinctive player with a relentless motor, he amassed 63 tackles on the season. Jenkins will be backed by sophomore Dan Hicks, who supplied 13 solo stops – including three tackles for loss and two sacks – in a back-up role.

• The left end position leader is sophomore Bjoern Werner, the Berlin, Germany native who steps in for graduated standout Markus White. Werner's power game translated to 20 tackles, including six tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks, as a true freshman. Junior Cornellius "Tank" Carradine led the JUCO ranks with 16 sacks among his 119 tackles last season in an All-American campaign. A January enrollee, he emerged from the spring as a rising force on the defensive front.

LINEBACKERS

• No defensive segment lost more productivity from the 2010 roster than the linebacker corps, which must replace a pair of starters. Fortunately, the Seminoles can lean once more on weakside stalwart, senior Nigel Bradham, the teams' top tackler in each of the past two seasons. The balance of the starting unit, as well as the top reserves, will be comprised of heralded younger players who have been brought on board over the past few seasons.

• Bradham, entering his third season as a starter, remains the linchpin of the segment. In addition to a career-best 98 stops (54 solo), Bradham also logged new career-highs for sacks (five) and passes defended (five), while matching his previous best of 5.5 tackles for loss. He will be backed up by rising sophomore Jeff Luc and freshman Terrance Smith.

• The middle linebacker spot is shaping up as a battle between junior Vince Williams and sophomore Telvin Smith. Williams posted a career-best 17 stops last season after missing the entire 2009 season with a back injury. Rangy and athletic with a mean streak, Smith moves from the weakside position, where he registered 18 tackles as Bradham's back-up. Redshirt freshman Holmes Onwukaife will get a long look in the middle during the preseason after sitting out the spring following shoulder surgery.

• As a true freshman, Christian Jones saw action in all 14 games and proved quite productive, registering 18 tackles, including three tackles for loss, a pass break-up, a fumble recovery and three sacks. He was the ACC Rookie of the Week following his six-tackle effort at Virginia, which included a sack and a pass break-up. Jones will be challenged by redshirt freshman Nigel Terrell, who is blessed with speed and added significant mass in his first season on campus.

SECONDARY

• In 2010, FSU's secondary was easily the most improved segment on the team, contributing significantly to a unit that was especially stout defending the end zone. Cornerbacks Greg Reid and Xavier Rhodes teamed with ultimate utility man Michael Harris to lock up the edges, while safeties Terrance Parks and Nick Moody brought a physical toughness to FSU's last line of defense.

• Reid continued to pile up big plays in his second season in 2010 and is the most seasoned secondary man as the projected junior starter at the field cornerback spot. The Defensive MVP of the Chick-fil-A Bowl, he posted career-highs for tackles (65), pass break-ups (14), interceptions (three), tackles for loss (three) and forced fumbles (three). True freshman Nick Waisome, a heralded signee who benefitted from January enrollment, possesses many of the same traits as the back-up field corner.

• Rhodes, a redshirt sophomore, was a consensus Freshman All-American as a 14-game starter at the boundary corner. His 12 pass break-ups and 16 passes defended led all freshmen nationally en route to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors, as well as National Defensive Freshman of the Year from collegefootballnews.com. Long and physical, he amassed 58 tackles (49 solo), including 3.5 tackles for loss and led the 'Noles with four interceptions, capping his regular season campaign with a pair of fumble recoveries in the win over Florida.

• Harris, a senior, was arguably FSU's most productive big-play specialist while earning most of his time as the nickel back. Of his 41 stops, 33 were of the solo variety. He shared the team lead with four interceptions, broke up five passes and forced a pair of fumbles. Three of his interceptions came in wins over Clemson, Florida and South Carolina. In addition to backing up Rhodes at the boundary corner, Harris will also see action in nickel and dime packages. Redshirt junior Avis Commack, a 6-foot-4 converted wideout, will also compete for action at boundary corner after missing last season with a leg injury.

Greg Reid

• Instead of playing side-by-side as they did in 2010, Parks and Moody will compete for the starting job at free safety. Parks started all 14 games at the position last season and produced 44 tackles and six pass break-ups. Moody, the starting free safety, finished third on the team with 79 tackles, including four tackles for loss. He had a career-high 13 tackles at Maryland and helped seal the win with a 96-yard interception return for a touchdown, earning ACC Defensive Back of the Week honors. Sophomore Justin Bright will supply depth to the position.

• A year ago Lamarcus Joyner came into the fold as the USA Today National Defensive Player of the Year. A cornerback by trade, he enters his sophomore season as the projected starting strong safety, where his ball skills will come in handy. Joyner made 23 stops, broke up two passes and added an interception against Miami in 14 appearances, primarily at corner. Sophomore Terrence Brooks, who saw the majority of his action on special teams, will compete for the free safety position.

SPECIALISTS

• Fisher has repeatedly said he believes the Seminoles have the finest special teams units in the nation, and it's hard to argue otherwise when assessing coach Eddie Gran's contingent. Strong-legged junior Dustin Hopkins will handle all kickoffs and kicks, while senior Shawn Powell is back to provide booming punts with outstanding hang-time. Greg Reid will bring his electric punt and kick returning skills back for a third season, while junior Dax Dellenbach was rock steady as the long-snapper.

• Hopkins, a third-year starter was a semifinalist for the 2010 Groza Award after scoring 119 points – the third-highest total in school history. The Houston native converted all four field goal attempts and scored 14 points in the Chick-fil-A Bowl win over South Carolina. On the year, he converted 22 of 28 field goal attempts, highlighted by his walk-off 55-yarder to beat Clemson at the horn. Hopkins also brings a streak of 86 consecutive PAT conversions into the 2011 campaign. Equally important, Hopkins' 41 touchbacks ranked second nationally and his prowess in that area will once again be instrumental in FSU's field position game.

• As a junior, Powell enjoyed one of the finest seasons for an FSU punter in school history, averaging 44.3 yards. Of his career-high 50 punts, 16 pinned opponents inside the 20 and he forced six fair catches. Powell earned ACC Specialist of the Week honors after pinning Florida at its 4, 7 and 5-yard lines. His statistically best effort came in the bowl game when he averaged 50.8 yards against South Carolina with a 48.4 net.

• Reid remains one of the nation's most dangerous return specialists, especially when handling punts. He averaged 10.1 yards per return, but his mere presence led to outstanding field position as opponents often punted away from him. Still, he managed a 74-yard return for a score against Samford. As a kickoff return man, Reid established a single-season school record with 742 yards.

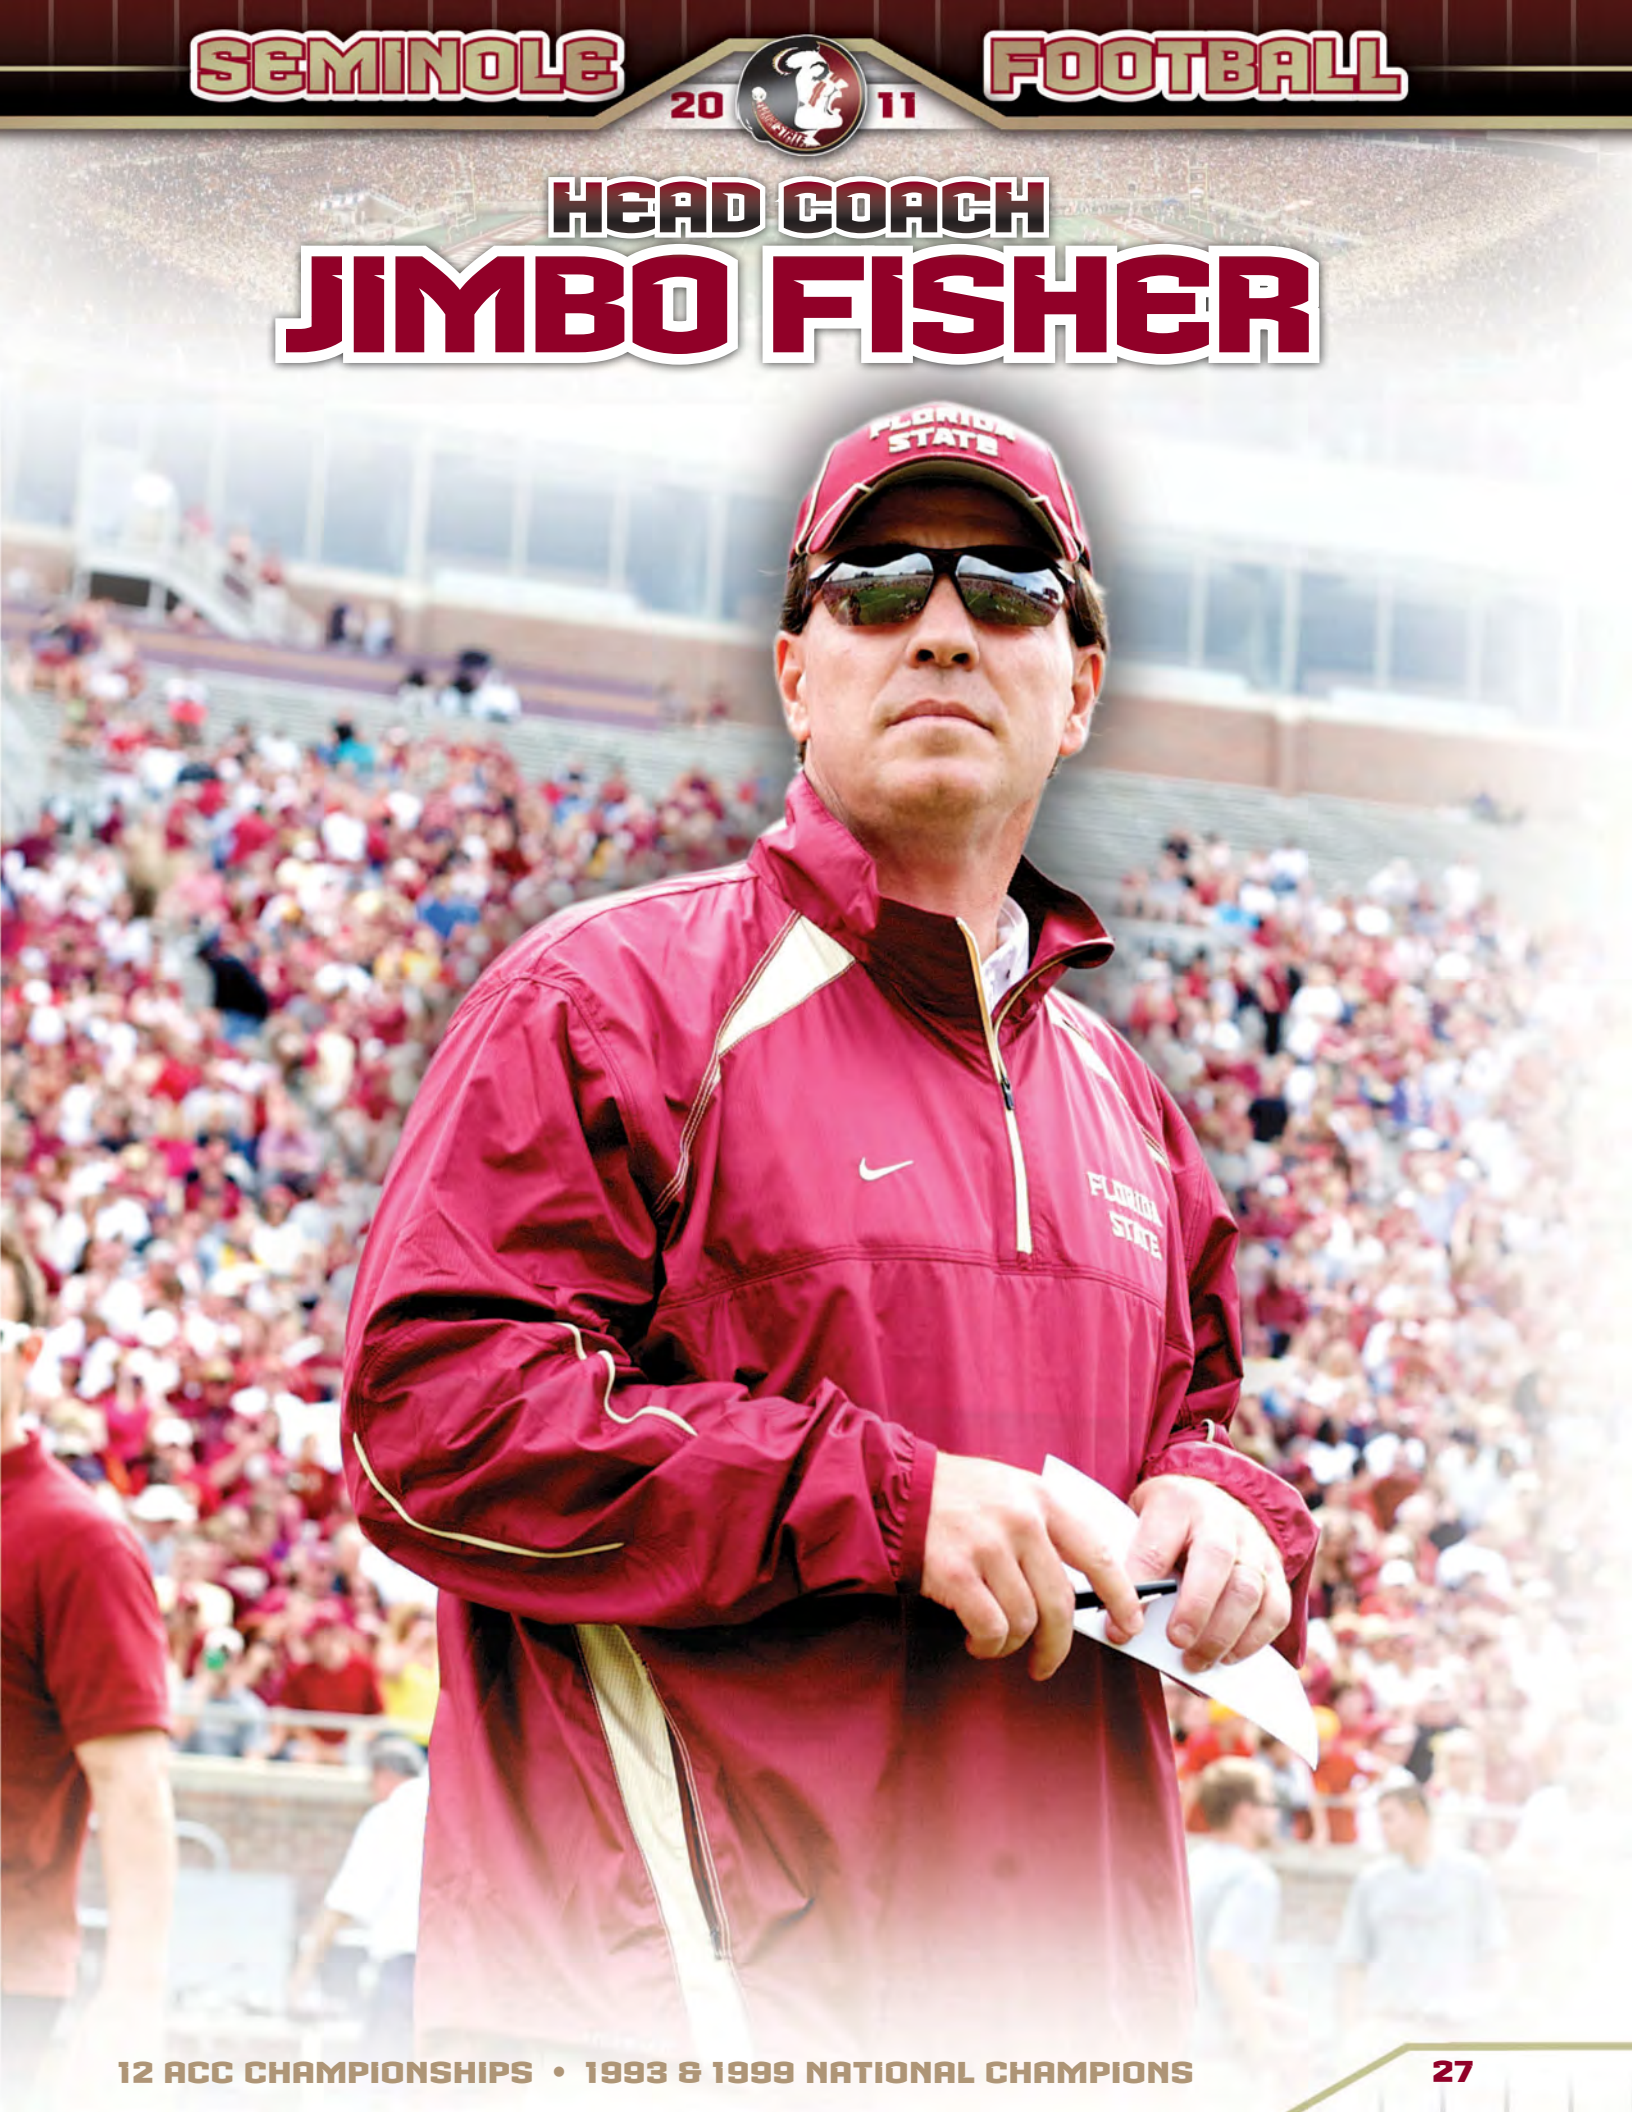
HEAD COACH JIMBO FISHER



HEAD COACH

JIMBO FISHER

- Head Coach
- 24th Season
- 2nd Year as Head Coach at FSU (5th Year Overall)

Hard work was a family value in the Clarksburg, West Virginia home where Jimbo Fisher was raised; the oldest son of a coal miner and a teacher. Applying those lessons instilled at an early age served Fisher well both athletically and professionally and ultimately delivered him to Florida State University, where he was elevated to head football coach on January 5, 2010.

A veteran of 22 seasons as a college assistant, including three as FSU's offensive coordinator, Fisher succeeded Bobby Bowden – the second winningest coach in major college football – as the Seminoles' ninth head coach and first new one in 35 years.

In just over a year, he has helped deliver the Seminoles back to a place of national prominence. Boasting a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll, Fisher led his team to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship with a 26-17 win over then No. 19 South Carolina. His first season also included a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003 as the Seminoles finished 10-4. In just his first season as a head coach, Fisher won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC history. He was named the 2010 Football Writer's Association of America's Freshman All-America Team Coach.

Three of his players in 2010 earned All-America honors in offensive guard Rodney Hudson (consensus All-America selection), defensive end Brandon Jenkins and cornerback Xavier Rhodes. Rhodes was named the ACC Rookie of the Year and National Defensive Freshman of the Year. Fisher capped off the 2010 season with three seniors selected in the 2011 NFL Draft led by quarterback Christian Ponder – the No. 12 overall pick in the draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Ponder became the highest offensive player to go for the 'Noles since offensive lineman Alex Barron in 2005. Before Ponder, Gary Huff was the highest drafted FSU QB as the 33rd overall pick in the second round of the 1973 draft.

Fisher carried the success of his first season onto the recruiting trail as he put together a 2011 recruiting class ranked either first or second nationally by ESPN.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com.

"It is not a common man that I introduce you to today as our head football coach," FSU Director of Athletics Randy Spetman said at Fisher's formal introduction. "A common man would not have the courage, patience and determination to follow the greatest college football coach in history. A common man would find it too challenging to accept the coach-in-waiting role and ignore openings at other top-flight programs. A common man could not have rekindled the Seminoles spirit, excitement and vision so quickly."

Few embody the "unconquered spirit" that defines the Seminole Nation as well as Fisher, whose best attributes include a relentless work ethic, the passionate pursuit of perfection, a keen vision for the long range future as well as a sense of place for his faith, family and football.

"I've been preparing for this day for a long time," Fisher said at his introductory press conference. "I've been fortunate in my life to be around a lot of successful people that I have learned many, many things from. But I think the greatest thing that I've learned from them is I have to be myself. I must do things the way I want to do them, do what got me here and remember the reasons why I am here."

Fisher has not wasted any time putting his stamp on the Seminoles. From assembling a staff of energetic, ambitious assistants, to dramatically overhauling the program's infrastructure, he has left no stone unturned. His attention to every aspect of the program – from strength & conditioning, nutrition, mental training, academic support, talent evaluation and recruiting, player development and peer mentoring among teammates – is centered on establishing an unshakeable foundation that emphasizes the whole development of each player.

"You have to remember, there are so many good athletes out there," Fisher said during his first spring tour of Seminole Booster clubs. "I believe the key is player development. We must develop our players as people first, then everything else will take care of itself."

Fisher has carefully crafted his vision for the Seminoles through 19 seasons as a full-time, college assistant. Nick Saban and Bobby Bowden, each of whom have won two national championships and authored perfect seasons, have been the most influential coaches in his career.

"I really have a lot of confidence in Jimbo. He is one of the sharpest coaches, young coaches I have seen. He will hire well and he will recruit well. I think he will do good."

- BOBBY BOWDEN

Yet the greatest influences in Fisher's life have been his parents, John James and Gloria Fisher. His late father, a coal miner and farmer who demanded accountability from sons Jimbo and Bryan, helped them understand the value of hard work from an early age. Those lessons extended beyond the family farm and home and onto the fields and courts as a promising young football, basketball and baseball player.

"My dad was probably as much an influence as anyone because he always tried to make me think the game," Fisher said. "I was always a kid that when I played youth sports, I always played up (an age group). I was the young guy who always had to play against the older kids. Everybody would say, 'Well, they're bigger and faster.' I said, 'So? All you have to do is win. Out-think them.'

"At an early age I was always intrigued about why things happened. I wasn't the kid that just played and forgot it. I always wanted to know why it worked. I thought about it all the time."

By the time Fisher reached junior high school and became the starting quarterback, he was calling plays in the huddle. And win or lose, the car rides home with his father always included a critique of what transpired on the field.

"My feet were to the fire every time I played because my father was like that," Fisher said. "He never let you dwell on the things you did well. He'd remind you that you did well, but would ask, 'Why did you do that?' … He was always honest. He never told me what I wanted to hear. He always told me the truth. That's a message I try to tell our players."

Fisher learned about tough-love from his father, but his future was also shaped by his mother, Gloria, who just completed her 51st year teaching high school chemistry. It was Gloria who made sure that her son escaped from a life in the coal mines and followed his dream after an all-state career at Liberty High School.

"I always knew I was going to play or coach," Fisher said. "I've known it as far back as I can remember."

HEAD COACH

After a one-semester stop at Clemson, where he was going to play baseball, Fisher returned home to Salem College in West Virginia. He starred for three seasons at quarterback, establishing a school and conference record for career passing yardage. A two-time conference player of the year and an All-American in his final season at Salem, Fisher transferred to Samford College in Birmingham, Alabama for his final season of eligibility. He enjoyed a record-setting season in 1987 with the Bulldogs, earning NCAA Division III National Player of the Year honors, which he parlayed into a season with the Chicago Bruisers of the Arena Football League.

In 1993, Fisher joined the staff at Auburn and over the next 14 seasons, including stops at Cincinnati and LSU, he built a reputation as a keen play-caller whose development of quarterbacks was second-to-none in major college football. His list of standout pupils included record-setters Stan White, Patrick Nix and Dameyune Craig, who is the lone 3,000-yard passer in Auburn history. After guiding Cincinnati to one of its most prolific seasons in a one-year stint, he joined Saban's staff at LSU. Over the course of a seven-year run with the Tigers, quarterbacks Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck, JaMarcus Russell and Matt Flynn were selected in the NFL Draft. Russell, who was the first player selected in the 2007 NFL Draft, and Davey remain the only 3,000-yard passers in LSU history.

"We worked together for five years. He did a fabulous job for us at LSU as the offensive coordinator. I think he's got all the right stuff to be a great head coach. I know he's turned down other opportunities to stay at Florida State and we're happy he's getting the opportunity as a head coach."

- ALABAMA HEAD COACH NICK SABAN

LSU made seven consecutive bowl appearances, won two SEC titles, posted a 70-20 record and won the 2003 BCS National Championship with Fisher as its offensive coordinator. He was a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

Fisher accepted Bobby Bowden's invitation to join the Florida State staff as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in January 2007 and by the end of his first year, was tabbed as Bowden's successor upon retirement. The quick ascent followed a similar arc to the Seminoles' offense, which has improved statistically in each of his four seasons.

Along the way he has significantly impacted FSU's recruiting, been instrumental in the development of quarterbacks Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel and set the table for the inevitable transition to the seat occupied by Bowden since 1976. The time as a coach-in-waiting allowed him the opportunity to closely evaluate the players and program as a whole; what changes needed to be made and how to work the proper channels to get that accomplished.

"Sometimes it takes (new coaches) a year to figure out who has control of what; whose toes you're stepping on and what has to change," Fisher said. "The timetable (provided) and the ability to know where to go and how to handle each situation was one of the biggest benefits to me."

Fisher moved swiftly assembling his staff, retaining four assistants – Rick Trickett, James Coley, Lawrence Dawsey and Odell Haggins – while adding five new ones. Eddie Gran, Mark Stoops, Greg Hudson, Dameyune Craig and D.J. Eliot clearly reflect Fisher's image: young and energetic with proven track records for recruiting and a history of winning. Collectively the average age of his staff is just under 40 and yet brings nearly 80 years of experience to the table. They have coached in four of the six BCS conferences – SEC, Pac-12, Big Ten and Big East – as well as Conference USA, WAC and Notre Dame.

Fisher had crossed paths with many of them throughout his career, including strength & conditioning coach Vic Viloria, who heads up a large staff dedicated to football; more than tripling the size of the previous staff.

Fisher and all of his assistants coaches are married with children so having family involved with the football program is a priority to the second-year head coach.

"Family is very important to me," said Fisher. "My wife and my children are the reasons I am able to do what I do."

Candi Fisher and their sons, Trey and Ethan, are regular visitors in the football office and on the practice field. So, too are the spouses and children of other members of the FSU coaching staff.

"I think a coach's family is the key to good coaching," Fisher said. "When you have a happy family and they're important, it makes for better coaches.

"Our staff is a big family and a lot of times it's the only family you have, because in this world of coaching the staff and their families have to stick together. We're people who have a lot of the same values and principles about family. It just seems to work better. Family is a huge part of my life and I look at our staff as our extended family."

In the same sense, Fisher treats his players very much like his own, challenging, praising, even admonishing, when necessary. It is all in an attempt to help each and every one reach their full potential as student-athletes and responsible young adults, thus strengthening the team one player at a time.

He firmly believes that it takes a keen ability to focus on the task at hand to fulfill, not only their individual potential, but the collective result as teammates.

"The biggest thing a player has to understand is that he has to control what he can control," Fisher said. "He can't get caught up in the outside distractions. As crazy as it sounds – and it's contradictory to a point – you can't worry about winning. We're competing to win, but how do we win? …

"We all say there is no 'I' in team, but there is an 'I' in win. You have to be the best you can be and do your job so you can be accountable, so your team can win. Then you start affecting other players."

Fisher wants relentless competitors to define his Florida State program; players who are immune to adversity.

As a hands-on head coach who will continue to work with the quarterbacks and call plays, Fisher will remain a vocal presence on the field, while balancing a myriad of off-the-field responsibilities as he continues to shape the Florida State program in his own image.

Fisher will do that with a sense of responsibility and appreciation for Florida State's rich past and the men – Bowden and the players who have come before those he coaches today – who have built the program. Not surprisingly, he has welcomed those players back with open arms in an effort to bridge the past with the present and future.

"Florida State is fortunate to have Jimbo Fisher as its head coach. He is an outstanding football coach and a tremendous family man. I had the opportunity to work with him for a short time and learned a great deal working alongside him. He was ready to be a head coach at that time, and I know he is even more prepared today. He has a big job in following one of the true legends of our sport in Coach Bowden, but I know Jimbo is prepared for the challenge."

- NEBRASKA HEAD COACH BO PELINI

"There is such a great desire to be successful here," Fisher said. "That feeling is shared by our family, our student body, our alumni, our players and the ex-coaches that have made it that way. We won't be any different. I have stated before, there are many approaches to doing things. I will have my own philosophies on things. I will do things in many different ways, but as long as the core values and principles don't change, to me, then tradition doesn't change."

It's that rich tradition that drew Fisher to Florida State and his time under Bowden. Now it is time to build on it.

"History is our greatest teacher and it always will be," Fisher said. "We're not asking to do things that have never been done here before. We're just asking to go back where they should be. With a little bit of hard work, as an old guy used to tell me, the secret to success is that there is no secret. The secret to success is hard work. Have your plan, be yourself, do what you think is right, do what got you here. That won a guy 389 games. Hopefully it will win me a bunch."

HEAD COACH

- Named the 2010 Football Writer's Association of America's Freshman All-America Team Coach
- Won the most games (10) by a first-year coach in Florida State history and the third-most by a rookie coach in ACC history
- Put together a 2011 recruiting class ranked either first or second nationally by ESPN.com, Scout.com and Rivals.com
- Led FSU to its 29th consecutive bowl appearance - the longest active streak in the nation and second all-time to Nebraska's 35.
- Led FSU to first ACC Atlantic Division title since 2005 and first season sweep of Miami and Florida since 1999. In posting the first season sweep of in-state rivals Florida and Miami, joined former Florida coaches Ray Graves (1960) and Galen Hall (1985) to pull off the feat as a first-year coach. The 52-point combined margin of victory over the rival Hurricanes and Gators was the widest margin in a season sweep by the Seminoles
- Guided FSU to its best home record (6-1) since posting 6-0 marks at Doak Campbell Stadium in 1999 and 2000
- By winning six of his first seven games, joined former FSU coaches Don Veller ('48) and Larry Jones ('71) to notch that feat as a first-year coach with the 'Noles.
- Responsible for developing FSU QB Christian Ponder who, as a second-year starter, led the ACC in total offense and passing yards per game in 2009. Ponder capped off his senior season in 2010 by becoming the 12th overall pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft.
- As FSU's offensive coordinator from 2007-09, the Seminoles improved each season to rank among the ACC leaders in total offense
- Offensive coordinator for the 2003 National Champion LSU Tigers
- Coached three LSU players selected in the first round of the 2007 NFL Draft including No. 1 overall pick JaMarcus Russell
- Five LSU quarterbacks in seven years were NFL Draft picks (Josh Booty, Rohan Davey, Craig Nall, Matt Mauck and JaMarcus Russell)
- Tigers posted a 70-20 record and went to seven bowl games with Fisher as offensive coordinator. The 70 wins and seven bowl appearances are the most in any seven-year stretch in LSU history
- While at LSU, the Tigers won two SEC titles and played in three BCS Bowl games
- Named a finalist for the 2001 Frank Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach
- Coached the only two 3,000-yard passers in LSU history (Russell and Davey)
- In 1999, his offense at Cincinnati was ranked 16th in the NCAA
- Coached the only 3,000-yard passer in the history of Auburn football (Dameyune Craig)

JIMBO FISHER SECURES HISTORIC FIRST FSU VICTORY

Jimbo Fisher, the ninth coach in Florida State's 64-year football history, became just the fourth man to make a winning debut when the Seminoles opened the 2010 season with a 59-6 victory over Samford on Sept. 4. That's something a pair of College Football Hall of Famers - Bobby Bowden and Darrell Mudra - did not accomplish. Neither did Ed Williamson, Tom Nugent or Perry Moss. Prior to Fisher's opening triumph, the last coach to lead FSU to victory in his first game was Larry Jones, whose Seminoles defeated Southern Miss, 24-9 on Sept. 11, 1971.

COACHING STAFF

JAMES COLEY

- Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends
- 15th Season
- 4th at Florida State

• James Coley is in his fourth season at Florida State – second as the offensive coordinator and fourth as tight ends coach. In 2010, the Seminoles ranked among the ACC leaders in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense. Coley helped direct the Seminoles' offense which was led by 2011 NFL first round selection Christian Ponder (Minnesota Vikings).

• In 2010, FSU was the fourth-best scoring offense in the ACC averaging 31.4 points per games and ranked fourth in rushing offense with 171.4 yards per game. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games – BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina. FSU also led the league in third down conversions (47.6 percent).

• Coley's work on the field has been instrumental in bringing the tight end position back to a place of prominence for the Seminoles. Florida State's tight ends combined for more than 200 yards receiving in 2010. In 2009, tight ends Caz Piurowski and Beau Reliford combined for 24 receptions, 283 yards and four TDs. Those totals were tempered by Piurowski's season-ending knee injury at mid-year. The four TDs were the most for the `Noles from the tight end position since 1994.

Alma Mater:	Florida State, 1997
Birthdate:	April 14, 1973
Family:	wife, Kenia Coley; daughter, Madison (3); son, Brady (6 months in July)

• As the recruiting coordinator at Florida State in 2008 and 2009, Coley was instrumental in the Seminoles landing back-to-back Top 10 signing classes, which have helped re-stock FSU's talent pool. He was the named the top recruiter in the ACC in 2010 by ESPN.com. Coley's boundless energy on the recruiting trail earned him a huge fan following on his @CoachColey twitter account.

• Coley was the offensive coordinator at Florida International in 2007 and spent six seasons in the Miami high school ranks, including a three-year run as offensive coordinator at Norland, which won a state title. A two-year offensive graduate assistant at LSU, where he worked alongside coordinator Jimbo Fisher, was followed by two seasons on the offensive staff with the Miami Dolphins under Nick Saban.

• Prior to arriving at FSU, Coley spent one season as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at FIU. The Miami native completely overhauled the Golden Panthers offense and established new standards for rushing yardage, as the unit doubled its production over the second half of the season.

• In two seasons as an offensive assistant with Saban's Miami Dolphins, Coley had an opportunity to work with running backs Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown ('05) when they boasted the NFL's seventh-rated rushing attack. In 2006 he worked with the receivers, Including All-Pro Chris Chambers and Wes Welker, and was responsible for breaking down opposing defenses and self-scouting as the quality control coach.

• Coley's first foray into the college game came as a graduate assistant at LSU on offensive coordinator Jimbo Fisher's staff in 2003 and 2004. The Tigers won the 2003 SEC Title and National Championship and played in the 2004 Capital One Bowl.

• Coley initially crossed paths with Fisher while coaching high school football in Miami from 1997-2002. His first job was as the quarterbacks coach at Miami Senior, where he spent three seasons and worked with current NFL standouts Andre Johnson and Roscoe Parrish.

• He moved to Norland in 2000 as assistant head coach/offensive coordinator and coached several players who had outstanding collegiate careers, including Dwayne Bowe (LSU), Kareem Brown (Miami), Alexander Bostic III (FIU) and Antwan Barnes (FIU) during a three-year run which culminated with the school winning the 6A state title in 2002.

• After graduating from Florida State in '97, Coley received his master's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2004.

MARK STOOPS

- Defensive Coordinator/Secondary
- 22nd Season
- 2nd at Florida State

• Mark Stoops is in his 22nd season of coaching and his second year as Florida State's defensive coordinator and secondary coach. Hired by Jimbo Fisher is January of 2010 to replace the venerable Mickey Andrews, Stoops came to FSU from Arizona, where he spent six seasons serving the Wildcats in the same capacity under his brother head coach Mike Stoops. He is also the brother of Oklahoma head coach Bob Stoops.

• Stoops is credited with overhauling the Seminoles' defense in his first season as Florida State's defensive coordinator in 2010. The 'Noles yielded 19.6 points per game which was third best in the ACC and 20th in the nation. The Seminoles ranked 42nd nationally in total defense after ranking 108th in 2009 and ranked sixth in the ACC in 2010 after ranking last in the league in total defense in 2009. Florida State improved its overall defense by more than 80 total yards per game, mainly by limiting opponents to 75 less rushing yards per game. The Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks and 21st in tackles for loss led by second team All-American Brandon Jenkins who finished with 13.5 sacks (third-most in the ACC and sixth nationally) and 21.5 tackles for loss. FSU tied with Boise State for the national lead with 48 total sacks. In the secondary, he coached Xavier Rhodes to ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year honors and National Defensive Freshman of the Year honors. In 2011, he returns eight starters from a defense which helped produce wins over two SEC East powers in Florida and South Carolina.

• Stoops was instrumental in turning Arizona into one of the finest defensive units in the Pac-10 during his six-year stint. Arizona ranked 25th nationally in total defense in 2009 and was ranked among the top three in the conference in five statistical categories as the Wildcats finished with a second consecutive 8-5 season.

• Stoops built an impressive resume by developing nationally elite units, especially in the secondary. Prior to his six-year run at Arizona, he spent three seasons at the University of Miami as the secondary coach. His 2002 and 2003 units led the nation in pass defense, while the 2001 Hurricanes - which won the national championship - led the nation in pass efficiency defense, scoring defense and turnover margin.

• He spent the 2000 season as co-defensive coordinator at Houston, following a three-year run at Wyoming as the secondary coach. His first full-time college job came in 1996 when he was hired by USF to help with the start-up of the program.

• A proponent of zone schemes, Stoops' pass defenses have been especially proficient and extraordinary at takeaways. The 2001 Miami team established a single-season school record with 27 interceptions and 45 takeaways. Miami's 2002 secondary tied an NCAA record by allowing just 9.5 yards per completion. The 2003 Hurricanes were second in total defense and fourth in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense. The 1997 Wyoming secondary contributed significantly to its school-record 24 interceptions.

• Stoops recruited and developed some of the finest defensive backs in the nation over the past decade, many of who have gone on to enjoy outstanding NFL careers. Among the notable are Arizona's Antoine Cason and Michael Johnson, Miami's Philip Buchanon, Kelly Jennings, Brandon Merriweather, Ed Reed, Antrel Rolle, Mike Rumph, Sean Taylor, and Wyoming's Brian Lee.

• Like his brothers, Stoops played collegiately in the secondary at Iowa for Hall of Fame coach Hayden Fry. Fry hired Stoops as a graduate assistant for the 1990 and 1991 seasons. The Hawkeyes won the 1990 Big Ten title and played in the Rose Bowl; duplicating feats Stoops also achieved as a player during a four-year career.

• As a player and a coach, he has taken part in 12 bowls, including his first season at Florida State and both of his final two seasons at Arizona.

• Before launching his collegiate coaching career, Stoops followed in his father's footsteps as a high school football coach. He spent four years at Ohio's Nordonia Hills as an assistant and the school's athletic director.

• Raised in Youngstown, Ohio, Stoops played high school football at Cardinal Mooney.

COACHING STAFF

EDDIE GRAN

- Associate Head Coach/Running Backs/Special Teams
- 25th Season
- 2nd at Florida State

• Eddie Gran is in his 25th season of collegiate coaching and his second season at Florida State, where he will serve as associate head coach, coach the running backs and coordinate special teams. Gran spent 11 seasons as a running backs coach and special teams coordinator in the SEC, including 10 years at Auburn, followed by a stop at Tennessee before coming to Florida State in 2010.

• Gran helped develop Florida State's running game into one of the strongest in the ACC in his first season in Tallahassee in 2009. The Seminoles averaged nearly 5.0 yards per carry and ranked third in the league in rushing touchdowns with 27. The Seminoles ranked fourth in the league in scoring as compared to sixth the year before Gran's arrival. In 2010, three Seminole running backs gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground led by FSU's leading rusher Chris Thompson, who gained 845 yards. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games – BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina.

• Gran is considered to be one of the top special teams coaches in all of college football as evidenced by the Seminoles ranking as the ACC leaders in punting, kickoff coverage, field goals made and PAT percentage. He will work with arguably the top two kickers in college football in kicker Dustin Hopkins and punter Shawn Powell and the most dangerous punt and kickoff return man in the nation Greg Reid.

• Gran has a strong record for developing backfield talent. During his 14 seasons as the assistant to Tommy Tuberville at Ole Miss and Auburn, he sent eight running backs to the NFL, including former Tigers Carnell Williams, Ronnie Brown, Rudi Johnson, Brandon Jacobs, Heath Evans and Kenny Irons. They were preceded by former Rebels Deuce McCallister and John Avery.

• Tennessee's Mario Hardesty (1,345 yards) added his name to the lengthy list of 1,000-yard rushers Gran has worked with over the course of his career in '09. Hardesty, who did not fumble on 282 carries from scrimmage in 2009, was a second-round draft pick of the Cleveland Browns in 2010. He was selected one slot after Auburn's Ben Tate (Houston Texans), whom Gran coached in 2008.

• Gran's tenure as a special teams coach included oversight of Auburn kicker John Vaughn, who was the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year in 2006. With his hands-on approach in all facets of special teams play, Gran is widely regarded as one of the most meticulous in tutoring the game's critical "third phase."

• Beyond the playing field, Gran has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He has spent the better part of two decades recruiting Miami and greater South Florida as his primary territory, where he first crossed paths with Jimbo Fisher. The fertile ground has remained his primary recruiting area with the Seminoles and he helped the Seminoles attract the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in 2011. He and fellow assistant coach Lawrence Dawsey were named two of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011.

• Gran and his wife, Rosemary, are deeply involved in the community for a cause that has changed their lives and continues to impact others. The Sydney Gran Foundation is a charity designed to support children's hospitals and other families whose children are facing serious illness. Sydney, the third of the Gran's four daughters, was born with the rare disease called Holoprosnecephaly. She passed away just shy of her sixth birthday in 2005. Additional information is available at www.sydneygranfoundation.org.

• Gran's 25 seasons in the college ranks includes stops from coast-to-coast. It began at his alma mater Cal Lutheran, where he played four seasons as a wide receiver. Like fellow FSU staff members Mark Stoops and D.J. Eliot, Gran also served on the staff at the University of Miami.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RICK TRICKETT

- Assistant Head Coach/Offense/Offensive Line
- 39th Season
- 5th at Florida State

• One of the top and most respected offensive line coaches in all of college football, Rick Trickett enters his fifth season at Florida State and his 39th overall. He is nationally recognized for his ability to identify, recruit and develop talent, he has transformed the Seminoles' offensive line into one of the finest units in the nation.

• Trickett coached Rodney Hudson throughout his career at Florida State. Hudson closed his career as the most decorated offensive lineman in school and ACC history, earning unanimous first team All-American honors in 2010. Hudson was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, won his second consecutive Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's most dominant lineman and was only the second lineman in league history to be selected All-ACC four times.

• In 2010, Trickett's unit led the way for three Seminole running backs who gained more than 400 yards rushing on the ground. It was only the sixth time in FSU history that a trio gained more than 400 yards in a season. FSU ran for more than 200 yards five times as a team including a 298-yard performance against in-state rival Miami which capped off a string of four consecutive 200-yard rushing games – BYU (278), Wake Forest (201), Virginia (256) and Miami (298). FSU ran for 218 yards in the Chick-fil-A bowl win over SEC East Champion South Carolina. Center Ryan McMahon finished his career as the all-time leader in career starts (53) after Trickett converted the defensive tackle into a mainstay on the offensive line for four years. Going into 2011, his bookends – left tackle Andrew Datko and right tackle Zebrie Sanders – are already garnering preseason honors. The two have a combined 73 career starts.

• In 2009, Trickett's unit allowed just 20 sacks - the fewest by an FSU team since 1997 - as the `Noles averaged 271.8 yards a game through the air. In 2008, the `Noles averaged 179.1 yards a game on the ground; the best by an FSU team since 2002.

• All five Florida State starting offensive linemen in 2009 were nominated for All-ACC honors by opposing league coaches, marking a first in Trickett's distinguished career.

• Trickett has coached seven All-American offensive linemen in his storied career at some of the nation's top schools, including Hudson, who earned the distinction from the Football Writers Association of America in 2009 and was a unanimous All-American selection in 2010.

• He has been nominated for the Frank Broyles Award twice which goes to the nation's top assistant coach. He was nominated in 2006 and 2009.

• Three FSU linemen – guard Rodney Hudson, center Ryan McMahon and current tackle Andrew Datko – garnered Freshman All-American honors while playing for Trickett. He has coached 15 players that have been named either first or second team freshmen All-Americans.

• Trickett has a track record for developing strong units quickly. FSU improved its per game rushing yards average by more than 70 yards after two seasons. After one season at West Virginia, the Mountaineer running game improved from 35th in the nation to second in 2002. From 2002-2006, West Virginia finished among the top 15 rushing offenses and three times were among the top five nationally.

• In 2006 as the offensive line coach at West Virginia, the Mountaineers were second in the nation in rushing, third in scoring offense and fifth in total offense. Only two other schools in the previous 10 years had finished in the top five of each of those categories.

• At Auburn, he coached four linemen - Wayne Gandy, Willie Anderson, Victor Riley and Kendall Simmons - who were selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

• More than 30 players Trickett has coached have gone on to play in the NFL.

• More than 30 players have won all-conference honors under Trickett, including four of his five linemen at West Virginia in 2005 and 2006. At LSU in 2000, three of his players earned All-SEC honors.

• Trickett earned his undergraduate degree in 1972 from Glenville (W.Va.), where he was an all-conference strong safety. He received his master's degree from Indiana (Pa.) in 1975.

• Trickett is a U.S. Marine Corps and Vietnam War veteran.

• The Tricketts have been a fixture on the FSU campus since Rick's 2007 arrival in Tallahassee. Two of Tara and Rick's sons have been involved in the football program with Travis serving as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 after serving as a videographer. He received his master's degree from FSU and is now an assistant coach for tight ends and slot receivers at Samford. Clint is a redshirt freshman quarterback with the Seminoles and Chance graduated in spring 2011 with his bachelor's degree.

GREG HUDSON

- Assistant Head Coach-Defense/Linebackers
- 21st Season
- 2nd at Florida State

• Greg Hudson is in his 21st season of collegiate coaching and second as Florida State's assistant head coach and linebackers coach. He is one of the architects of Florida State's rapidly improving defense. In particular, the Seminoles' linebackers were considered to be one of Florida State's most improved units in 2010.

• Florida State's defense in 2010 was rated as the 42nd best out of 120 Division I teams after ranking 108th the season before Hudson's arrival in Tallahassee. The Seminoles ranked 20th in the nation in scoring defense in 2010 after ranking 94th nationally in 2009. The Seminoles allowed more than 80 fewer yards defensively in 2010 than it did in 2009. Hudson coached two of the team's three leading tacklers in Nigel Bradham (98 tackles) and Kendall Smith (97 tackles). Bradhman returns in 2011 as Hudson will be challenged in grooming a very talented corps of linebackers with limited playing experience in Vince Williams, Christian Jones, Telvin Smith, Nigel Terrell, Jeff Luc and Holmes Onwukaife.

• During his tenure at East Carolina, where he worked for one-time FSU graduate assistant Skip Holtz, the Pirates set new standards for excellence. ECU posted four consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 30 years and made four consecutive bowl appearances for the first time in school history. The Pirates also became the first team to win consecutive Conference USA championship games, pulling off the feat in 2008 and 2009 and knocking off two of the nation's top rated offenses in Tulsa (2008) and Houston (2009).

• Hudson's ECU defenses earned a reputation for turning over opponents, coming up with 145 takeaways in five seasons - an average of 29 per season - which ranks among the top 10 of all FBS programs in that stretch.

• The Pirates finished in the top 10 nationally in four defensive categories in 2009 - fumbles recovered (3rd, 17), red zone defense (7th, 0.71 pct), turnovers gained (4th, 34) and turnover margin (10th, +0.79). They also led CUSA in scoring defense (21.93) and turnover margin.

• In 2008, Hudson's ECU defense led CUSA in total defense and scoring defense, despite losing several key players to injury. He earned national recognition for his work when the Pirates shut down No. 8 West Virginia's spread offense, led by quarterback Pat White, in a 24-3 victory. ECU also defeated eventual ACC champion Virginia Tech to open the 2008 season.

• Hudson has coached on both sides of the football over the course of his career, which began at the University of Redlands (Cal.) with the linebackers in 1991. He worked with the offensive line as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame in 1993 and was on the sideline for the historical "Game of the Century," when the Fighting Irish hosted Florida State. Hudson's first full-time post in the major college ranks came at Connecticut, where he had oversight of the offensive line. He held the same position during his first season at Cincinnati. Hudson returned to defense and worked with linebackers at both Cincinnati and Minnesota.

• A product of the legendary high school powerhouse Cincinnati Moeller, he was inducted into the Moeller Sports Hall of Fame in February 2011. Hudson attended Notre Dame and played linebacker for the Irish. He was also a catcher on the Notre Dame baseball team.

ASSISTANT COACHES

DAMEYUNE CRAIG

- Recruiting Coordinator/Quarterbacks
- 8th Season
- 2nd at Florida State

• Dameyune Craig began to make his mark as Florida State's recruiting coordinator and quarterbacks coach as he reached two very big milestones in 2010: The Seminoles attracted the nation's No. 1 recruiting class and Christian Ponder – the Seminoles' quarterback in Craig's first season – was selected in the first round of the NFL Draft. Ponder became the first Florida State quarterback to be selected in the first round of the NFL Draft.

• Craig will be charged with helping head coach Jimbo Fisher develop Florida State's next all-star caliber quarterback, EJ Manuel in 2011 as well as back-up quarterbacks Will Secord, Clint Trickett and Jacob Coker. In 2010, FSU shined in passing efficiency with Ponder (135.7 passing efficiency) ranking third in the ACC and 44th nationally. Ponder and Manuel combined to throw for 2,905 yards while Ponder completed 61.5 percent of his passes and Manuel completed 69.9 percent of his passes.

Alma Mater:	Auburn, '02
Birthdate:	April 19, 1974
Family:	wife, Neke Craig; sons, Devin (12) and Drake Christian (8)

• Craig is in his eighth season as a college coach and came to Florida State after a strong two-year run at South Alabama where he directed the wide receivers for Joey Jones. Jones made Craig his first hire when he was charged with starting the Jaguars' football program, which played its first season in 2009 and is in the process of becoming a Football Championship Subdivision program.

• Craig played quarterback under Jimbo Fisher's watchful eye for four seasons at Auburn. He still holds numerous Auburn passing records, including completions (216) and passing yards (3,227) in a season as well as a single-game record for most net yards gained (445 vs. Army in 1996; 75 rush, 370 pass). The two were reunited at LSU when Craig began his collegiate coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant on Nick Saban's staff, which included Fisher as the offensive coordinator. He also spent one season with Saban as a special teams assistant with the Miami Dolphins.

• After spending four years in the NFL, Craig returned to the college ranks and helped Tuskegee to a two-year record of 22-2. As the Golden Tigers' quarterbacks coach he was instrumental in fine-tuning an impressive offense and also earned the reputation as an outstanding recruiter. Tuskegee won a pair of SIAC titles and defeated Virginia Union in the Pioneer Bowl X to cap a 12-0 season in 2007 by winning the Black College National Championship.

• At South Alabama, Craig was instrumental in implementing a run-based, spread offense that put up prolific numbers during its seven-game inaugural season in 2009. The Jaguars (7-0) averaged 45.9 points and 439 yards of total offense in 2009.

• Craig also brings professional experience as a player to the Seminoles. He signed as a free agent quarterback with the NFL's Carolina Panthers and appeared in six games over a four-year stretch. Craig gained his greatest acclaim on the field as a pro with the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe, where he passed for a single-game league record 611 yards against Frankfort and matched another league mark with five touchdown passes in a game. He finished his professional playing career in 2002 with Indiana of the Arena Football League.

• Craig began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Blount, near Mobile, Ala., where he was an assistant coach in 2003.

ASSISTANT COACHES

LAWRENCE DAWSEY

- Passing Game Coordinator/Wide Receivers
- 11th Season
- 5th at Florida State

• Lawrence Dawsey is in his fifth season on the Florida State staff and his second season as the Seminoles' passing game coordinator and receivers coach. Dawsey added passing game coordinator to his title in 2010 and helped the Seminole receivers flourish as one of the deepest and best coached units on the field for the Seminoles.

• Florida State's receivers have prospered under Dawsey's direction. In 2010, four receivers caught at least 30 passes and Florida State ranked fifth in the ACC in pass receptions and sixth in receiving yards. Senior wide receiver Bert Reed enters the 2011 season ranked third on the ACC career active leaders' list in pass receptions (141) and ninth in receiving yards (1,619). Reed is sixth in career receptions and 19th in career receiving yards in FSU history. Dawsey returns three of his top four receivers in 2011 in Reed, Willie Haulstead and Rodney Smith who combined for 127 receptions, 1,649 yards and 11 touchdowns last season. A young talented group of receivers is ready to take the next step in Greg Dent, Christian Green, Jarred Haggins and Kenny Shaw who all are coming off very productive spring practices.

• In 2009, Dawsey tutored Rod Owens and Bert Reed who became the first pair of Seminole receivers to collect at least 60 receptions each in the same season since 1995. Owens (61) and Reed (60) joined the prolific '95 tandem of Andre Cooper (71) and E.G. Green (60) as the only duos to match that standard in program history.

• Dawsey has helped build productive depth in the receiving corps. Five Seminoles in 2009 - Owens, Reed, Jarmon Fortson (45), Taiwan Easterling (35) and Richard Goodman (27) - caught at least 20 passes. FSU had not had five receivers with 20 or more catches since the 1992 season.

THE DAWSEY FILE

Birthdate:	November 16, 1967
Family:	wife, Chantal Dawsey; son, Lawrence, Jr.; stepdaughter, Dominique Moffitt, M.D. and son-in-law Michael Moffitt, M.D.

• The production of Dawsey's receivers has helped the Seminoles improve in total offense over each of the past four seasons, including its average of 421.7 yards per game in 2009 which was the best season at FSU since 2001. FSU's wideouts had a hand in quarterbacks Christian Ponder and EJ Manuel completing 67.7 percent of their pass attempts, which was the highest by the `Noles since Charlie Ward's 1993 Heisman Trophy winning and National Championship campaign.

• In Dawsey's first two seasons at Florida State he helped Greg Carr climb the charts as one of the most productive receivers in school history. Greg Carr finished his career with 148 catches for 2,574 yards and 29 career touchdowns.

• In 2007, Dawsey's first season, Florida State boasted three receivers – Preston Parker, De'Cody Fagg and Carr - with 700 or more receiving yards for the first time in school history.

• Dawsey's first coaching job came as a high school assistant at Tampa Catholic in 1998. He did not return to the sideline until serving as a training camp assistant coach with the NFL's St. Louis Rams in 2001 and returned to the high school ranks in 2002 at Blake in Tampa.

• He spent the 2003 season as a graduate assistant on Nick Saban's LSU staff, where he worked with Jimbo Fisher and also crossed paths with fellow graduate assistant and current FSU assistant James Coley. The Tigers posted a 13-1 record and won the BCS National Championship.

• Dawsey had the opportunity to work with LSU receiver Michael Clayton, who later became the No. 1 selection of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers and broke several of Dawsey's rookie receiving records with the club.

• The season at LSU opened the door for Dawsey's first, full-time college position as he returned to Tampa as the wide receivers coach at USF from 2004-2006. As a recruiter, he was instrumental in landing the talent which helped the Bulls break on to the national scene. USF's passing offense also took flight during Dawsey's three seasons and ranked among the best in the Big East.

• Dawsey was an integral part of the Seminole football dynasty as a player. His four seasons at wide receiver corresponded with the first four 10-win, top-five poll finishes by FSU. As a player, he was known for his work ethic, accountability, precision route-running, down-field blocking and the ability to rise to the occasion in big games. Those are the same qualities he has instilled in his current group of receivers.

• A third-round selection by the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 1991, Dawsey enjoyed a seven-season NFL career. He also played for the New York Giants (1996), Miami Dolphins (1997) and New Orleans Saints (1999).

• Dawsey was named the NFL Rookie of the Year by Sports Illustrated and named to the All-Rookie Team by Pro Football Weekly in 1991 after he led Tampa Bay with 55 receptions and set the club's rookie record with 818 receiving yards. Dawsey also led the team in receptions (60) and receiving yards (776) in 1992.

• Beyond the playing field, Dawsey too has established himself as one of the nation's top recruiters. He's picked up the Seminoles' efforts in the Tampa area and helped the Seminoles attract the nation's No. 1 recruiting class in 2011. He was named one of ESPN.com's Top 25 Recruiters of the Year in 2011. Dawsey was also named the 2011 ACC Recruiter of the Year by SI.com and one of the Top 25 recruiters in the nation in 2011 by Rivals.com. Dawsey's family also has enjoyed success as well. His daughter Dominique and son-in-law Michael Moffitt, both Florida State graduates, have each earned their M.D. at Meharry Medical College in Nashville, Tenn. Dominique is a clinical resident in Anesthesiology at Brigham and Women's Hospital – a Harvard University Hospital.

ASSISTANT COACHES

D.J. ELIOT

- Defensive Ends
- 14th Season
- 2nd at Florida State

• DJ. Eliot is in his 14th season of coaching and second season as defensive ends coach at Florida State. In his first season at Florida State, Eliot's defensive ends were one of the most improved units in all of college football. Led by All-ACC First Team selection Brandon Jenkins, the Seminoles were tied for the national lead with 48 sacks, ranked third with a 3.4 sacks per game and were tied for 11th in total tackles for loss. Jenkins, one of the top defensive ends in all of college football in 2010, was the biggest contributor to the Seminoles' sack and tackle for loss totals. Jenkins totaled 13.5 sacks and 21.5 tackles for loss to rank among the national leaders in both categories. He also was instrumental in the development of right end Markus White, who doubled his production from his junior to senior year and was a seventh round pick of the Washington Redskins in 2011.

THE ELIOT FILE

Alma Mater:	Wyoming, '99
Birthdate:	April 14, 1976
Family:	wife, Miekel Eliot; son, Dawson (6); daughters, Drue (4) and Page (1)

• Eliot came to Tallahassee from Rice in 2010, where he spent three seasons as the recruiting coordinator and defensive line coach. At Rice, Eliot had oversight of the recruiting process; a challenge given the schools' stringent academic standards. He identified and helped develop two true freshmen defensive ends - Scott Solomon (63 tackles) and Cheta Ozougwu (61) - who led all CUSA linemen with 124 combined tackles. They combined for 21 tackles for loss and 11 sacks.

• Eliot was a member of the 2008 Rice staff which guided the Owls to a 10-3 record, capped by a Texas Bowl victory over Western Michigan. It was the program's first 10-win season since 1949 and first bowl triumph since the 1950 Cotton Bowl.

• He is one of three FSU assistants who spent time on the coaching staff at the University of Miami, where he served as a graduate assistant working with defensive backs and special teams in 2002. Mark Stoops was the Hurricanes' secondary coach while Eliot was with the Hurricanes. Eddie Gran also did a graduate assistant stint at Miami a decade earlier.

• Eliot earned his first full-time position at Texas State under David Bailiff, coaching defensive backs one season before a two-year stint with the linebackers. Texas State won the Division I-AA Southland Conference in '05 and qualified for the postseason. Bailiff later hired Eliot to join his staff at Rice.

• Eliot's coaching career also led to a season as the linebackers coach at Tulsa, where he was instrumental in developing CUSA Defensive Player of the Year Nick Bunting as well as all conference standouts Nelson Coleman and Chris Chamberlin. Tulsa earned a berth in the Armed Forces Bowl that same year.

• On the field, Eliot played linebacker for three seasons at Wyoming before joining the Cowboys' coaching staff as a student assistant. He moved into a graduate assistant role in 1999 after earning his undergraduate degree in natural science and was a zoology minor.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ODELL HAGGINS

- Defensive Tackles
- 18th Season
- 18th Season at Florida State

• Odell Haggins is in his 18th season as an assistant coach at Florida State, where he starred on the defensive line from 1986-89. Haggins, who coaches the interior defensive line, is the longest tenured member of the FSU staff. He began his career as a tight ends/offensive line coach in 1994 with the Seminoles and took over the interior defensive line duties in 1996, where he has remained a fixture.

• Haggins' helped produce one of the best defensive lines in the nation in 2010 as the Seminoles ranked third in the nation in quarterback sacks, 21st in tackles for loss and 42nd in total defense. The Seminoles tied with Boise State for first nationally in total sacks with 48 sacks. Three of his defensive tackles – Everett Dawkins, Anthony McCloud and Jacobbi McDaniel - were among the top 15 tacklers on the team and 14.5 tackles for loss.

• Named one of the six best defensive line coaches in college football by CBS Sports columnist Dennis Dodd in 2008, Haggins has repeatedly turned out top-flight talent. Since the 2000 season he has coached eight defensive tackles that have been selected in the NFL Draft.

• The litany of standouts that Haggins has coached includes four first round draft picks: Broderick Bunkley (2006), Travis Johnson (2005), Corey Simon (2000) and Andre Wadsworth (1998). Wadsworth began his career at the nose guard position before moving to defensive end. The No. 3 overall pick (Arizona) in the 1998 draft, Wadsworth remains the highest drafted player in FSU history.

• In addition to the first-rounders, Haggins' pupils have also included Pro Bowler Darnell Dockett (third round) - whom he recruited and mentored - Larry Smith (second), Andre Fluellen (third), Jerry Johnson (fourth), Julian Pittman (fourth) and Letroy Guion (fifth). Six of those Haggins' former charges are still active in the NFL heading into the 2011 season.

• Haggins has won at every level as a player and a coach. He was on the front end of Florida State's dynasty years, starring at nose guard for the Seminoles. FSU posted a 39-8-1 record with Haggins in the lineup from 1986-89 and he was part of four bowl-winning teams. He earned Kodak, Walter Camp and UPI All-American honors as a senior in 1989.

• A ninth-round pick in the 1990 NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers, Haggins went on to play for the Buffalo Bills during their 1991 Super Bowl season. Following a three-year NFL career, he returned to Florida State, completed his degree and joined Bobby Bowden's staff following the Seminoles 1993 national championship season.

• As an assistant coach, Haggins has established himself as an outstanding recruiter, developer of talent and a role model to his players. He was named one of the top 25 recruiters in 2011 by Rivals.com. He has been a part of FSU staffs which have posted a 160-55 record with 17 consecutive bowl appearances.

• Haggins' 1999 defensive front included future NFL standouts Corey Simon and Jerry Johnson, who were instrumental in FSU's 12-0 run to the national championship.

• The Seminoles boasted the nation's top-ranked defense in 1998 and the No. 1 rushing defense in 1996 and 1997. The 2008 defense ranked first nationally in tackles for loss.

COACHING STAFF

VIC VILORIA

- Head Strength and Conditioning Coach/Football
- 8th Season
- 2nd at Florida State

• Vic Viloria is in his second season at Florida State having joined coach Jimbo Fisher's staff in 2010. He came to Florida State from SMU – his alma mater – where he was the strength and conditioning coach for three seasons.

• Viloria was at LSU for two years before going to SMU where he worked under the supervision of Tom Moffitt. While at LSU he worked with the Tigers' nationally ranked football and baseball programs as well as the swimming and golf teams.

• A disciple of renowned weightlifting coach Gayle Hatch, Viloria endorses the "Hatch System" which develops functional and explosive strength in players through the use of free weights, plyometrics and jumping drills.

• Viloria was a four-year letter winner at linebacker for SMU and a three-time member of the All-Western Athletic Conference team. He led the Mustangs in tackles each of final three seasons and recorded at least 10 tackles in 21 games over the course of his career.

• He was a member of the NFL Europe's Scottish Claymores.

• Viloria is certified by USA Weightlifting.

• He is married to former SMU sprinter, Randi Taylor.

COACHING STAFF

BOB LaCIVITA

- Director of Player Personnel
- 5th season at Florida State

• Bob LaCivita is in his fifth season at Florida State where he is responsible for all administrative duties related to football recruiting and the day-to-day administration of the football office as assigned by head coach Jimbo Fisher.

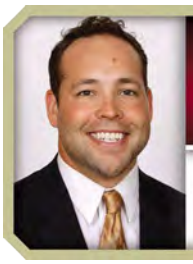
• The Seminoles have landed four consecutive top 10 nationally ranked recruiting classes including last year's No. 1 ranked class since LaCivita arrived in Tallahassee after he spent the previous seven years as the Director of Player Personnel at NC State and the University of Florida. From 1996 to 1998 he served as assistant to head coach Terry Bowden at Auburn

• LaCivita was the point person in the development and creation of Florida State's FeartheSpear.com website – an information site utilized by prospective football recruits.

• LaCivita also worked in recruiting and football administration at the University of Pittsburgh from 1983-85 and the University at Akron from 1986-95.

• LaCivita earned his undergraduate degree in 1971 in psychology from Indiana University of Pennsylvania where he played football. He also earned a master's degree and PhD from the University of Pittsburgh.

• LaCivita and his wife Michelle, have one son, Bryan.



ERIK KOREM

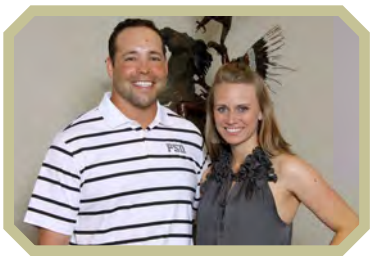
- Director of Football Operations
- 2nd season at Florida State

• Erik Korem is in his first season as the Seminoles' Director of Football operations. He joined the Florida State strength & conditioning staff in February 2010 as the speed and nutrition specialist to the football program, after spending the previous two years at Mississippi State.

• Korem is responsible for helping coordinate all home game operations, in addition to helping the football team's road game and postseason travel plans.

• At Mississippi State, Korem served as an assistant strength & conditioning coach and was also a professor in the Exercise Science Department.

• Korem's resume includes extensive work with world-class track & field sprinters, including five-time Olympic medalist and six-time World Championship medalist Vernoica Campbell-Brown. He also served as a speed development consultant for Tyson Gay during the 2008 Olympic year when he broke the American record in the 100-meter dash (9.69).



• Prior to working at Mississippi State, Korem spent a year as the Director of Athletic Performance at the University of the Pacific, which followed a short stint as the head strength & conditioning coach at Fort Valley State University.

• Korem served an internship and was a graduate assistant at the University of Arkansas while completing his master's degree in exercise science from 2004-2006.

• As an undergraduate, Korem played football for four seasons at Texas A&M, where he earned his degree in applied exercise physiology.

• He is married to former Mississippi State softball player, Hayle Guess.

STUART PEARCE

- Asst. Director of Events/Game Operations Manager
- 11th season at Florida State

• Stuart Pearce is in his 11th season with the Facilities Operations/Event Management Department and his first as the Gameday Operations Manager. He is responsible for coordinating game operations at home football games.

• During his tenure at Florida State, Pearce has coordinated all facets of support for 15 of the Seminoles' 20 NCAA sports. He has served as the tournament director for three ACC Championships and NCAA Tournaments in Soccer, Volleyball and Track and Field. Pearce served as the event manager and facility coordinator for the 2001 and 2002 Florida High School Football Championships at Doak Campbell Stadium on the Florida State campus.

• Pearce served as a member of the construction committee and worked closely with the construction firm on all aspects of the $6.1 million renovation and expansion of the McIntosh Track and Field Building.

• The Tallahassee, Fla., native earned his bachelor's degree in sport management and his master's degree in sport administration from Florida State. He also worked as an intern with the event management and facilities department before being hired full time.

• Pearce has been married to his wife Kerri for 10 years and they are the proud parents of four children (Libby (6), Bryant (5), Jimmy (2) and Halley (10 months in July) and are expecting their fifth during the 2011 football season.

2011 OUTLOOK

One of the bookends on the offensive line for Florida State at left tackle, who brings 36 career starts into the season. A preseason All-ACC pick by several publications who is considered one of the top tackles in the country. Candidate for the Lombardi and Outland Trophies given to the nation's top lineman. Bulked up in the offseason despite missing spring practice with a shoulder injury. Very intelligent player who spent the spring mentoring the younger offensive linemen along with fellow tackle Zebrie Sanders. Excels in both the running and passing game. Earned the Matt Schmauch Academic Award at the end of spring practice, which is given to the player who is dedicated to getting a degree, is accountable and responsible in the classroom and works everyday to be a better student. Earned one of six community service awards given out at the end of spring practice.

2010: Third-year starter as a true junior, he missed three games after suffering a shoulder injury late in the Oklahoma game, which snapped a streak of 27 consecutive starts... played his entire career at left tackle, where he has been responsible for protecting the quarterbacks' blind side and excels in that area...relinquished just one sack in 11 games (all starts) on the season, stifling heralded pass rushers from Oklahoma, Miami, Clemson, Florida and Virginia Tech...penalized just three times and issued five missed assignments in 691 snaps...Datko's season average grade of 87 was second only to Rodney Hudson on the team...presented the Bob Crenshaw Award by the Tallahassee Quarterback Club as the "Most Courageous" Seminole. 2009: Started every game at the left tackle position and boasted a season average grade of 80 percent...registered 24 knockdown blocks... allowed two sacks all season, shutting out Georgia Tech All-American Derrick Morgan and All-ACC standouts Robert Quinn (UNC) and Willie Young (NC State)...made his 25th consecutive start in the Gator Bowl...earned ACC Lineman of the Week honors following dominating performance in the come-from-behind win at North Carolina...was penalized just three times on the season...earned honorable mention All-ACC honors...recognized by the coaches as the offensive player most committed to physical development in the spring of `09. 2008: Started the final 12 games of his true freshman season...became the third Seminole to earn Freshman All-American honors from the FWAA under line coach Rick Trickett...also collected Freshman All-American honors from Sporting News, Rivals and Phil Steele...was the first FSU tackle to earn that distinction since Brett Williams in 1999...played 852 snaps and recorded 21 knockdown blocks...named top newcomer on offense by the coaching staff.

PERSONAL: Coveted three-star recruit who earned All-Broward honors from the South Florida Sun-Sentinel as a senior at St. Thomas Aquinas...an outstanding student who carries that intelligence on to the field...understands leverage and balance...a tireless worker in the weight room, who has added nearly 40 pounds of muscle mass since arriving at FSU...played for the state championship every season at powerhouse St. Thomas Aquinas and was part of the 14-1 team that won the title his senior season...a business major, he won the freshman class academic award for offense in 2008 and was named to the ACC All-Academic team that season...chose FSU over UCF and FIU...born August 15, 1990.

Takes over as the full-time starter replacing first-round draft pick Christian Ponder but brings a 4-2 record as a starter as well as a wealth of playing experience to the position. His size and presence in the pocket as well as his speed and elusiveness as a runner puts him right up there as one of the top quarterbacks in the country going into the season. Already has garnered preseason All-ACC honors by several publications despite only starting six games in his career and throwing for less than 2,000 yards in a combined two seasons. Named to the Maxwell Award Watch List given to the nation's best college football player. Awarded the Hinesman given to the overall most valuable player of the spring for Florida State as well as one of six community service awards from the spring semester after spring practice.

2010: Built on his stint as a four-game starter in 2009, made 10 appearances with starts against Clemson and Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game...came on in relief in the second quarter of the Chick-fil-A Bowl and helped guide the `Noles to a 26-17 win over South Carolina, which included a 7-yard TD pass to Taiwan Easterling with just over five minutes to play to cap off a 13-play, 63-yard drive which proved to be the game-clinching moment...boasts a 4-2 record as the starter, including what amounted to an elimination game victory over Clemson while filling in for senior Christian Ponder...led the Seminoles in completion percentage (69.9) and passing efficiency (153.25)...ran for a career-high 71 yards and a touchdown against Clemson in a 16-13 win, eclipsing his previous high of 70 yards in his Gator Bowl MVP performance against West Virginia...also passed for 210 yards in the win over the Tigers, helping him earn ACC Offensive Back of the Week honors...passed for a career-high 288 yards (23-31) in the ACC Championship game loss to Virginia Tech... helped run the final 7:35 off the clock against Florida, rushing for 27 yards in the 31-7 Seminole win...passed for 861 yards and four TDs and added 170 rushing yards and one TD...named to the All-ACC Academic football team. 2009: Thrust into the starting role when Christian Ponder suffered a season-ending injury late in the Clemson game...posted a 3-1 record as the starter, capped by his MVP performance in FSU's Gator Bowl victory over West Virginia...rallied the Seminoles from a 14-3 deficit against the Mountaineers by completing 17-of-24 pass attempts for 189 yards and rushed for 70 yards on 14 carries...Manuel's 2-yard TD run with under nine minutes to play gave the `Noles a 30-21 lead...completed 75 percent of his passes (15-of-20) in his first career start - a win at Wake Forest - earning ACC Rookie of the Week honors for his effort...led the Seminoles to points on the first five scoring drives in his first career start...guided the `Noles to a bowl-clinching 29-26 win over Maryland by overcoming three interceptions... Manuel directed his first career fourth quarter rally, scrambling for 35 yards on the first two plays to set up Lonnie Pryor's game-winning TD run with 1:14 to play...appeared in seven games, including four starts...his 196 rushing yards ranked third on the team... completed just over 65 percent of his pass attempts for 817 yards...selected to the ACC All-Academic football team...missed the 2009 spring season with a broken index finger suffered on the first day of practice. 2008: Redshirt season...earned scout team MVP honors for the offense.

PERSONAL

Member of the Seminole Student Boosters...rated the No. 2 quarterback in the country as a high school senior by multiple recruiting outlets...earned Parade All-American honors and was a member of the PrepStar Dream Team...participated in the Under Armour All-Star game...accounted for nearly 7,400 yards and 68 touchdowns in his high school career...earned All-Tidewater district honors and was a Group AAA second-team All-State selection...chose FSU over LSU, Oregon, Tennessee and Alabama, among others...born March 19, 1990.

2011 OUTLOOK
Good, strong low in the box safety who shined last season in his first-year as a starter. Brings a physical, hard-hitting presence to the position and is tough to block in the run game. Missed spring practice after minor surgery and likely will make the move to strong safety this season.

2010: A first-year starter at free safety, Moody emerged as a physical presence on the back line of the Seminoles' defense...started each of the last 12 games after sitting out the opener with an injury but closed the season in impressive fashion...ranked third on the team with 79 tackles, which included 4.0 tackles for loss and 0.5 sacks...filled his stat line with one interception, two pass breakups, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble... Moody's 36-yard fumble return to the Miami 1-yard line set up a one-play TD drive which gave the `Noles a 14-0 lead over Miami...over the final four games - Maryland, Florida, Virginia Tech and South Carolina - Moody amassed 40 tackles...recorded a career-high 13 tackles at Maryland, where he also sealed the 30-16 victory by returning his first career interception 96 yards for a touchdown in the waning seconds - the fourth-longest in school history...his pick-six killed the Terps' potential game-tying touchdown drive and helped earn him a share of ACC Defensive Back of the Week honors...followed up with eight tackles and a forced fumble against Florida, then tacked on a game-high 12 tackles against the Hokies in the ACC Championship game and added seven tackles and a half sack against South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. 2009: Appeared in all 13 games for the Seminoles and earned two starts at the rover position, coming against Jacksonville State and Georgia Tech...finished the year with 33 tackles, which ranked eighth on the squad...registered 23 solo stops...recorded a career-high 10 tackles - seven solos - in victory over Jacksonville State...also earned a half-sack against the Gamecocks...also had a productive four-tackle performances in wins over NC State and against West Virginia in the Gator Bowl. 2008: A redshirt season after suffering a shoulder injury which required surgery.

PERSONAL
Four-star prospect and a top five player in the state of Pennsylvania according to Rivals.com...played in the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl...named honorable mention for best closing speed and most physical at the Offense-Defense All-American Bowl...was projected by some outlets as an outside linebacker based on size...helped his Roman Catholic High School team to the league championship as a senior...was athletic enough to line up at cornerback, safety and linebacker in high school...also reeled in 13 TD receptions as a sophomore wideout...chose FSU over offers from Penn State, Georgia Tech, Michigan State and Temple...born January 29, 1990.

2011 OUTLOOK

Coming off one of the best seasons by a freshman at Florida State. Big, physical corner at 6-2 who possesses speed and the ability to change direction on a dime as well as outstanding hands and ball skills. Has a chance to be one of the most dominant corners in the country. Will be part of one of the top cornerback tandems in the country with Greg Reid. Has garnered preseason All-ACC honors as a corner by several publications. One of four Seminoles to make the Bednarik Award list of 65 preseason candidates for the trophy presented to the nation's most outstanding defensive player by the Maxwell Football Club. Also one of 82 players named to the preseason list of Nagurski candidates, who are also contending for the nation's most outstanding defensive player award presented by the Charlotte Touchdown Club. Also a candidate for the Jim Thorpe Award given to the nation's top defensive back.

2010: Redshirt freshman who started all 14 games at the boundary cornerback position and emerged as a promising young star for FSU's vastly improved defense...a consensus Freshman All-American, Rhodes was voted the ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year... also earned National Defensive Freshman of the Year honors from Collegefootballnews.com...tall and rangy, he used those physical attributes to record 12 pass breakups and four interceptions, good for a share of the team lead...his pass breakups and 16 passes defended led all freshmen nationally...credited with three pass breakups in pivotal Atlantic Division wins over Boston College and Clemson...also intercepted a pass in the end zone against the Tigers which proved to swing the momentum in the Seminoles' 16-13 victory... previous interceptions came against BYU and NC State...a sure tackler, the Miami native ranked seventh on the team with 58 stops and his 49 solo tackles ranked fourth...Rhodes' ability to play close to the line of scrimmage in coverage enabled him to collect 3.5 tackles for loss on the season and two sacks...recovered the first two fumbles of his career in FSU's home finale against Florida in a 31-7 rout…named one of the top newcomers on defense at the annual Florida State football banquet. 2009: Appeared in two games - Boston College and Georgia Tech - on special teams before suffering a hand injury that sidelined him for the balance of the season.

Bookend on the right side of the offensive line who enters his fourth season as a starter with a team-high 37 career starts under his belt and brings a team-high 111 career knockdown blocks into the season. A Preseason All-ACC pick by several publications who is considered one of the top tackles in the country along with teammate Andrew Datko. Bulked up in the offseason despite missing spring practice with a minor surgery. Smart player that possesses great strength, foot quickness and explosion off the ball. Tall and athletic lineman, with an impressive wingspan, who has proven adept at both pass and run blocking. He and fellow tackle Andrew Datko spent the spring mentoring and teaching the younger offensive linemen Rick Trickett's blocking schemes, which coaches hope helped them just as much as it did the younger players.

2010: Mammoth junior right tackle and third-year starter who closed out his most impressive season to date, thanks to his dedication in the offseason...started all 14 games, including one at left tackle (Virginia) in Andrew Datko's absence...shared ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week honors for his performance in the season opener against Samford, when he posted a career-high grade of 90 percent...only Seminole lineman credited with at least one knockdown block in 13 of 14 games...finished second on the team with 37 knockdown blocks, including a career-high of five against Boston College... registered a season average grade of 81 percent, which is the best of his career...third among all FSU linemen with 37 career starts, including 23 consecutive, which was second only to Ryan McMahon among linemen...capped off the season grading out at 88 percent against South Carolina in the Chick-fil-A Bowl...also graded out at 88 percent against Boston College and North Carolina…earned an academic achievement award at the 2010 football banquet for having one of the top GPAs for his class…selected to the ACC All-Academic football team. 2009: Starter at right tackle in 12 of 13 games on the year... finished the 2009 campaign with a grade of 73 percent and led the Seminoles with 43 knockdown blocks...enjoyed one of the top performances of his career in the season opener against Miami, grading out at 88 percent with eight knockdowns...struggled with his consistency early on, did not start against USF...regained his starting job and at one point strung together four games - North Carolina, NC State, Clemson and Wake Forest - with grades of 80 or better as the `Noles went 3-1. 2008: Started opener as true freshman at left tackle before moving to right side, where he started final 10 games....played in all 13 contests and finished third on team with 31 knockdowns...allowed one sack and was penalized one time all season...recorded the line's overall best grade against Boston College and later against Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl.

Game 1 • Sept. 4, 2010 • Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Quarterback Christian Ponder helped open the Jimbo Fisher era in style, completing 12 of 14 passes for 167 yards and four first half touchdowns in a 59-6 romp. Fisher, FSU's first new coach in 35 seasons, was credited with the most lopsided debut victory in school history. Seven different Seminoles scored touchdowns against the FCS school that Fisher once quarterbacked. Ty Jones rushed for 107 yards on eight carries as No. 20 FSU piled up 481 total yards. The 'Noles scored a school record 35 second quarter points in an 11-minute span and led 45-3 at the half, including Greg Reid's 74-yard punt return for a TD. Ponder, playing for the first time since November shoulder surgery hit Lonnie Pryor on scoring passes of four and eight yards, had another to Bert Reed for 15 yards and one to Taiwan Easterling on an 11-yard throw. The senior quarterback would sit out the second half as backup EJ Manuel went 10 of 13 for 129 yards through the air. Sophomore Dustin Hopkins had a perfect kicking exhibition going 8-for-8 in extra point opportunities while connecting on a 24-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to put the finishing touches on the Seminoles' scoring outburst. In his first game, Fisher achieved something even Bowden failed to accomplish at FSU. Bowden won 316 games as Florida State coach, but he didn't win his first one. Fisher did.

Game 2 • Sept. 11, 2010 • Norman, Okla.

NORMAN, Okla. - The 17th-ranked Seminoles didn't have to wait long for their first test of the season as a trip to No. 10 Oklahoma quickly revealed that there was still much work to be done. FSU answered the Sooners game-opening touchdown drive with an impressive 11-play, 70-yard march, culminating with Jermaine Thomas' 1-yard touchdown run. It would prove to be one of the lone highlights on a day when the Sooners rolled up 487 yards – 394 through the air – in a 47-17 victory. FSU's retooled defense had no answer for OU quarterback Landry Jones, who tossed four touchdown passes. The Seminoles scored 10 fourth quarter points, aided by sophomore kicker Dustin Hopkins' career-high matching 52-yard field goal and EJ Manuel's 47-yard touchdown pass to Taiwan Easterling on the final play of the game. A rematch of the 2001 Orange Bowl that brought home the Sooners' most recent national championship quickly turned into a blowout as Oklahoma scored touchdowns on its first four possessions. The Seminoles had four first downs on their opening possession, but picked up only five more over the next 2 1/2 quarters.

Game 3 • Sept. 18, 2010 • Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - FSU quickly established its reputation for being able to bounce back with a thoroughly dominating performance on both sides of the football against Brigham Young at Doak Campbell Stadium. Defensive coordinator Mark Stoops' unit limited the usually-prolific Cougars to just 191 total yards, including just 39 in the second half, in a 34-10 victory. The Seminoles registered eight quarterback sacks, including two by emerging sophomore end Brandon Jenkins. FSU forced two turnovers and won the field position game with strong special teams play. Christian Ponder threw for one touchdown and rushed for another, while reserve tailback Chris Thompson ran for a career-high 123 yards, highlighted by his 83-yard dash. FSU leaned on its rushing attack, which produced 278 yards, while outgaining the Cougars in total yards, 427-191. Ponder helped the Seminoles break open a three-point halftime lead with 14 third quarter points on a 4-yard TD pass to Ty Jones and 1-yard sneak in the final seconds of the third quarter vaulting the Seminoles into a 27-10 advantage. Jones tacked on a 9-yard scoring run in the final seconds of the game to complete the day's scoring.

Game 4 • Sept. 25, 2010 • Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Limiting an opponent to fewer than 200 yards for a second consecutive week, Florida State's defense pitched its first shutout since 2008, throttling Wake Forest 31-0 at Doak Campbell Stadium. The Seminoles snapped a two-game losing streak to the Demon Deacons in Tallahassee by registering their first ACC shutout since 2006. Defensive end Brandon Jenkins led the charge with 3.5 tackles for loss and two of FSU's six sacks on the day. Wake Forest managed just 185 total yards – 82 passing – and 12 first downs. Christian Ponder threw for 243 yards, including two TDs to sophomore Willie Haulstead, and rushed for a score. Taiwan Easterling had a career-high 112 receiving yards. Haulstead scored his first two career touchdowns on plays covering 10 and 4 yards. Florida State's final touchdown came on a 23-yard pass from EJ Manuel to freshman Kenny Shaw with 1:04 left in the game. Florida State rolled up 485 yards offense and limited Wake Forest to 185. It was a particularly sweet victory for the Seminoles after Wake Forest had outscored FSU 42-3 in the previous two visits to Tallahassee.

Game 5 • Oct. 2, 2010 • Charlottesville, Va.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. -- The Seminoles extended their streak of consecutive shutout quarters to eight – their longest in 30 years - while building a 27-0 halftime cushion on the road at Virginia. Florida State cruised to a 34-14 victory against the Cavaliers behind yet another dominant rushing performance. Jermaine Thomas ran for a season-high 122 yards and two touchdowns as the 'Noles amassed 256 yards on the ground; their third consecutive game over 200 yards. FSU also eclipsed the 30-point scoring standard for the third straight time, a first since 2004. Despite a second half lapse, the Seminoles' defense was largely impressive, limiting the Cavaliers to 25 rushing yards on 26 carries. The 'Noles registered six sacks, continuing to build on their national lead, while cornerback Greg Reid intercepted two passes. Christian Ponder drove FSU to the Virginia 19 in the game's opening drive, where Dustin Hopkins' 37-yard field goal made it 3-0. The Seminoles' next three possessions ended in touchdowns, often because Ponder made plays to keep the drives going. He hit Beau Reliford for 16 yards on a third-and-4, and Haulstead for the TD on a third-and-8. He also ran 12 yards on third-and-11 in a later drive. Ponder finished 17 for 29 for 172 yards, and ran 10 times for 17 yards. Haulstead tied a game-high with five receptions, while pacing the Seminoles with 79 receiving yards.

Game 6 • Oct. 9, 2010 • Miami, Fla.

MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. - Jimbo Fisher celebrated his 45th birthday by blowing out more than candles, as the No. 23 Seminoles provided their rookie coach with his first signature victory, 45-17 over No. 13 Miami at Sun Life Stadium. The Seminoles bolted to a 21-0 lead behind three touchdowns from tailback Jermaine Thomas in the first 25 minutes of action. Thomas scored on a 17-yard pass from Christian Ponder, a 1-yard run - set up by safety Nick Moody's long fumble return to start the second quarter – and a 6-yard run. FSU led 24-7 at the break and 31-7 after Lonnie Pryor weaved his way for a 16-yard scoring run to start the second half. Miami scored the next 10 points before the 'Noles iced the game on Ponder's 18-yard TD pass to Rodney Smith and Chris Thompson's 90-yard scoring dash. Thompson's run capped a 298-yard rushing effort by the Seminoles. Never in Miami's history had the Hurricanes allowed more than an 83-yard run, that one coming in 1948 by Kentucky's Carl Genito. Thompson finished with 158 yards on 14 carries and Thomas rushed 16 times for 78 yards and two touchdowns. It was the second-most points Florida State scored in the series, and just the fifth time in 55 games that a team enjoyed as big a win. Christian Ponder threw for 173 yards and two touchdowns for Florida State, which hasn't gotten off to a start this good (3-0) in conference play since 2005.

Game 7 • Oct. 16, 2010 • Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - On a day when the offense struggled to find its groove, 16th-ranked Florida State turned to its defense and special teams to grind out a 24-19 victory over Boston College, snapping a two-game losing streak against the Eagles. Junior receiver Bert Reed's 42-yard scoring dash on an end around with 10:50 remaining provided the 'Noles with the decisive points, but it was the defense that carried the day, limiting the Eagles to four field goals. FSU held BC to minus-two yards on 18 snaps across the 50-yard line. Punter Shawn Powell punted five times for a season-best 50.8 yard average – and a 48.4 yard net – to keep the Eagles hemmed in all day. Those efforts helped withstand a three-interception day by quarterback Christian Ponder, who played through the game despite injuring his elbow. Ponder completed 19 of 31 passes for 170 yards and a pair of touchdowns -- 3 yards to fullback Lonnie Pryor and 10 yards to tight end Beau Reliford. The Eagles had won three of the last four games in this series, including the last two. In those games Montel Harris torched the Seminole defense for a combined 300 yards and three touchdowns rushing. But on Saturday the Seminoles managed to slow down the junior BC tailback in the second half, holding him to only 23 yards after he ran for 168 in the first half. Florida State's defense which came into the game leading the nation in sacks with 26 added four more against the Eagles, including two by sophomore defensive end Brandon Jenkins.

Game 8 • Oct. 28, 2010 • Raleigh, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C. - The Seminoles saw their five-game winning streak come to a close on the doorstep to victory as NC State rallied from a 21-7 halftime deficit for a 28-24, Thursday night victory at Carter-Finley Stadium. Christian Ponder drove the 'Noles the length of the field to the Wolfpack 4-yard line with less than a minute to play before losing a fumble on a collision with teammate Ty Jones. Ponder matched NC State quarterback Russell Wilson's three TD runs with two of his own and an 11-yard pass to Willie Haulstead before watching the game slip away. Jones ran for 108 yards in defeat, while Bert Reed and Haulstead combined for 10 receptions for 130 yards. Wilson's 1-yard TD pass to tight end George Bryan on fourth down with 2:40 remaining negated three consecutive goal line stops by the FSU defense. In a game that was statistically even much of the night, NC State and Florida State found themselves in eerily similar positions. Both had the ball inside the 5-yard line in the final minutes, trailing and with a chance to score a go-ahead touchdown. Both opted for play-action passes. The Wolfpack executed. The Seminoles turned the ball over.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - For the second consecutive week the Seminoles suffered a heart-breaking defeat when Dustin Hopkins was wide right on a 40-yard field goal attempt with seven seconds remaining in a 37-35 loss at home to North Carolina. Greg Reid's 50-yard kickoff return in response to Casey Barth's go-ahead field goal gave the Seminoles life on a night when UNC quarterback T.J. Yates passed for a school-record 439 yards and three TDs. Christian Ponder completed 24 of 35 attempts for a season-high 264 yards and three touchdowns, including 10 connections with Willie Haulstead for 154 yards. FSU registered five sacks, including two more from end Brandon Jenkins, while linebacker Nigel Bradham contributed a team-high 10 tackles to the cause. The loss was new coach Jimbo Fisher's first at home since replacing the iconic Bobby Bowden earlier in the year. And it was the second straight game Florida State let a last minute opportunity for a win slip away. The early part of the game shaped up as a duel between Yates and Ponder. The two fifth-year seniors combined to throw for 422 yards and five touchdowns by halftime.

Game 10 • Nov. 13, 2010 • Tallahassee, Fla.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - Dustin Hopkins helped deliver the Seminoles the come-from-behind victory which had eluded them in consecutive weeks. The sophomore kicking sensation atoned for his game-ending miss against UNC by converting a career-long 55-yard field goal as time expired in a 16-13 victory over Clemson, which kept FSU's ACC Atlantic Division hopes alive. It was the longest walk-off winning field goal in ACC history. EJ Manuel, who started in place of ailing senior quarterback Christian Ponder, completed 15 of 24 attempts for 210 yards and added a team-high 71 rushing yards, including an 8-yard touchdown run with 10:08 to play for FSU's first lead. Sophomore receiver Rodney Smith set a career-high with 121 yards on four receptions. EJ Manuel scored Florida State's only touchdown on an 8-yard run with 10:08 left to give the Seminoles a 13-10 lead. Xavier Rhodes picked off a Kyle Parker pass in the Seminoles' end zone to set up the 85-yard, 12-play drive led by Manuel in the fourth quarter. At halftime, the Seminoles honored former linebacker Derrick Brooks by retiring his No. 10 jersey. Brooks, who went on to professional stardom with the Tampa Bay Bucs wearing No. 55, played for Florida State from 1991-1994. Former Seminole baseball star Buster Posey was also saluted by the crowd for his key role in sparking the San Francisco Giants to their first World Series title in 56 years.

Game 11 • Nov. 20, 2010 • College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - Facing elimination in the ACC Atlantic Division race for a second consecutive week, the 25th-ranked Seminoles overcame a 16-13 deficit late in the third quarter for a 30-16 road win at Maryland. Sophomore safety Nick Moody's interception and 96-yard return for a touchdown in the final minute eliminated the Terrapins from the race. Moody, who had a career-high 13 tackles, snuffed Maryland's final drive deep into FSU territory. Christian Ponder returned to the lineup and threw for 170 yards, including a 44-yard scoring strike to Bert Reed which gave the 'Noles a 20-16 lead they would not relinquish. Punter Shawn Powell's fake punt shovel pass to Mike Harris went for 33 yards and set up Dustin Hopkins' 34-yard field goal with 1:34 to play as FSU closed out ACC play with a 6-2 record. The Seminoles took advantage of four Maryland turnovers, including two interceptions and a fumble in the fourth quarter after FSU took a 20-16 lead. The Terrapins came in with an ACC-low eight turnovers in 10 games. When Maryland and Florida State met under similar circumstances at Byrd Stadium two years ago, the Seminoles rolled to a 37-3 victory. This game was decidedly different: Neither team led by more than seven points until the closing seconds and the lead changed hands three times.

TALLAHASSE, Fla. - Christian Ponder and the No. 23 'Noles celebrated Senior Day with an emotionally-charged, streak-snapping, 31-7 rout of rival Florida. FSU secured its ninth victory of the year and first "state championship" since 1999. Ponder completed 16 of 24 attempts for 221 yards and three touchdowns, while the defense forced four turnovers, ending the rival Gators' six-game series winning streak. The Seminoles limited the Gators to 64 passing yards, forced five fumbles –recovering three – and added an interception in the lopsided victory in front of 82,324 Doak Campbell Stadium fans. Mike Harris collected a momentum-shifting interception, while Brandon Jenkins recorded a pair of sacks. As the Seminoles and their fans celebrated wildly, Maryland finished off a 38-31 upset of NC State to hand FSU the ACC Atlantic title. In his first year as a head coach at any level, Fisher and the Seminoles advanced to the ACC title game for the second time and first since 2005, when they upset Virginia Tech. The Noles will play the Hokies again with the winner slated for the Orange Bowl. Saturday's resounding victory over Florida also gave the 45-year-old Fisher a sweep of in-state rivals. The Seminoles hammered Miami 45-17 last month. The Seminoles put the game away with a 21-point second quarter, getting three touchdowns in just over nine minutes to take a 24-7 halftime lead.

Dr. Pepper ACC Championship

CHARLOTTE, N.C. - In a rematch of the inaugural 2005 ACC Championship Game, Florida State traveled to Charlotte, N.C. to take on surging Virginia Tech at Bank of America Stadium. The 12th-ranked Hokies carried a 10-game winning streak into the contest behind recently-anointed ACC Player of the Year, quarterback Tyrod Taylor. The 20th-ranked Seminoles, once again without senior quarterback Christian Ponder, sent EJ Manuel into the fray. Despite a career-high 288-yard performance by Manuel, the Hokies prevailed 44-33 behind Taylor's MVP performance. Virginia Tech's senior dual-threat threw for 263 yards and three touchdowns and added a 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter to help seal the deal on a frigid night. The Hokies scored the first 14 points of the second half to open up an insurmountable 35-17 lead. Ty Jones rushed for three touchdowns for Florida State, while Manuel threw two interceptions, one returned for a touchdown, filling in for the injured Ponder. Jones had TD runs of 2 and 6 yards as Florida State got within 21-17 at halftime.

FLORIDA STATE		26

Game 14 • Dec. 4, 2010 • Atlanta, Ga.
Chick-fil-a Bowl

ATLANTA, Ga. – EJ Manuel came on in relief for injured starting quarterback Christian Ponder and helped guide the No. 23 Florida State football team to a 26-17 win over No. 20 South Carolina in the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl at the Georgia Dome. Manuel's 7-yard touchdown pass to Taiwan Easterling with just over six minutes to play capped off a fantastic 13-play, 63-yard drive for what would prove to be the game-clinching score. The Seminoles forced offensive guru/head coach Steve Spurrier's Gamecocks (9-5) into five turnovers, including four in the first half. For the 'Noles (10-4), cornerback Greg Reid played a memorable game as he helped cap off the first year of another head coach known for his offensive mind – Jimbo Fisher. Fisher saw Reid knock out South Carolina freshman star Marcus Lattimore early in the first quarter and then strip the ball from NFL-bound receiver Alshon Jeffery later on. He also saw his Seminoles make the necessary stops enabling him to become the first Seminoles coach to post 10 wins in year No. 1. Fisher watched his protégé, Manuel, avoid the rush and improvise before finding Easterling in the end zone for the clinching touchdown on a night when he managed only 84 total passing yards. Manuel was an efficient 11-of-15 passing. Sophomore tailback Chris Thompson carried the rushing load with 147 yards on 25 carries, including a touchdown. Manuel added 46 yards on seven carries as the 'Noles amassed 218 rushing yards against the SEC's top rushing defense. Thompson was the game's Offensive MVP, while Reid captured Defensive MVP honors. FSU sophomore kicker Dustin Hopkins matched a school bowl record with four field goals and accounted for 14 points.

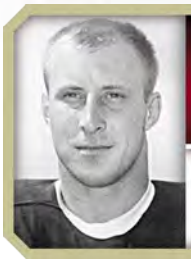
RETIRED NUMBERS & JERSEYS

Since Florida State University first fielded an intercollegiate football team 56 years ago, only eight numbers/Jerseys have been retired. Those numbers/Jerseys — 2, 10, 16, 17, 25, 34, 28 and 50 — belonged to eight of the greatest players in Florida State football history — Deion Sanders, Chris Weinke, Charlie Ward, Fred Biletnikoff, Ron Sellers, Warrick Dunn, Derrick Brooks and Ron Simmons. With his blessing, Sellers' #34 was brought out of retirement in 2003.



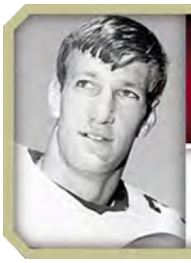
FRED BILETNIKOFF

- Wide Receiver
- 1962-64

25

Biletnikoff played wide receiver at Florida State from 1961-64 under Head Coach Bill Peterson. He was FSU's first consensus All-American. As a senior, he ranked fourth in the nation with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns, not including four touchdown catches in the Gator Bowl. Following his collegiate success, Biletnikoff went on to star for the Oakland Raiders of the National Football League for 14 years. During that time, he played in four Pro Bowls and was the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XI.

Fred Biletnikoff

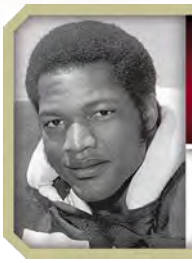


RON SELLERS

- Flanker
- 1966-68

34

Sellers remains the most prolific receiver in FSU history. He held most of the NCAA receiving records from the end of his senior season in 1968 until 1987. A flanker for Florida State from 1966 to 1968, he accumulated 3,979 yards on 240 receptions. Sellers' career was marked by consistency, quality and quantity. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games, averaging 119.9 yards per game. Sellers also led Florida State to three bowl games during his playing days.



RON SIMMONS

- Nose Guard
- 1977-80

50

The greatest defender in Florida State history, Ron Simmons' number 50 was retired in 1988. Simmons anchored the center of the defense that took FSU to a pair of Orange Bowl appearances in 1979 and 1980, resulting in FSU's highest national rankings ever at that time. A dominating nose guard and the Tribe's first two-time consensus All-American, Simmons seemed to camp out in opponents' backfields. He totaled an FSU record 25 quarterback sacks and 44 tackles for loss — a mark that held top ranking at FSU for 23 years. He was the first Seminole defender to have his number retired.

DEION SANDERS

- Defensive Back
- 1985-88

2

Deion Sanders' place in the history of the game of college football was immortalized over a five month period in 2011 when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in August and the College Football Hall of Fame in December. Sanders re-defined the position of cornerback over his historic career winning the 1988 Jim Thorpe Award as a senior at Florida State and landing two-time consensus All-America status. He left FSU second on the all-time interceptions list, first for career punt return yards and having become one of college football's all-time brightest stars.

Florida State's Charlie Ward began his senior season in 1993 chasing both the school's first national championship and the Heisman Trophy. The 6-foot 2-inch, 190-pound football/basketball star would catch both and much more finishing the year as the most heralded athlete in the history of college football. Thousands of fans poured into Doak Campbell Stadium for a celebration of the national championship and Ward's Heisman, which included the surprise retirement of his number. He joined Fred Biletnikoff and Ron Sellers becoming only the third player in FSU history to be so honored. Ward's passing and running skills were already well known qualities by 1993, but his inspired leadership and poise under pressure during his senior year elevated him to one of the game's all-time greats. So exceptional was Ward's command of the offense that coaches moved him into the shotgun to allow him to make adjustments during the play. Ward set 19 school and seven Atlantic Coast Conference records over his two years as the starting quarterback for the Seminoles. A consensus All-American, Ward won over 30 individual awards in addition to the Heisman. Ward ranks second in career total offense at FSU with 6,636 yards and has the highest completion rate for a career (62.3%) and lowest interception percentage (2.90%). Ward set the FSU record for touchdown passes in a season with 27 in 1993.

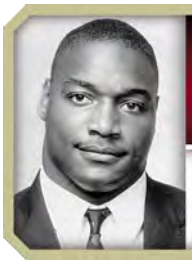
Charlie Ward



DERRICK BROOKS

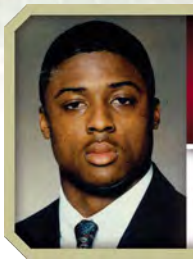
- Linebacker
- 1991-94

10

Brooks was a two-time consensus All-American at outside linebacker for the Seminoles where his blend of speed and athleticism set a new standard for the position. He starred at FSU from 1991-94 leading FSU to its first national title as a junior and earning first team All-ACC honors as a sophomore, junior and senior. He was named the ACC Player of the Year in 1994 and was a finalist for the Butkus, Lombardi and Football Writer's Defensive Player of the Year Award in both 1993 and 1994.Brooks was just as highly regarded off the field earning first team Academic All-America honors in 1994 and winning an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. In addition, he was committed to public service causes throughout his Seminole career. Brooks carried his excellence both on the field and as a citizen into his likely Hall of Fame career as the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers' all-time leading tackler.

Derrick Brooks

He was voted to 10 consecutive Pro Bowls (11 total) and at the time of his retirement had made an NFL-leading 200 consecutive starts. He led his beloved Tampa Bay team to the Super Bowl Championship in 2002. As a professional, Brooks has been the recipient of several prestigious awards, including the 2000 Walter Payton/NFL Man of the Year award, the 2003 Bart Starr Award, the 2004 Bryon "Whizzer" White Award, and the 2008 JB Award through the NFL Players association, all of which recognize an NFL player annually for their commitment to the communities in which they live.



WARRICK DUNN

- Running Back
- 1993-96

28

Warrick Dunn's four-year career at Florida State established him as one of the most popular players in all of college football and the finest running back in school history. Dunn is the only Seminole ever to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons. His 3,959 career rushing yards broke Greg Allen's school record set in 1984. He also broke Allen's single season rushing record when he ran for 1,242 yards as a junior in 1995. Dunn has the record for most touchdowns scored in a career with 49 over four seasons and rushed for over 100 yards more times (21) than any player at FSU. He was a three-time All-ACC selection as well as a member of the ACC All-Academic Team. He was selected to the first team Football Writer's All-America squad as a senior and earned second team Associated Press honors that same year.

Set 26 School Records Over His Career At FSU
Set ACC and FSU Record for Career Passing Yards

Chris Weinke literally rewrote the Florida State record book over his career as the Seminoles' quarterback. He set 26 school records, including both the FSU and Atlantic Coast Conference records for career passing yards with 9,839. He led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999. He became FSU's second Heisman Trophy winner as a senior in 2000, while leading the nation in passing with 4,167 yards and averaging 347.3 yards per game. Weinke compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as the starting quarterback at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owned the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. His accomplishments were even more impressive considering he suffered a potentially career-ending neck injury as a sophomore. Weinke's place among Florida State's all-time greatest players was recognized when his jersey No. 16 was retired in 2001, making it one of only seven retired numbers/jerseys in school history. His place among the ACC's all-time best was recognized when he was voted one of the 50 best players in the history of the conference.

HEISMAN TROPHY

Honoring the outstanding college football player in the United States, presented by the Downtown Athletic Club of New York.

CHARLIE WARD

- Quarterback
- 1989-93

1993 Heisman Trophy Winner

The most decorated player in the history of college football, Charlie Ward won literally every award he was eligible for as a senior signal caller. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993. A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history. In addition to the trophies listed on the previous page, Ward saw his jersey number 17 retired and, remarkably, played in the NBA for more than a decade. He is only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award.

HEISMAN TROPHY

CHRIS WEINKE

- Quarterback
- 1997-2000

2000 Heisman Trophy Winner

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Heisman Trophy when he was named the nation's best football player in December 2000. Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history. Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in the NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owns the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000. Weinke also won the Davey O'Brien and Johnny Unitas trophies as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best quarterback. Weinke's jersey No. 16 was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

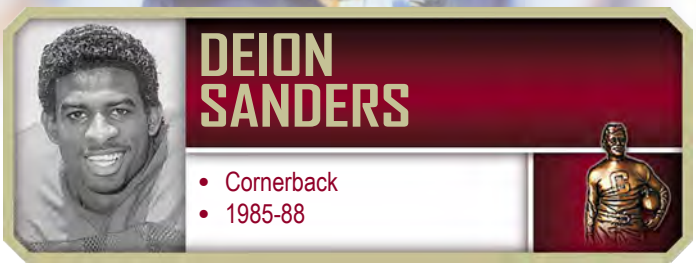
JIM THORPE AWARD

Honoring the best defensive back in the nation, presented by the Jim Thorpe Athletic Club of Oklahoma City.

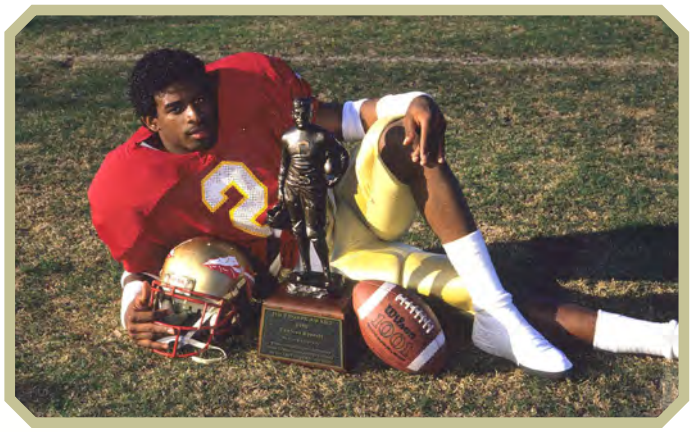


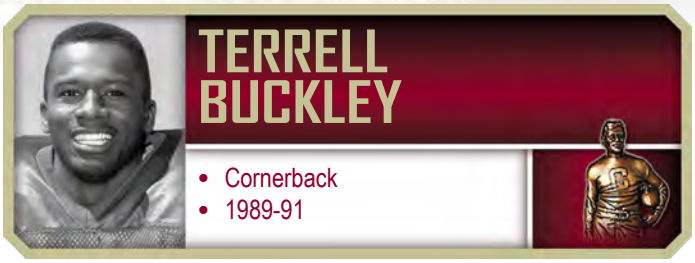
1988 Jim Thorpe Award Winner

One of the best athletes ever to wear a Florida State uniform, cornerback Deion Sanders won the Jim Thorpe Award as the top defensive back of 1988.

Sanders collected the prize after a career which saw him gather 14 career interceptions, not including three in bowl games. In his junior and senior seasons, FSU went 11-1 with a pair of New Year's Day bowl wins. In 1988, Sanders ranked in the top 10 nationally with five interceptions in nine games. He was the nation's top punt returner, averaging 15.2 yards per return.

The Ft. Myers, Fla., native ranks third on the FSU career interceptions chart and holds most of the school's punt return records. A three-sport star in football, baseball and track at Florida State, Sanders was the fifth pick in the 1989 NFL draft by the Atlanta Falcons. He became a successful two-sport pro — elected to the Pro Bowl seven times in football and started in centerfield for the Atlanta Braves and the Cincinnati Reds. He was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 2011.





1991 Jim Thorpe Award Winner

In 1991, Terrell Buckley capped the best season ever by a Florida State cornerback by becoming the second Seminole ever to win the Jim Thorpe Award. A junior, Buckley blew away the Florida State record for interceptions with 12 in 1991. He intercepted passes in eight of FSU's 12 regular season contests to lead the country in pickoffs. Against Michigan in Ann Arbor, his interception and 40-yard return for a touchdown on the game's first play set the stage for a 51-31 Florida State win. A native of Pascagoula, Miss., Buckley also demolished the Florida State career record with 21 INTs in just three seasons. His 501 career return yards broke an NCAA record that had stood since 1974. Following the year, Buckley entered the NFL draft and was selected by the Green Bay Packers with the fifth pick in the first round. He's been named one of the Top 100 Greatest College Football Players of all-time by CollegeFootballNews and named one of Sports Illustrated's Ten for the Ages' Defensive Back Game Breakers of all-time in college football.

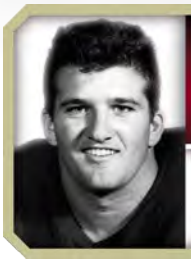
BUTKUS AWARD

Emblematic of the nation's top collegiate linebacker, established by the Downtown Athetic Club of Orlando and named for College Hall of Famer Dick Butkus of Illinois.



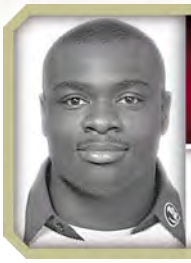
PAUL McGOWAN

- Inside Linebacker
- 1984-87

1987 Butkus Award Winner

Calling the Butkus Award for linebackers, "the Heisman of the Bad Guys," FSU inside linebacker Paul McGowan accepted the award from Dick Butkus himself in December of 1987.

The 6-1, 230-pound McGowan won the award by a one-point margin over Ohio State's Chris Spielman. McGowan won the award based on a senior season in which he totaled 150 tackles, including 97 solo stops and 11 behind the line of scrimmage. He was named to the Associated Press, Sporting News and Football News first team All-America squads.



MARVIN JONES

- Inside Linebacker
- 1990-92

1992 Butkus Award Winner

The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369, and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee for the NFL after his junior season, and at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.

LOU GROZA AWARD

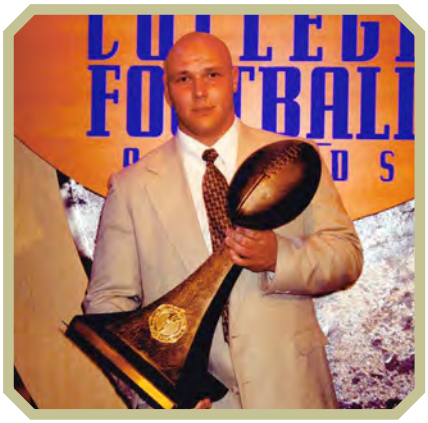
The Lou Groza award recognizes the top place kicker of the year and is presented by the Palm Beach County Sports Authority, in conjunction with the Orange Bowl Committee.

SEBASTIAN JANIKOWSKI

- Placekicker
- 1997-99

1998 & 1999 Lou Groza Winner

Sebastian Janikowski became the first Seminole ever to win the Lou Groza Award when he was named the nation's top kicker in 1998. He became the first kicker to win back-to-back Groza awards in 1999.



Janikowski set Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference records with 27 field goals in 1998. He nailed a remarkable 84.4 percent (27-of-32) field goals in 1999 and led the nation with an average of 2.23 per game. His 123 points were the most scored in a single season by a kicker in FSU or ACC history. He matched Bill Capece's Florida State record for field goals in a game by booting five at Maryland in 1998 and vs. NC State in 1999. His 53-yard field goal against Clemson tied for the third longest in Seminole history and he kicked 10 of 40 yards or more. He was named first team Associated Press and Football Writer's All-America along with earning first team All-ACC honors.

GRAHAM GANO

- Placekicker
- 2008

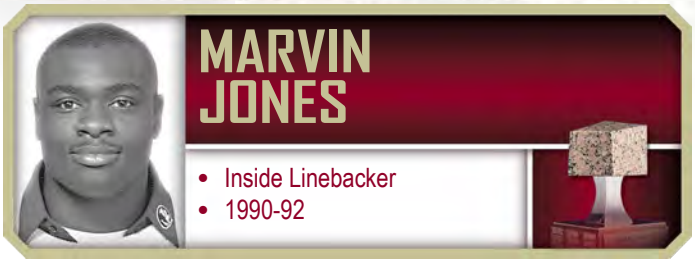
2008 Lou Groza Winner

Graham Gano brought home the third Lou Groza Award in school history in 2008. That season Gano finished first in the FBS for field goals made, percentage of field goals converted and 50-yard field goals made. He was one of only two kickers in college to make over 90% of his field goal attempts that season and he was the highest scoring kicker in America. Gano was a Rivals.com, Scout.com and CBS Sports first team All-American, a Walter Camp, Associated Press, Sporting News, SI.com and Phil Steele second team All-American. He also earned All-ACC First Team honors.

Gano is the only kicker in FSU history to convert over 90% of his field goals in a season, he is the Seminoles single season record holder for 50 yard field goals and he finished second for career 50-yard field goals at FSU despite kicking for just one season. At one point in 2008 Gano made 18 consecutive field goals covering 55 days after missing his first career field goal attempt against Wake Forest. He also made five straight attempts from 50 yards or longer.

LOMBARDI AWARD

The Lombardi Award honors the outstanding college lineman/linebacker of the year, sponsored by the Rotary Club of Houston.



1992 Lombardi Award Winner

The top player in the nation in 1992, Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards in the same year when he earned both the Butkus Award for linebackers and the Lombardi Award for linemen and linebackers following his junior season.

Florida State's third two-time consensus All-American, Jones tallied 111 tackles and seven tackles for a loss in 1992 while leading the Seminoles to an 11-1 record. He made 10 or more tackles in nine games and finished fourth in the balloting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his career seventh on FSU's career tackle chart with 369 and third on the all-time list with 28 tackles for loss. A first team All-ACC choice out of Miami, Fla., Florida State tailored its nationally-ranked defense to Jones' strength in 1992.

Jones left Tallahassee after his junior season for the NFL, and at the time, was the highest Seminole draft choice ever when he was selected fourth overall by the New York Jets.

2000 Lombardi Award Winner

Defensive end Jamal Reynolds became just the second Florida State player ever to win the Lombardi Award when he was named the nation's most outstanding lineman/linebacker following his senior year.

A consensus All-American following the 2000 season, Reynolds was another in the prominent line of great defensive linemen for the Seminoles that included 1999 Lombardi runner-up Corey Simon. Reynolds joined Seminole star Marvin Jones who won the Lombardi in 1992 from his middle linebacker position. Reynolds led the Seminoles in sacks as a senior with 12 and forced four fumbles for a defense that was among the nation's best in 2000. He finished the year with 58 tackles including 28 unassisted stops and had two safeties on the year. His 23.5 career quarterback sacks ranks fourth all-time at FSU and his 12 sacks as a senior ties him with Ron Simmons (1977) as the fifth best season ever. Reynolds was the first FSU player selected in the 2001 NFL draft when he was taken in the first round by the Green Bay Packers with the 10th pick. Reynolds' distinction as a consensus All-American puts him in the company of Peter Boulware (1996), Reinard Wilson (1996) and Andre Wadsworth (1997), who also earned the distinction at defensive end.

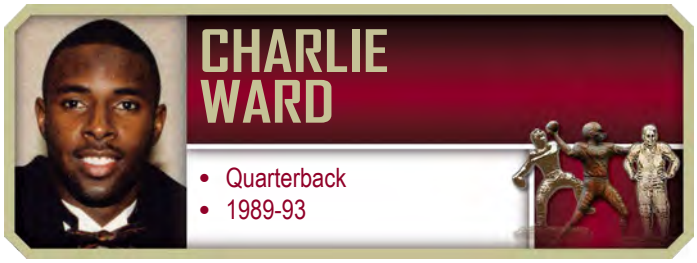
O'BRIEN, MAXWELL & UNITAS AWARDS

The Davey O'Brien Award honors the no. 1 quarterback in the nation, presented by the Davey O'Brien Educational and Charitable Trust of Fort Worth. The award is named for Texas Christian Hall of Fame quarterback Davey O'Brien (1936-38).

The Maxwell Award is presented to the nation's outstanding college football player by the Maxwell Football Club of Philadelphia.

The Johnny Unitas Award is presented by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Educational Foundation, to the best senior college quarterback in the country. The award is named for Hall of Fame quarterback Unitas, who played at Louisville before his 18-year NFL career.

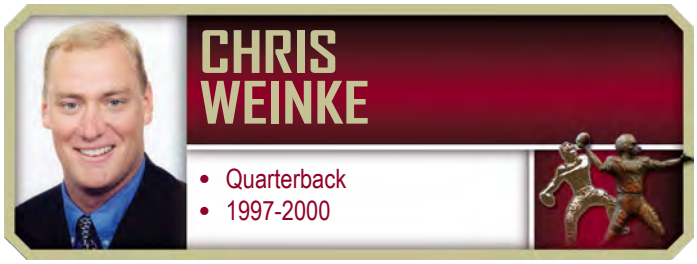


1993 Davey O'Brien Award Winner
1993 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Winner
1993 Maxwell Award Winner

The most decorated player in the history of college football, Charlie Ward won literally every award he was eligible for as a senior signal caller. Ward, who led the Seminoles to their first national championship, became Florida State's first Heisman Trophy winner in 1993.

A native of nearby Thomasville, Ga., Ward waited for his turn at quarterback and overcame a rough start as a junior to become the finest player in Florida State history.

Ward saw his jersey number 17 retired and, remarkably, has played in the NBA for 11 years. He became only the second football player in history to win the prestigious Sullivan Award.



2000 Davey O'Brien Award Winner
2000 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Winner

The first three-year starter at quarterback for the Seminoles under Bobby Bowden, Chris Weinke became the second FSU player to win the Davey O'Brien Award. He became the third FSU quarterback to win the Johnny Unitas Award when he was named the nation's best quarterback joining FSU alums Charlie Ward (1993) and Casey Weldon (1991).

Weinke led the nation in passing as a senior with 4,167 yards and averaged 347.3 yards per game. Weinke led the Seminoles to an undefeated season and the national championship as a junior in 1999 and compiled a remarkable 32-3 record as a starter at FSU, which ranked as the seventh best winning percentage in NCAA history.

Weinke set both the Florida State and Atlantic Coast Conference record for career passing with 9,839 career passing yards and would set 26 school records during his career. His 79 career touchdown passes ranked as the 12th best performance in the NCAA history and his career passing yards placed him at 18th on the NCAA's all-time list. Weinke owns the first, second and fourth best passing games in FSU history headlined by a school record 536 passing yards against Duke in 2000.

Weinke also won the Heisman Trophy as a senior signifying his selection as the nation's best player. Weinke's jersey No. 16 was retired at a ceremony during halftime of the 2001 spring football game.

CASEY WELDON

- Quarterback
- 1988-91

1991 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Winner

Quarterback Casey Weldon capped a great senior season with the 1991 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award. Weldon, who was runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, completed 189-of-313 passes for 2,527 yards and 22 touchdowns in leading the Seminoles to an 11-2 record and 4th-place finish in the Associated Press poll.

A native of Tallahassee, Weldon was truly a hometown hero who won over fans with a combination of exceptional talent and great desire. He led the Seminoles to a 10-2 win over powerful Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl as a senior.

- Placekicker, 6-2, 255
- Daytona Beach, FL (Seabreeze)

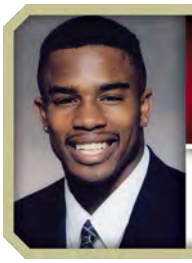
Two-Time Honoree

A two-time consensus All-American (1998 and 1999) who is also the first and only two-time Lou Groza Award winner...led the nation as a senior averaging 2.1 field goals per game...did not miss an attempt from inside 45 yards as a senior...named to the All-ACC first team...twice tied Bill Capece's FSU record for field goals in a game with five against Maryland in 1998 and NC State in 1999 ...ranked third in the NCAA and led the ACC in scoring with 10.5 points per game in 1999...broke the ACC career scoring record, set by fellow Seminole Scott Bentley (93-96) at 326...career-long field goal was a 54-yarder against Florida in 1999, tying the second-longest field goal in school history at the time... was 23-30 on field goals as a senior, including a perfect 15-15 from the 30-yard range... made 66 of 83 career field goals and 126 of 129 extra points...was also a weapon on kickoffs as 57 of his 83 kicks resulted in touchbacks (68.7%)...has had just 26 of his kickoff's returned this season and only two of those past the 24-yard line...left FSU after his junior season and was selected in the first round of the 2000 NFL draft by the Oakland Raiders.



PETER WARRICK

- Flanker, 6-0, 195
- Bradenton, FL (Southeast)

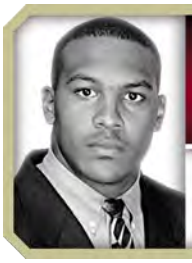
Two-Time Honoree

Two-time consensus All-American (1998 and 1999) who had more touchdown receptions (32) than any player in FSU history...finished his career as the ACC's all-time receiving yardage leader with 3,517...second to Ron Sellers on FSU's career receiving yards list and receptions chart (207)...as a senior caught 71 passes for 934 yards and eight touchdowns...averaged 13.2 yards per reception in 1999...also ran for 96 yards on 16 carries and three touchdowns...dangerous punt return man who averaged 12.6 yards on 18 returns and scored one TD...lined up at quarterback several times...ran for two scores while at quarterback and also threw for a touchdown...carried a school record streak of 40 straight games with at least one catch into the Sugar Bowl, then set a bowl record by scoring three touchdowns and adding a two point conversion...caught at least six passes in eight of his nine regular season appearances as a senior...selected in the first round of the NFL draft by the Cincinnati Bengals.

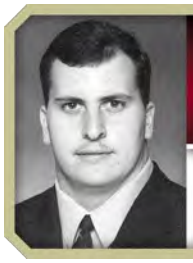


COREY SIMON

- Noseguard, 6-4, 275
- Pompano Beach, FL (Ely)

53

One of the finest defensive linemen in FSU history...consensus All-America selection following his senior season in which he was a finalist for both the Lombardi Award and Outland Trophy...led FSU defensive linemen and was fourth on the team with 84 tackles, including 48 solo stops...led the ACC with 21 tackles for loss...also had four quarterback sacks and three passes broken up...had eight games with at least seven tackles...put together his two finest games in road wins over Clemson (with a career high 10 tackles, including three for loss) and Virginia...his interception while covering running back Thomas Jones of the Cavaliers is one of the most impressive plays by a lineman... also blocked a punt against the Cavaliers...was named the ACC Defensive Lineman of the Week for his play at Virginia... was selected ESPN Player of the Game vs. Clemson and Virginia...had at least one tackle for loss in all 11 games.

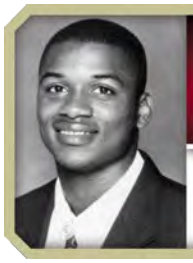


JASON WHITAKER

- Offensive Guard, 6-5, 300
- Panama City, FL (Mosley)

68

FSU's first consensus All-America offensive lineman since Clay Shiver in 1994...earned first team All-ACC honors for the second year in a row in 1999...started 24 consecutive games over his last two seasons...played despite injuries during most of his last two seasons...leader of the FSU offensive line that produced the schools first undefeated season...leadership role was instrumental in guiding FSU as the only team in AP history to go through an entire season ranked No. 1...played split guard in 1998, but moved to tight guard in 1999 where he used his mobility to lead block on pulling plays...excellent open field blocker.



TAY CODY

- Cornerback, 5-11, 180
- Blakely, GA (Early County)

27

FSU coaches felt that Cody had as good a senior season (2000) as any defensive back in Florida State history...covered so well that teams stayed away from his side of the field over the last half of the season...outstanding open-field tackler and great fundamental man-to-man defender... named to College Football New's All-America first team and was a first team All-ACC selection...started at right corner the all four seasons, after redshirting in 1996...doubled his career interceptions with six as a senior, averaging .50 interceptions per game...tied for sixth all-time in career interceptions at Florida State with 12...ranks seventh at Florida State in single season interceptions with six...had 81 tackles for the season, averaging 6.7 tackles per game for the season, second among all defensive backs at Florida State...had 200 return yards off his six interceptions, averaging 16.7 all-purpose yards per game...had a season-long interception return against NC State when he picked off Phillip Rivers and returned it 52 yards for a touchdown...closed out the season with four-straight games with at least one interception.

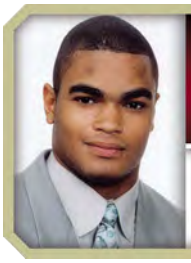
CONSENSUS NCAA ALL-AMERICANS

MARVIN "SNOOP" MINNIS

- Flanker, 6-1, 185
- Miami, FL (Northwestern)

13

FSU's leading receiver in 2000 who capped off a stellar senior season with eight catches for a career-high 187 yards and two touchdowns in FSU's win over Florida...a finalist for the 2000 Biletnikoff Award...named first team All-ACC...had a team-high 63 receptions which ranks ninth on the FSU single season receptions list...enjoyed his first career 1,000-yard season with 1,340 yards as a senior which ranks second on the FSU single season receiving yardage chart...had 2,098 career receiving yards which ranks 11th all time at FSU...team-leading 11 touchdowns as a senior ranks tied for seventh on the FSU single season touchdown catches list... recorded 17 career touchdowns which ties for 12th all-time at FSU...had more receptions in 2000 than he recorded the previous three seasons combined (52)...his 115 career receptions ranks 17th on the FSU career receptions chart...led the ACC and was third in the nation with a 111.7 receiving yards per game average...was on the receiving end of FSU's longest pass in history when he caught a 98-yard touchdown pass from Chris Weinke in the Clemson game which also tied the ACC record...averaged 5.25 catches per game as a senior in 2000 which ranked third in the ACC and ranks 13th best on the FSU all-time single season chart...had seven, 100+ yard games that season, including 163 yards off of four catches in the Clemson game ...was FSU's reception leader in eight games and led FSU in receiving yards in eight games.

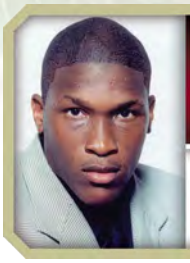


JAMAL REYNOLDS

- Defensive End, 6-4, 254
- Aiken, SC (Aiken)

58

A consensus All-American following the 2000 season, Reynolds was another in the prominent line of great defensive linemen for the Seminoles…became just the second Florida State player ever to win the Lombardi Award when he was named the nation's most outstanding lineman/linebacker following his senior year…joins Seminole star Marvin Jones who won the Lombardi in 1992 from his middle linebacker position…led the Seminoles in sacks as a senior with 12 and forced four fumbles for a defense that was among the nation's best in 2000…finished the year with 58 tackles including 28 unassisted stops and had two safeties on the year…his 23.5 career quarterback sacks ranks fourth all-time at FSU and his 12 sacks as a senior tie him with Ron Simmons (1977) as the sixth best season ever…was the first FSU player selected in the 2001 NFL draft when he was taken in the first round by the Green Bay Packers with the 10th pick…distinction as a consensus All-American puts him in the company of Peter Boulware (1996), Reinard Wilson (1996) and Andre Wadsworth (1997), who also earned the distinction at defensive end.



ALEX BARRON

- Offensive Tackle, 6-6, 308
- Orangeburg, SC (Wilkinson)

Two-Time Honoree

Joined Ron Simmons, Deion Sanders, Derrick Brooks, Marvin Jones, Sebastian Janikowski and Peter Warrick as Florida State's seventh two-time consensus All-American (2003 and 2004)…the only Seminole offensive lineman in school history to earn the distinction and have his locker sealed…in 2003, became the first FSU consensus All-American on the offensive line since offensive guard Jason Whitaker earned the distinction following the 1994 season…a two-time, first team All-ACC honoree…started 24 of 25 games at tackle over the final two years of his career…regarded as the nation's top pass blocker as a junior and a senior…selected in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft by the St. Louis Rams.

RODNEY HUDSON

- Offensive Guard, 6-2, 282
- Mobile, AL (B.C. Rain)

62

One of the finest offensive lineman in FSU and ACC history…a four-year starter who capped off his career as the most decorated offensive lineman in Atlantic Coast Conference history earning consensus first team All-American honors, the first by a Seminole since Alex Barron in 2004…one of three finalists for the 2010 Outland Trophy…won consecutive Jacobs Blocking Trophy (2009 and 2010) as the ACC's most dominant lineman and was just the second lineman in league history to be selected All-ACC four times and the first selected first team three times…nine-time ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week over the course of his career; more than any player at any position in conference history...he started all 14 games at left guard in 2010, pushing his career total to 48 career starts…played 904 snaps as a senior in 2010 and led the team with 48 knockdown blocks while being penalized just once.

BRIEF HISTORY OF FSU FOOTBALL

1851:
Florida State University actually began in 1851 when a legislative act established the Seminary West of the Suwannee. The first students enrolled in 1857 and the Florida State College was co-educational until 1905 when the Buckman Bill sent all the female students to the "new" Florida State College for Women. The huge numbers of male college students wishing to enter school on the G.I. Bill after World War II forced the legislature to make FSU co-educational in 1946.

1902-04:
33 years after Princeton and Rutgers kicked off American college football, the Florida State College played three seasons of football in Tallahassee. From 1902-1904, FSC played wearing the colors purple and gold. The 1904 squad was crowned state champions after defeating the University of Florida at Lake City and Stetson.

1946:
Florida State University became a co-educational institution in 1946 when the first male students were enrolled, most of who were coming back from World War II. The transition from FSCW, which was regarded as one of the nation's top colleges, to the new institution was remarkably quick and the development of an athletics program was almost as rapid.

1947:
Florida State University fielded a football team in 1947 coached by Ed Williamson. On October 18, 1947, Stetson kicked off to the FSU three yard line. Don Grant returned the kickoff to the FSU 32 and 7,165 fans at Centennial Field celebrated the first football game. The team finished 0-5 on the season.

1948:
Don Veller became FSU's second football coach in 1948 and would coach the team until 1952. An outstanding player at Indiana University, Veller inherited 20 lettermen from the first year, but only 12 would letter in 1948. Veller would lose just two games over his first three years, including an undefeated 8-0 campaign in 1950. His attention to detail and high standard for himself and his program were instrumental in FSU getting such a solid start.

1950:

Florida State played its first football game in Doak S. Campbell Stadium on October 7, 1950 against Randolph Macon. 9,676 fans watched the Seminoles win 40-7, but the new home field was a story in itself. It was built on a former cow pasture and was completed in just five months. Tallahassean Rainey Cawthon was instrumental in selling over 1,000 season tickets at $50.00 each to fund the stadium and won a wheelbarrow ride down Monroe Street from contractor Red Coleman, who missed the completion date by two days. FSU players painted the stadium over the next summer for $1 per hour.

1953:
Tom Nugent became FSU's third head coach in 1953 and would coach the Seminoles until leaving to become Maryland's head coach in 1958. An innovator on a national level, Nugent developed the I-formation and the typewriter huddle used by most teams today. Among the players he coached were FSU greats Bobby Renn and Lee Corso as well as a talented tailback named Burt Reynolds whose career was cut short by injury.

1959:
Perry Moss lasted just one season as FSU head coach in 1959. He was hired at a salary of $14,000 and left at the end of the year for triple that figure to coach the Montreal Alouttes. His staff that year included future head coaches Don James (Washington and Kent State), John Coatta (Wisconsin and Mankato State), Vince Gibson (Louisville, Kansas St. and Tulane), and Ken Shipp (NY Jets). His FSU team posted a 4-6-0 record.

1960-70:
Florida State's arrival on the national map occurred during Bill Peterson's 11 seasons as head coach. He came in 1960 when free substitution was still five years away in the game. He moved FSU boldly into the forefront of the passing game and led the Tribe to its biggest win yet when they topped No. 5 Kentucky 48-6 in 1964. He would post a 62-42-11 record in Tallahassee. Among a host of other things, Peterson developed the concept of the "hot receiver" in 1964 that remains in most offenses today.

1964:
Fred Biletnikoff became FSU's first consensus All-American as a senior in 1964. He ranked fourth nationally with 57 receptions for 11 touchdowns which did not include his four touchdowns in the Gator Bowl win over Oklahoma. Biletnikoff put FSU on the map and he was married under the goalposts at Doak Campbell in 1965. He would go on to have a Hall of Fame career with the Oakland Raiders. The national award given to the top college receiver in the country is named after him.

1966:
Ron Sellers began a career at Florida State that would prove one of the most prolific in college history. He gained an unheard of 3,979 yards over his career. His statistics were so impressive that most lasted as national records all the way until 1987. He caught passes in 30 consecutive games and averaged 119.9 yards per game. He is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

1970:
While integration of schools throughout the country came painfully slow, Florida State's first African-American player took the field in 1970. J.T. Thomas was a starter from the first game he played at FSU and he backed a sterling college career with three Super Bowl rings earned as a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers.

1971:

Larry Jones coached the Seminoles from 1971-1973. An 0-11 campaign in his last year spelled the end for the coach. Among notable players during his era were outstanding wide receiver Barry Smith, quarterback Gary Huff and Alabama transfer Billy Sexton.

1974-75:
Darryl Mudra coached the Seminoles for two seasons and did his work from the pressbox on game day. Perhaps the biggest accomplishment of Mudra's brief tenure, that included the NCAA mandated scholarship limits for the first time, was the signing of an unheralded running back named Larry Key. Key would prove to be one of the finest running backs in Seminole history.

1976:
FSU president Stanley Marshall and athletic director John Bridgers set up a dinner meeting at an airport hotel in Tampa where West Virginia head coach Bobby Bowden was coaching an all-star game known as the American Bowl. They offered him a four-year contract worth $37,500 and he became the Seminoles' eighth head coach on January 12. Bowden was interviewed for the job six years earlier when it went to Larry Jones, but FSU officials felt he lacked the experience.

1979-80:
Florida State got its first taste of the real big-time in 1979 and 1980 going to back-to-back Orange Bowls against Oklahoma. FSU went undefeated (11-0) over the regular season in 1979, but lost 24-7 to the Sooners and finished sixth in the final AP poll. The Tribe took a 10-1 record into the Orange Bowl showdown the next year before losing a heartbreaker 18-17.

1980:
If one game can be singled out as the most important in the run of unprecedented success at Florida State, it would by the contest at Nebraska on September 7, 1980. FSU won in Lincoln by a 18-14 score that opened the eyes of the entire country. Nebraska fans shook off a mixture of shock and confusion to stand and give Bobby Bowden and his Seminoles a standing ovation as they left the field.

1981:
FSU takes on the following schools in order all on the road: Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pittsburgh, and LSU. FSU won at Ohio State, Notre Dame and LSU, but, more importantly, won fans coast to coast for its undaunted spirit.

1981:
In 1981 a freshman tailback named Greg Allen was given the football in the middle of legendary Death Valley with a sea of LSU fans around him. He finished the day with a remarkable school record 202 yards that signaled the arrival of a superstar for the Seminoles. Later that year, he would rip Western Carolina for 322 rushing yards, which still stands as the best rushing game ever for a Seminole.

BRIEF HISTORY OF FSU FOOTBALL

1986:
Deion Sanders spent a quiet first two years at Florida State before exploding on the national scene in a preseason press conference. He would become one of the most popular players ever in college football and one of the greatest athletes in FSU history. Florida State and college football would never be the same after Sanders' career.

1992:
On July 1, 1991, the Atlantic Coast Conference accepted Florida State University, as its ninth member and the first addition to the league since Georgia Tech joined in 1978. FSU had competed in the Metro Conference for all sports other than football, which had been an independent. FSU's first ACC football game was a 48-21 win over Duke on September 7, 1992.

1993:

The Seminoles won their first national championship behind Heisman Trophy winner Charlie Ward in 1993. FSU played Nebraska in the national title game at the Orange Bowl and used freshman Scott Bentley's late field goal to win 18-16.

1995:
A 31-26 come-from-behind win in the fourth quarter of the Orange Bowl against Notre Dame was FSU's 11th consecutive bowl win. The streak set an NCAA record as was FSU's 14-game unbeaten streak in bowls that was spoiled only by a 17-17 tie with Georgia in the 1984 Citrus Bowl.

1999:
Bobby Bowden used to keep an empty picture frame in his office, which was reserved for his first perfect season. He filled the frame with a 1999 team photo. The Seminoles finished the year 12-0 and topped off the record run with a 46-29 win over Virginia Tech for the national championship in the Sugar Bowl.

2000:
Chris Weinke literally rewrote the FSU record book over his senior season and took home the second Heisman Trophy for a Seminole player when he won the award in December of 2000. He would finish his career with a record of 32-3 as a starter.

2002:
Bobby Bowden passed Bear Bryant into second place on the all-time coaching wins list.

2003:

Bobby Bowden defeats Wake Forest to become all-time winningest major college coach. The Seminoles won the ACC and earned the BCS bid.

2004:
Bobby Bowden Field at Doak S. Campbell Stadium was dedicated on November 20, 2004 prior to the Florida game.

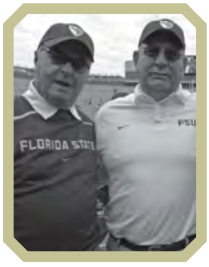
2005:
Florida State wins the inaugural ACC Championship game by a score of 27-22 over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville. Willie Reid was named the game's MVP. The conference title was FSU's 12th since joining the league in 1992.

2006:

The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Bobby Bowden and Charlie Ward would be two of the year's 15 inductees. Bowden and Joe Paterno, who was also inducted, are the first two active coaches to be honored.

2007:
Head Coach Bobby Bowden won his 300th career game at FSU with a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008:
The College Football Hall of Fame announced that Ron Simmons would be one of 15 inductees. The Rhodes Trust named junior Myron Rolle one of 32 U.S. Rhodes Scholars for 2009 - the first time in nearly 25 years it has awarded the scholarship to a prominent college football player. Senior kicker Graham Gano was named the Lou Groza Award winner, making him just the second Seminole to ever garner the honor.

2009:


Legendary head coach Bobby Bowden (1976-2009) and longtime defensive coordinator Mickey Andrews (1984-2009) announced their retirements during the season and said their final farewells when FSU defeated West Virginia 33-21 in the 2010 Gator Bowl. The victory secured the Seminoles' 33rd straight winning season under Bowden. It was Florida State's 28th straight bowl appearance – the nation's longest active bowl streak. Bowden retired ranked second all-time in victories for NCAA major college football.

2010:

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first-year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in the ACC history.

BOB CRENSHAW AWARD

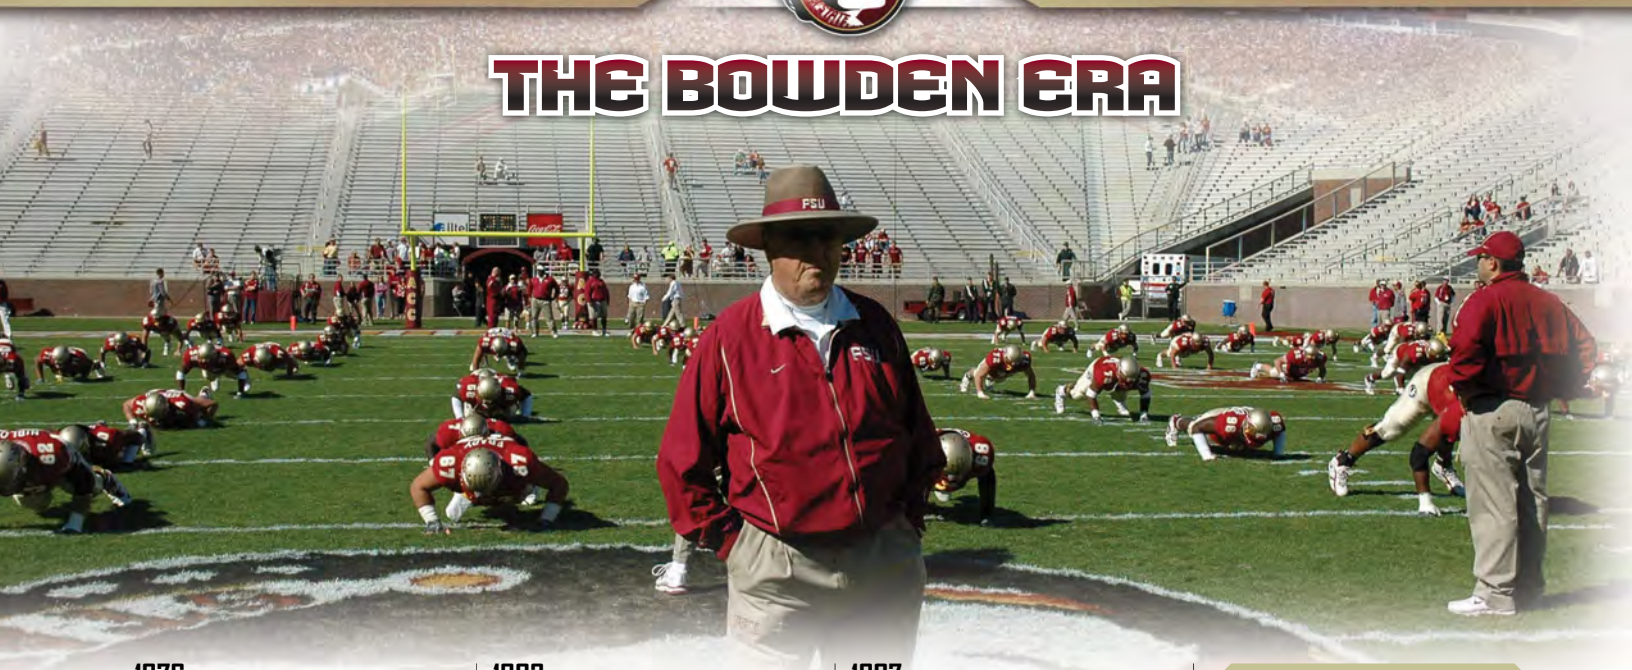
THE BOWDEN ERA



1976
Although FSU had considered dropping football due to a 4-29 record over the previous four seasons, Bobby Bowden is hired as head coach and records his only losing season at FSU with a 5-6 mark.

1977
In one season, Bowden turns the program around with a 10-2 record, FSU's first-ever 10-win season. Under Bowden's direction, FSU won its first bowl game since 1964 with a 40-17 drumming of Texas Tech in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl.

1978
Bowden and Florida State received the program's first preseason national ranking at No. 17. He led the Seminoles to a second straight win over Florida, marking the first time in history FSU had recorded two straight wins over the Gators.

1979
Bowden led FSU to the Orange Bowl in its first ever New Year's Day bowl. Bowden recorded FSU's first ever unbeaten regular season and the highest AP ranking at No. 4 entering the postseason and coached FSU to a school-record 11 wins.

1980
Bowden's 1980 team was the first in program history to finish in the AP Top 5. When folks look at how FSU became a national power, the 18-14 win at Nebraska always comes to mind as a landmark victory. He was named National Coach of the Year (Bobby Dodd).

1981
Bowden and Florida State gained notoriety with a schedule that lined FSU up in successive weeks on the road against Nebraska, Ohio State, Notre Dame, Pitt and LSU. The Seminoles went 3-2 in that stretch while Florida State's overall schedule was nicknamed "Murderer's Row" and "Octoberfest."

1982
For the second straight year, Bowden and the Seminoles would face the nation's toughest schedule according to the NCAA. Bowden reached into his bag of tricks for a 36-37 upset win at Ohio State as Kelly Lowrey became the only Seminole to run for a TD, pass for a TD and catch a TD pass in the same game.

1983
Bowden surpassed former head coach Bill Peterson as the all-time winningest coach at FSU. He was inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. The "War Chant" saw its birth and FSU sported its "mustard" uniforms for the first and only time.

1984
Greg Allen recorded Florida State's first 1,000 yard rushing season. Bowden continued his creative play calls as Jessie Hester scored on a 77-yard reverse as FSU stunned defending national champion Miami, 38-3, in the Orange Bowl.

1985
Bowden coached FSU to its ninth straight winning season, capped off by a 34-23 Gator Bowl victory over Oklahoma State. Perhaps FSU's biggest victory came in the second game when FSU traveled to No. 10 Nebraska and defeated the Cornhuskers 17-13, a game Bowden would later call "one of the biggest wins in FSU history."

1986
Bowden and FSU recorded a 56-14 pounding of South Carolina in FSU's first-ever appearance on ESPN. Bowden led FSU to a perfect 6-0 at home and the most points scored in a game by FSU in history with a 76-14 win over Tulsa. He was inducted into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

1987
Bowden missed his first national championship by one point when two Miami defenders knocked down a two-point conversion and FSU fell 26-25. FSU snapped a six-game losing skid to the Gators which marked Bowden's 100th victory at FSU.

1988
Bowden's preseason No. 1 ranked team fell at Miami breaking its streak of 11 opening day victories. The Seminoles would not lose again, winning 11 straight games. Bowden called one of his greatest trick plays, the Puntrooskie, at Clemson. FSU drubbed Florida 52-17 for the Seminoles' largest victory margin over the Gators.

1989
Bowden's only loss in Jacksonville came from Brett Favre and Southern Miss. After a loss to Clemson, FSU went on to win 10 straight and earn a Top 3 ranking for the third straight year. FSU played in a third straight New Year's Day bowl with a win over Nebraska in the Fiesta Bowl, extending its bowl unbeaten streak to eight.

1990
Bowden earned his 200th career victory when FSU beat LSU 42-3. The 1990 meeting with Florida marked the first time in the series that both teams were ranked in the Top 10 as No. 8 FSU defeated No. 6 UF 45-30. Bowden and FSU beat Joe Paterno's No. 7 Penn State Nittany Lions 24-17 in the Blockbuster Bowl.

1991
Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Walter Camp) and led FSU to an 11-2 mark and fifth straight season of 10 or more wins. FSU was preseason No. 1 and stayed there 11 weeks before falling to Miami in Wide Right I. FSU defeated No. 3 Michigan 51-31, the most points ever allowed in the Big House.

THE BOWDEN ERA

1992
Bowden and FSU beat Duke in FSU's first game as a member of the ACC. FSU suffered Wide Right II at Miami and fans saw the birth of the "fast-break offense" in the comeback win at Georgia Tech. Marvin Jones became the first Seminole to capture two national awards. Bowden was named the 1992 Neyland Trophy Winner.

1993
Bowden brought home FSU's first national title with an 18-16 win over Nebraska in the Orange Bowl. Charlie Ward became FSU's first Heisman Trophy winner and won every award he was eligible for. Bowden was named ACC Coach of the Year and led FSU to 12 victories for the first time in school history.

1994
Bowden's squad set an NCAA record with the amazing 28 point fourth quarter comeback against Florida. He led the Seminoles to another ACC Title and Top 4 national ranking. Florida State would play Florida a second time in a game dubbed the Fifth Quarter in the French Quarter, as FSU won 23-17 in the Sugar Bowl.

1995
Florida State's streak of 29 straight ACC wins came to an end with a loss at Virginia. FSU still won the ACC Championship and the victory over Notre Dame in the Orange Bowl preserved its NCAA record 11th straight bowl win. Bowden earned career win No. 250 in his 20th year as Florida State's head coach.

1996
Bowden guided FSU to its second national championship game as FSU celebrated 50 years of Seminole football. Florida State fell in a rematch to Florida in the national championship. Bowden was honored as the 1996 National Coach of the Year (Home Depot). FSU finished the season ranked No. 3.

1997
Bowden and FSU went 11-1 for the second straight season, capped off by a win over Ohio State in the Sugar Bowl. Bowden recorded his 200th victory at FSU. He was named ACC Coach of the Year for the second time. FSU finished No. 3, keeping alive the streak of 11 straight seasons of Top 4 finishes in the AP poll.

1998
Bowden led FSU to its second national championship appearance in three years. FSU won another ACC Championship despite falling at NC State 24-7 in only the second ACC loss for the Seminoles since joining the league. FSU went 11-2 and with a Top 4 ranking (No. 3) and 10 or more wins for a 12th-straight season.

1999
Bowden led FSU to its first undefeated season as FSU became the first team in the history of college football to go wire-to-wire as the AP No. 1 ranked team. Bowden was named National Coach of the Year (Home Depot), a National Coach of the Decade Finalist (Home Depot) and his Seminoles were honored as the ESPN College Team of the Decade (any sport).

2000
FSU played in its third straight national championship game and fourth in five years. The 2000 season was the last of Bowden's streak of 14 straight AP Top 5 finishes and 14 straight seasons of 10 or more wins. The Seminoles finished the season 11-2, 8-0 in the ACC and a No. 5 ranking in the AP final poll.

2001
For the first time since joining the ACC in 1992, Bowden's Seminoles did not win the ACC championship but still went to their 11th straight New Year's Day bowl with an invitation to the Gator Bowl where FSU defeated Virginia Tech. With that win, Bowden tied Bear Bryant for second place on the all-time coaching wins list with 323.

2002
Florida State's returned atop the ACC and the Seminoles played Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. FSU concluded the season ranked 21st in the final AP poll. During the season, Bowden recorded his 250th victory at Florida State and 325th victory of his career.

2003
Bowden led FSU back to another 10-win season and passed Joe Paterno as the all-time winningest major college football coach. The Seminoles captured the ACC title, its 10th in 12 years, and earned the BCS bid to the Orange Bowl, marking FSU's 22nd straight postseason trip and 13th consecutive January bowl game.

2004
Bowden coached FSU to its 23rd straight bowl and a No. 15 final ranking as he recorded FSU win No. 275 and career win No. 350 during the season. The field at Doak Campbell Stadium was named Bobby Bowden Field, a stained glass window depicting Bowden and a statue of his likeness was placed in front of the stadium.

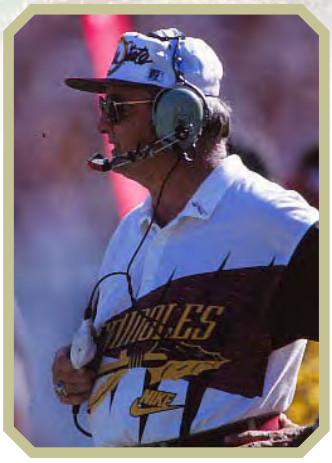
2005
Bowden guided FSU to another ACC title in the inaugural ACC Championship game with a 27-22 win over Virginia Tech in Jacksonville which propelled FSU into the FedEX Orange Bowl against Penn State. The game was Bowden's 24th consecutive bowl, as he coached against longtime friend Joe Paterno in an epic triple OT loss.

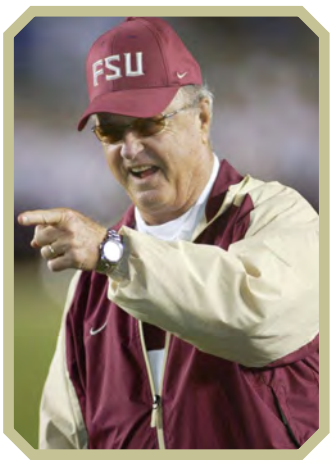
2006
Bowden was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame. The Seminoles made their longest road trip in school history, venturing 2,600 miles to San Francisco for the Emerald Bowl where they beat UCLA. The game marked FSU's 25th straight bowl appearance and the win extended Bowden's winning-season streak to 30.

2007
Bowden earned his 31st consecutive winning season with a 7-6 record and made a Music City Bowl appearance. Bowden reached another milestone in his decorated career when he earned his 300th win at Florida State in a 24-16 victory over Maryland.

2008
Bowden coached his 'Noles to a 9-3 record, No. 21 national ranking and a tie for 1st in the ACC Atlantic Division. FSU concluded the season with a win over Wisconsin in the Champs Sports Bowl and touted the nation's longest bowl streak at 27 straight. In FSU's win over Colorado in Jacksonville, Bowden recorded his 500th game as a head coach.

2009
On December 1st, Bowden announced that the bowl game would be his last as head coach of Florida State. He was carried off the field in his final game as his Seminoles defeated West Virginia, the school he coached prior to coming to FSU, in the Gator Bowl.





SEMINOLE TRADITION

FSU Fight Song

While the "war chant" has become familiar at FSU games, the Florida State fight song still remains the definitive sound of Seminole sports. FSU's band became the Marching Chiefs in 1950 and with that came the fight song. Tommy Wright, a member of the faculty in the School of Music, was perturbed that the Seminoles had been using "On Wisconsin" and the "Notre Dame Victory March" so he introduced the song in the Sewanee game, setting to music a poem by FSU Alumni Doug Alley.

History of the Garnet and Gold

Florida State's school colors of garnet and gold date back to the Florida State College championship football teams of 1904 and 1905. In those championship seasons, FSC donned purple and gold uniforms. When Florida State College became Florida Female College in 1905, the football team was forced to attend the University of Florida. The following year the FFC student body selected crimson as the official school color of 1905. The administration in 1905 took crimson and combined it with the recognizable purple of the championship football teams to achieve the color garnet. The now-famous garnet and gold colors were first used on an FSU uniform in a 14-6 loss to Stetson on Oct. 18, 1947.

Osceola & Renegade

Perhaps the most spectacular tradition in all of college football occurs in Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field riding an Appaloosa horse named Renegade and plants a flaming spear at midfield to begin every home game. The tradition was born on Sept. 16, 1978 against Oklahoma State when a student led the team from the tunnel riding a horse. Since the beginning of the FSU tradition, three different horses and 10 different riders have actually appeared at a game. However, there have been a total of 16 horses trained in the Renegade program. The original Osceola and Renegade were Jim Kidder and Reo. In 2003, local businessman Bill Durham, who had trained the riders and horses for 20 years, passed the honor and responsibility to his son Allen, who was a former rider in the 1990s. The clothing and rigging that Osceola and Renegade use were designed and approved by the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida.

War Chant

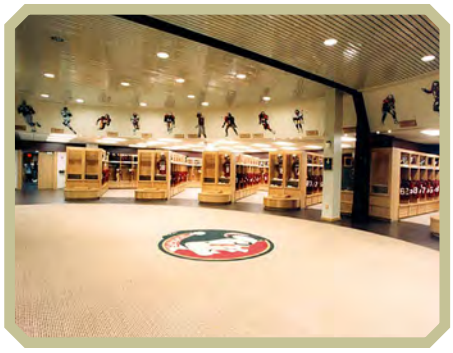
Florida State's "war chant" appears to have begun with a random occurrence that took place during a 1984 game against Auburn. In the 1960s, the Marching Chiefs would chant the melody of a popular FSU cheer. In a sense, that chant was the long version of FSU's current "war chant." During a thrilling game with Auburn in 1984, the Marching Chiefs began to perform the dormant melody. Some students behind the band joined in and continued the "war chant" portion after the band had ceased. Most agree the chant came from the fraternity section, but many spirited Seminole fans added the hand motion to symbolize the brandishing of a tomahawk. The chant continued among the student body during the 1985 season, and by the 1986 season, it was a stadium-wide phenomenon. Of course, the Marching Chiefs refined the chant, plus put their own special brand of accompaniment to the "war chant," for the sound we hear today. Atlanta Braves fans took up their version of the song and chant when former FSU star Deion Sanders came to the plate as an outfielder. The Kansas City Chiefs first heard it when the Northwest Missouri State band, directed by 1969 FSU graduate Al Sergel, performed the chant while the players were warming up for a game against San Diego.

Six Feet Under

Florida State's sod cemetery holds chunks of the field from great Seminole road wins. See the complete list on page 10 of this guide.

Sealed Lockers

The retirement (or permanent sealing) of lockers in the Florida State locker room began after Deion Sanders' senior season in 1988. The criterion for locker retirement allows only the dressing area of a two-time consensus All-American and/or Heisman Trophy winners to be retired. Ron Simmons (1979-80), Sanders (1987-88), Marvin Jones (1991-92), Derrick Brooks (1993-94), Sebastian Janikowski (1998-99), Peter Warrick (1998-99) and Alex Barron (2003-04) have had their lockers sealed as two-time consensus All-Americans while Heisman Trophy winners Charlie Ward (1993) and Chris Weinke (2000) have had their lockers forever retired. The lockers are encased in glass with the player's final home uniform and gear intact right down to the sweat bands.



Producing The NFL's Top Players

In August of 2006 the Wall Street Journal published the findings of what the paper labeled "The Dow Jones College-Football Success Index". The study sought a different way to determine the success of college football programs by determining how many of a school's alumni made it to the NFL and how effective those players were once they made it to the National Football League. Florida State not only finished No. 1 in their index but the Seminoles blew away the field. FSU finished ahead of its nearest competitor by 11 percent, causing the paper to exclaim, "No contest."

Goal Posts Salute Peterson

The Bill Peterson era as head football coach at FSU was a time of great offensive innovation and of many firsts for the upstart Seminole program, including the first Seminole coach to beat the Gators at Florida Field, coaching the program's first All-American in Fred Biletnikoff and recruiting James Thomas, the first African American player to ever play football at FSU. A tradition of the Peterson era was to enter the field through the goal posts. As a tribute to the players and coaches of the Peterson era and their many firsts, "H" style goal posts were added to the field at Doak Campbell Stadium prior to the 2002 season and will forever be referred to as "Pete's Posts."

Scholarships In '51

It was not until 1951 that Florida State began to grant athletic scholarships and the move put added pressure on the program to win. FSU left the Dixie Conference and petitioned for membership in the Atlantic Coast Conference and the Southeastern Conference but were rebuffed. Interestingly, it was the University of Florida that sponsored FSU for admission to the SEC.

Seminoles First To Score Two

The late Vic Prinzi, who is a member of the Florida State Hall of Fame and was the color commentator for the radio network until his death in 1997, was the first college player ever to score a two-point conversion. On Sept. 13, 1958, the Seminoles took the season-opening drive of the Tennessee Tech game in for a touchdown and Prinzi, playing quarterback, ran in the two-point conversion to beat the other national games by just minutes.

SEMINOLE TRADITION

Football Since 1902 Actually

Florida State College actually played football during the 1902-1904 school years and played it well. The first game in 1902 was a 5-0 win over South Georgia Military on Nov. 21 when touchdowns were worth five points. The NCAA nor the governing body at the time recognizes the early games for FSC, although the school won the state championship in 1904. The 1904 season included a 23-0 win over Florida in Lake City, Fla. The school then became the Florida State College for Women and would remain one of the nation's top all-female institutions until the large number of returning veterans from World War II triggered the state system to open Florida State University to men in 1946. The school resumed football in 1947, taking on Stetson in its first game.

Three Different Helmets

For one season in 1962 the Florida State Seminoles took the field with three different helmets. Coach Bill Peterson's three-team system featured the two-way Chiefs, the defensive Renegades and the offensive Warriors with each group wearing a different helmet. By 1963 the Seminoles were back to just one helmet, an all-gold version which once again lasted just one season as the word "State" was added in 1964.

Tomahawks Can Be Won and Lost

Florida State's coaching staff and academic staff award tomahawks to individual players for great plays or contributions on the field and in the classroom. Players may get a tomahawk for a crucial play, a touchdown, a saving tackle or various other achievements on the field. In 1997 the Seminoles began receiving tomahawks for outstanding academic achievements as well. They look identical except the word academics runs down the handle of the tomahawk. What many fans don't know is that Florida State players can actually lose tomahawks as well. Poor performance on the field or in the classroom can cause a player to be stripped of the coveted decals.

Seminole Athletics Touts Two Rhodes Scholars

In 2008, Seminole football's Myron Rolle became the second Seminole student-athlete to earn a Rhodes Scholarship - one of the oldest and most prestigious awards for inernational study, It was the first time in nearly 25 years they awarded the scholarship to a prominent college football player. Track & Field's Garrett Johnson earned the distrinction in 2006.

Bowden & Ward Enshrined Together

Former head coach Bobby Bowden and Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Charlie Ward were inducted together into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006. The 2006 class included 13 All-America players and two legendary coaches. Florida State University was the only school with two inductees. The College Football Hall of Fame 2006 Class was inducted at the 49th Annual Awards Dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York City and was officially enshrined at the Hall in South Bend, Ind. during ceremonies held in the summer of 2007.

Doak Campbell Seats 82,300

The football home for the Seminoles since 1950, Doak Campbell Stadium was named after the popular Florida State president who was instrumental in the development of intercollegiate athletics at the new university. In order to help finance the stadium, a five-year season ticket was offered for $50 and FSU players helped paint the stadium at $1 per hour. The stadium was built at a cost of $250,000 in 1950. Today, Doak Campbell Stadium holds 82,300 fans.

Special Landmarks: "Unconquered"

Dedicated on Oct.10, 2003, Fritz White's bronze statue "Unconquered" was designed to capture the indomitable spirit of the Seminole people and those who have adopted that spirit as a symbol for their university. The massive structure, including its granite-covered pedestal base, stands approximately 31 feet in the air and depicts a spear-brandishing Seminole astride a rearing horse. At sunset the night before each home game, the spear is ignited and burns until sunrise on the next morning after the game. George Langford's endowment of the project for up to $1 million helped make the statue a reality. Fifty-one artists were then considered before White eventually saw the statue dedicated 10 years after the concept was inspired by attorney and FSU graduate Stephen Reilly's trip to South Bend, Ind. for an FSU football game.

Bowden In Bronze

Former head coach Bobby Bowden is bigger than life in front of the Moore Athletics Center at Florida State as a bronze statue of his likeness was unveiled in a ceremony on Sept. 24, 2004. The statue is one-and-a-half life-size of Bowden and was sculpted by Tallahassee artist Stanley Proctor. The artist has also created a smaller piece of artwork, measuring just over 12 inches high, featuring Bowden and Doak Campbell Stadium.

Sportsmanship Statue

Between Gates B and C of Doak Campbell Stadium stands the one ton, 15-foot tall Sportsmanship Statue given in honor of Pappy Strum by his daughter Margaret Strum Allesee, who is an FSU graduate and former Seminole cheerleader. The enduring symbol of the most important aspect of athletic competition was sculpted by FSU alumnus and accomplished artist Edward Jonas.

13 National Championships

Florida State's women's programs were brought to national prominence in the early 1980s when the Seminoles earned five national championships in four sports within a four-year period. The golf program earned the AIAW championship in 1981 while the softball team had back-to-back AIAW titles in 1981 and 1982. The women's track and field program ran away with the 1984 NCAA Outdoor and 1985 NCAA Indoor Championships. Florida State's other national titles include men's gymnastics in 1950-51 and again in 1951-52. The men's volleyball team won the national championship in 1955 and 1957, while football claimed a championship in 1993 and 1999. The men's track and field team took home the 2006 and 2008 national outdoor titles and nearly added another, finishing second in the nation in 2009 & 2011.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

ED WILLIAMSON
(1947) 0-5-0

Ed Williamson was appointed Florida State's first coach just a few weeks before the inaugural football season. He had no stadium, no scholarships and no team name. With only 45 ex-high school players, his teams came close to winning three games that year, although it finished 0-5. Williamson was not paid for coaching the team.

DON VELLER
(1948-52) 31-12-1

Don Veller won 30 of his first 34 games as head coach at FSU before the Seminoles began playing a major college schedule. His overall record included an undefeated (8-0) season in 1950, the year the Tribe moved into Doak Campbell Stadium. Veller, who still resides in Tallahassee, owns the second highest winning percentage of FSU coaches (.716). He is credited with laying the early foundation for the FSU football program.

TOM NUGENT
(1953-58) 34-28-1

Tom Nugent had a successful coaching stint at Florida State, as indicated by his 34-28-1 record in six years at the Seminole helm. Florida State participated in two bowl games during Nugent's tenure and his 1958 squad was the first FSU team to play Florida. Nugent also served as athletic director while head coach of the Seminoles.

(1959) 4-6-0

Moss was one of two FSU coaches who spent only a year at the school. Midway through the 1959 season, reports were published that Moss would leave to join the Montreal Alouettes of the Canadian Football League. True to the reports, he departed after a brief year in Tallahassee.

YEAR-BY-YEAR RESULTS

BILL PETERSON
(1960-70) 62-42-11

Bill Peterson took over a football program in deep trouble in 1960. When he left, 11 years and four bowl games later, he had become the most significant coach in the first 25 years of Florida State football. Under "Pete," the Seminoles went 62-42-11. The most memorable Peterson year was 1964, when the "Seven Magnificents" led Florida State to a 9-1-1 record and FSU's first ever win over Florida.

LARRY JONES
(1971-73) 15-19-0

Larry Jones compiled a 15-19 record in three years as the Seminole head coach. In his first two seasons, the popular coach led his teams to a 15-8 record; but he is probably remembered most for the 1973 campaign, when his team did not win a game.

DARRELL MUDRA
(1974-75) 4-18-0

Darrell Mudra was a successful coach before arriving at Florida State, and he was successful after he left. At FSU, Mudra inherited an 0-11 team and wasn't able to bring the program back to the glory years it enjoyed under Bill Peterson. Mudra coached from the press box instead of the sidelines.

BOBBY BOWDEN

Bobby Bowden spent 34 years at the helm of the Seminole program that he resurrected beginning in 1976. By far the winningest coach in school history, Bowden accumulated more wins than the previous seven head coaches combined. He finished his career as major college football's all-time second-winningest coach.

Bowden took the Florida State program to the top of the college football world and won two national championships (1993, 1999). Bowden's Seminoles were one of the most dominant bowl teams ever posting a 22-10-1 record with NCAA records for consecutive bowl wins (10) and consecutive bowl appearances without a loss (14).

Bowden is the only coach in the history of college football to lead teams to 10 or more wins over 14 straight seasons. He is also the only coach ever to lead his team to 14 straight finishes among the Associated Press Top Five.

* Due to sanctions imposed on Florida State by the NCAA, the NCAA recognizes Bowden with 377 overall victories and 304 wins at FSU.

JIMBO FISHER
(2010-Present) 10-4-0

Jimbo Fisher took over the helm at Florida State in 2010 after being named the successor to legendary coach Bobby Bowden on Jan. 5, 2010. In just his first-year, Fisher guided the Seminoles to a final ranking of No. 16 in the USA Today Coaches Poll. He led Florida State to the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl Championship after a season sweep of in-state rivals Miami and Florida, an ACC Atlantic Division Title and the program's first 10-win season since 2003. His 10 wins were the most by a first-year head at FSU and the third-most by a rookie coach in the ACC history.

THE ACC

THE TRADITION

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor. However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now, in its 59th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 122 national championships, including 65 in women's competition and 57 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 140 times in men's competition and 99 times in women's action.

The conference had an immediate impact on the national college football scene in the fall of 1953 when the University of Maryland captured the first of what would eventually be five national football titles for the ACC. Clemson laid claim to the league's second national title in 1981 while Georgia Tech followed suit in 1990. Florida State pocketed national titles No. 4 and 5 in 1993 and 1999.

Additionally, Miami has laid claim to five national gridiron titles over the past 27 seasons. Four of the Hurricanes' five national titles (1983, 1987, 1989, 2001) were unanimous with both the sportswriters and coaches polls, while in 1991 Miami (AP) shared the national title with Washington (coaches).

The 12 institutions that take to the field this fall under the ACC banner have produced 572 first- or second-team gridiron All-Americas and 73 first-team academic All-Americas.

ACC Football, though, has always been about more than just wins and losses and individual athletics honors. ACC schools, cumulatively, were ranked higher nationally than any other conference in the most recent rankings of American Universities by the U.S. News & World Report, with eight ACC institutions ranked 56th or higher nationally and all 12 schools rated as "Tier One" schools.

The Conference was No. 1 with a diploma in 2010 for the sixth straight year, as the ACC led all Football Bowl Subdivision Conferences in the NCAA's graduation rate (GSR). The ACC also had the highest football APR as a league for the fifth consecutive year. In 2010, six ACC schools were honored nationally (AFCA) for their graduation rates. ACC schools have led the nation in football graduation rates no fewer than 20 times.

Since becoming a 12-team league in 2005, the ACC has consistently made history in the NFL's annual professional football draft. This year, the ACC had 15 of the first 60 players chosen in the NFL Draft. No other league had more than 10 of the first 60 players drafted.

In the 2009 NFL Draft, the ACC was the only league with four players chosen among the top nine selections in the draft. It marked the second time in four years the ACC had managed that trick, also claiming four of the top nine picks in 2005. During the 2006, 2007 and 2008 drafts, the Conference became the first college league in the history to have two of the top four NFL Draft picks in each of three consecutive years.

In 2008, the ACC also set an NFL Draft record having the first defensive player chosen for three straight years with NC State's Mario Williams (2006), Clemson's Gaines Adams (2007) and Virginia's Chris Long (2008) claiming the honor.

The ACC's run began with the 2006 Draft when the Conference set an NFL Draft record with 12 players chosen in the first round and 51 players chosen overall. During that time, the ACC is second among all conferences in the last six years in first-round draftees, having 37 chosen, and total number of draftees with 214.

Heading into the 2011 football season, no league in America has sent more linebackers to the NFL, as no fewer than 53 former ACC standouts began the summer on NFL rosters leading both the Big Ten (49) and SEC (46) for that honor. This marked the third straight year the Conference had led or tied in numbers of linebackers on NFL rosters.

The 12 current ACC schools have had 2,256 players selected in the annual professional football draft, including 229 first-round selections.

The ACC was one of only three conferences nationally to have at least four teams chosen in both the final 2010 Associated Press Top 25 in Virginia Tech (16), Florida State (17), Maryland (23) and NC State (25); and the 2010 final Top 25 for the USA Today Coaches poll in Virginia Tech (15), Florida State (16), Maryland (24) and NC State (25).

The ACC also has a storied bowl tradition, setting an NCAA record with 10 of its teams (.833) invited to post-season bowl games in 2008, breaking its own record for bowl participation (.778) set originally in 2002.

Since 2005, the Conference is second among all leagues with 50 of its teams travelling to post-season bowl games. Additionally, four of its teams— Florida State (5th, 24-14-2, .625), Boston College (11th, 13-9, .591), Georgia Tech (14th, 22-17, .564) and NC State (15th, 13-11-1, .540)—rank among the Top 15 winningest bowl programs of all-time, with a fifth--Miami (19-19-17-0, .527)--ranked 20th. Four ACC schools are also among the top eight nationally in current bowl game streaks including national leader Florida State (29 straight bowl games), Virginia Tech (3rd, 18), Georgia Tech (tied for 4th, 14) and Boston College (tied for 7th, 12).

2010-11 IN REVIEW

The 2010-11 academic year saw league teams capturing two more national team titles and 19 individual NCAA crowns. In all, the ACC has won 52 national team titles over the last 14 years and has won two or more NCAA titles in 28 of the past 30 years.

The ACC was the only conference in America to place four of its teams in the final Top 10 rankings of the 2009-10 Learfield Director's Cup Standings--symbolic of the nation's top overall programs--as Duke (5th), North Carolina (6th), Virginia (7th) and Florida State (9th) all were ranked nationally in the Top 10.

This past year also marked the 10th consecutive year that the ACC has placed four or more teams in the Top 30 as Maryland finished 17th in this year's final rankings. In all, the ACC is one of only three conferences to have all of its member schools in the Top 75.

A total of 132 ACC teams placed in NCAA post-season competition in 2010-11. League teams compiled a 125-79-5 (.610) mark against opponents in NCAA championship competition.

UNIVERSITY FACTS

OVERVIEW: The Florida State University is a state-funded, fully accredited coeducational, comprehensive research institution with an international reputation in the sciences and humanities. Recognized for providing a diverse and caring environment, it is widely known for offering extensive opportunities in research, service learning and study abroad. It is one of the top 50 public universities in the nation, according to U.S. News & World Report's "America's Best Colleges."

BACKGROUND: Florida State was established as the Seminary West of the Suwannee by an act of the Florida Legislature in 1851 and first offered instruction at the postsecondary level in 1857. Its Tallahassee campus has been the site of an institution of higher education longer than any other site in the state. In 1905, the Buckman Act reorganized higher education in the state and designated the Tallahassee school as the Florida Female College. In 1909, it was renamed Florida State College for Women. In 1947, the school returned to coeducational status, and the name was changed to The Florida State University. It has grown from an enrollment of 2,583 in 1946 to 40,838 in 2010.

ENROLLMENT (FALL 2010): Total 40,838…75.9% undergraduate, 20.9% graduate, 3.2% unclassified…80.7% in-state…93.3% from the United States…students hail from all 50 states and the District of Columbia…17 states contributed more than 100 students each…20 foreign countries contributed more than 25 students each…female, 54.9%...male, 45.1%...minority, 27.2%...international, 3.5%.

ENTERING FRESHMAN FACTS (2010): The middle 50% high school GPA, 3.5-4.0…SAT score 1130-1280…ACT score 24-28…there were 18 National Merit Scholars, 4 National Achievement Scholars and 4 Hispanic Scholars enrolled as undergraduate students during the fall 2010 term.

FACULTY: Total 2,285…Florida State's faculty has included six Nobel Laureates…12 faculty members have been elected to the National Academy of Sciences…11 faculty members have been elected to the American Academy of Arts and Sciences…two faculty members have been elected to the National Academy of Engineering…one faculty member has been elected to the National Academy of Medicine…and two faculty members are Pulitzer Prize winners.

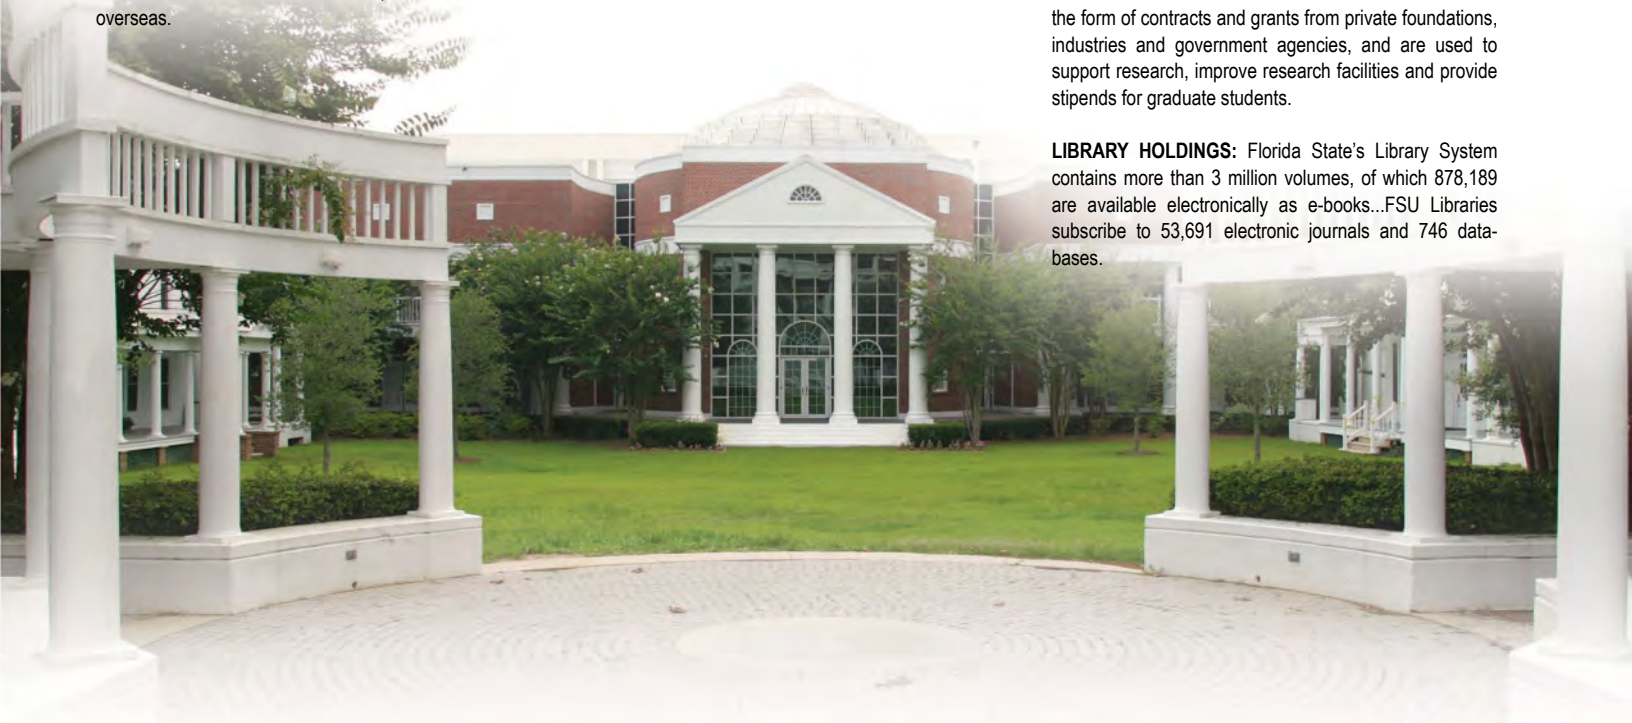
EDUCATIONAL ADVANTAGES: Florida State has the No. 1 ranked criminology and criminal justice program in the nation…is located a mere four blocks from the state Capitol, which affords students from many academic disciplines opportunities for employment or internships with legislators and state agencies…is home to the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory, the largest and highest-powered magnet laboratory in the world.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES ABROAD: Florida State offers a variety of overseas opportunities for students during the regular academic year. It has study centers in Florence, Italy; Panama City, Panama; Valencia, Spain; and London, England. Courses at the study centers are offered each semester and cover a wide range of subject areas that are perfect for meeting general and liberal studies requirements. Summer programs are currently being offered in Argentina, Australia, Bahamas, Brazil, China, Costa Rica, Croatia, Czech Republic, Ecuador, France, Israel, Peru, Russia, South Africa, Switzerland and Turkey.

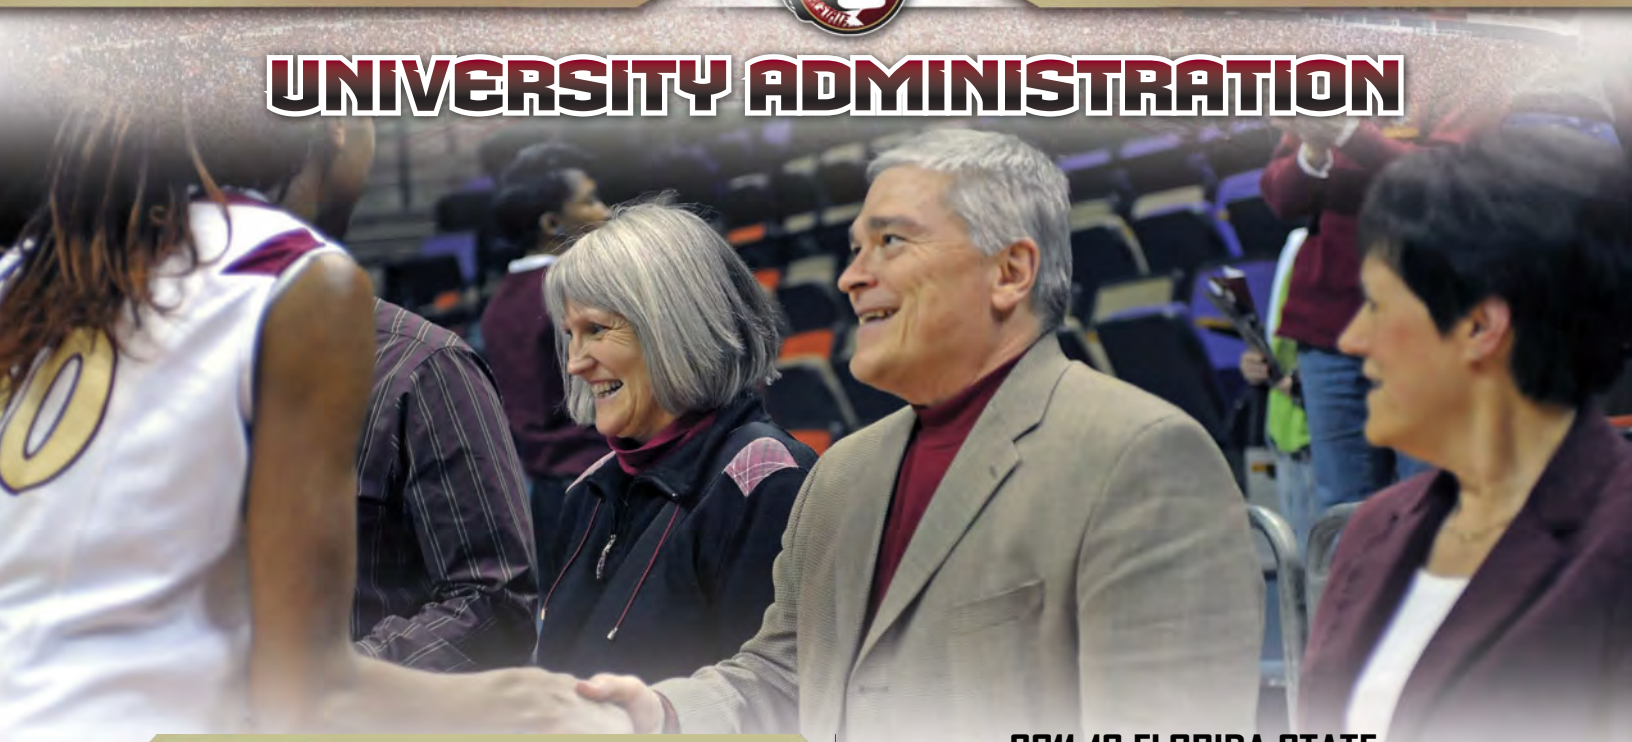
EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES: Florida State has more than 450 recognized student organizations that allow students to find their own niche.

RESEARCH: Florida State has built a reputation as a strong research center in both the sciences and the humanities. The faculty generates $199.8 million in external funds to be used for research. These external funds are in the form of contracts and grants from private foundations, industries and government agencies, and are used to support research, improve research facilities and provide stipends for graduate students.

LIBRARY HOLDINGS: Florida State's Library System contains more than 3 million volumes, of which 878,189 are available electronically as e-books...FSU Libraries subscribe to 53,691 electronic journals and 746 databases.



UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION



DR. ERIC J. BARRON

- President

Dr. Eric J. Barron became the 14th president of The Florida State University on February 1, 2010.

He is a 1973 Florida State alumnus, with a bachelor's degree in geology. He earned master's and doctoral degrees in oceanography from the University of Miami.

Prior to assuming the Florida State presidency, he served as director of the National Center for Atmospheric Research in Boulder, Colo. From 2006-2008 Dr. Barron was dean of the Jackson School of Geosciences at the University of Texas at Austin. At Pennsylvania State University from 1986-2006, he was professor of geosciences, director of the Earth System Science Center, director of the EMS Environment Institute and finally dean of the College of Earth and Mineral Sciences.

Dr. Barron is a Fellow in the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the American Geophysical Union, the American Meteorological Society and the Geological Society of America. He has received many national awards as a scholar, researcher and distinguished lecturer, has published extensively and has been editor or a member of the editorial boards of a dozen academic journals.

He has testified before Congress and has chaired numerous committees in service to the federal government, including the NASA Senior Review for the Earth Sciences in 2005. He has chaired committees and panels of the National Research Council since 1987.

A highly visible scientist, Barron is committed to the full spectrum of academic disciplines. He is an ardent supporter and advocate for the full spectrum of excellence in the arts and humanities, sciences, law, business and medicine.

A native of Lafayette, Ind., Barron and his wife, Molly, have two grown children and one granddaughter.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

RANDY SPETMAN

- Director of Athletics

Florida State Director of Athletics Randy Spetman can rightfully look at his first three years at the helm of the Seminole program with great pride. This past year, FSU athletics was the only Division I department in the NCAA to have all of its 19 sports participate in the NCAA postseason. Florida State has now sent every one of its sports into postseason competition for the second consecutive year, once again something no other school can match. In addition, this past athletic year the FSU's men's basketball program played in the Sweet 16 for the first time since the 1992-93 season, while both the men's and women's cross country teams finished second in the nation as did the men's outdoor track and field team.

After being ranked 15th nationally in the Director's Cup following his first year, FSU earned its highest ever ranking in 2009-10 when the school finished fifth overall. This past year FSU was in the top 10 once again, finishing ninth in the nation. These are the first top 10 finishes in school history and in each of the last six years the Seminole athletic program has finished higher in the standings than at any other point in program history. The first ever top 10 finishes under Spetman are so impressive as this was accomplished during a time when budgets are as constrained at Florida's universities as they have ever been in the modern era.

In 2010-11, Florida State had a banner athletic year under Spetman's guidance. FSU was one of only eight schools to have its football team play in a bowl game, its men's basketball team selected to the NCAA Tournament and its baseball team selected for the NCAA Championships. This comes on the heels of 2009-10 when the Seminoles were one of only three universities in the country to appear in a bowl game, an NCAA men's basketball tournament and advance to the baseball College World Series.

"We are blessed with a great staff, quality student-athletes and the best coaches in the nation and that is evident by all of the honors and successes we've celebrated over the past two years," said Spetman. "I am proud of what we have been able to accomplish and excited about the fact that we can achieve even more. Our goal is to perform at the very top level both academically and athletically and we have been able to do that in a very challenging economic environment. Finishing in the top 10 in the Director's Cup the last two years and producing over 130 All-ACC Academic Team honorees in that span is proof of our progress towards those goals."

The success Spetman has experienced at Florida State begins with excellence in the classroom. In November of 2008, football's Myron Rolle highlighted the academic year when he became the second Seminole student-athlete since 2006 to earn a Rhodes Scholarship - one of the oldest and most prestigious awards for international study. It was the first time in nearly 25 years a Rhodes Scholar was awarded to a prominent college football player. Rolle is the fourth Florida State student to be named a Rhodes Scholar.

In just his second full academic year, Spetman's vision of performing among the nation's best academically and athletically continued in 2010-11. Florida State finished with three national runner-up team finishes, four ACC Team Championships, three ACC Coach of the Year honors, more than 60 All-America honors, three CoSIDA first team Academic All-Americans, four ACC Scholar-Athletes of the Year and 69 All-ACC Academic team selections.

Football's Christian Ponder was named the ACC James Tatum Award winner as the top scholar athlete among all ACC football players. Jennifer Dunn (Cross Country), James Ramsey (Baseball) and Ciaran O'Lionaird (Outdoor Track & Field) were also named the top scholar athletes in their individual sports by the ACC last year. Three Seminoles earned CoSIDA Academic All-America first team honors and seven other FSU athletes were named academic all-district by CoSIDA.

This past year FSU added two exciting facilities with the completion of a multi-purpose teaching facility and six indoor courts for the tennis programs and a women's softball hitting complex. In 2011-12 the football practice fields, which underwent a major renovation during the summer, will open for fall practice.

Spetman was introduced as Director of Athletics at FSU on February 4, 2008 following a national search. A former pilot and retired Air Force colonel, he took over after serving as Director of Athletics at Utah State from 2004-2008 and in the same position at the United States Air Force Academy from 1996-2003.

Spetman, 58, was lauded over his tenure at Utah State for the success of the Aggies' athletic programs both on the field or court and in the classroom. Utah State joined the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) in 2005 and claimed four conference championships in its first two years. USU's student-athletes led the WAC with a 78 percent graduation rate and maintained over a 3.0 cumulative grade point average.

Under Spetman's leadership, Utah State made high profile improvements to the football stadium. He also spearheaded fundraising and building efforts for a $12.5 million facility and crafted a unique business partnership for medical health coverage that improved the overall coverage of USU student-athletes and reduced medical costs. In addition, he negotiated a lucrative new marketing agreement for Aggie Athletics with Learfield Sports Properties.

Spetman spent eight successful years as Director of Athletics at the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs, Co. During his tenure, he administered the school's 27-sport intercollegiate program as well as the physical education and intramural programs. Under his command, the football team participated in four bowl games.

Born and raised in Council Bluffs, Iowa, Spetman graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1976. He earned three letters as a defensive end for the Falcons and was a team captain as a senior. He also won a pair of heavyweight Wing Open Boxing Championships. Spetman's 28-year military career took him around the world in a variety of positions. A command pilot with more than 3,000 hours of flight time, his range of positions took him from assistant football coach at his alma mater to Chief of Bomber Planning in Operations Desert Shield and Desert Storm to serving as Chief, Command and Control Division, Operations Directorate of the U.S. European Command in Stuttgart, Germany.

A graduate from Squadron Officer School, he attended the National War College and earned a master's degree in National Security Strategy. Spetman also holds a master's in management and supervision from Central Michigan University.

He served as President of the National Association of Collegiate Director's of Athletics (NACDA) in 2009-10.

He and his wife, the former Becky Luhring of Des Moines, Iowa, are the parents of two grown children, Brian and Kim.

PAMELA L. PERREWE'

- Faculty Athletics Representative

Pamela L. Perrewé (Ph.D.) is in her first year as the Faculty Athletic Representative to the NCAA and the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Perrewé is the Haywood and Betty Taylor Eminent Scholar of Business Administration and Distinguished Research Professor at Florida State University. She received her Bachelor degree in Psychology from Purdue University and her Master and Ph.D. degrees in Management from the University of Nebraska. Dr. Perrewé has focused her research interests in the areas of job stress, burnout, coping, mentoring, organizational politics, emotion and personality. Dr. Perrewé has published several books, over 20 book chapters and over 100 articles in journals such as Academy of Management Journal, Journal of Management, Journal of Applied Psychology, and Organizational Behavior and Human Decision Processes. She holds Fellow status in the Society for Industrial and Organizational Psychology and the American Psychological Association.

Dr. Perrewé has maintained a commitment to her profession as well as to Florida State University for over 25 years, and she has won teaching, mentoring, and research awards at Florida State University. She has served as the Management Department Chair as well as the Associate Dean for Graduate Programs in the College of Business. She has a passion for sports, enjoys playing tennis, and has served on the Athletic Board since 2004. Dr. Perrewé also served on the Board of Scientific Counselors of the National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) from 2004-2007.

She is married to Dr. Gerald R. Ferris and together they have six children; Erin, Jennifer, Emily, Ellie, Stephen and Matthew.

ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION

MONK BONASORTE

- Senior Associate Athletics Director
- Football Oversight

Monk Bonasorte is in his fourth year as Senior Associate Director of Athletics at Florida State. He is responsible for internal operations within the department.

In his role, he also has direct oversight of football and assists with the daily workings of FSU's Olympic sports. Bonasorte also has administration oversight of student services, athletic training, olympic strength and conditioning and the equipment staff.

A member of Florida State's All-Time football team as named by Athlon Magazine, Bonasorte earned four varsity letters (1977-80), played in the 1977 Tangerine Bowl and two Orange Bowls (1980 and 1981) and was inducted into the FSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995 as one of the top defensive backs in school history. He ranks second in school history with 15 interceptions while his eight interceptions in 1979 ranks as the second highest single season total in school history. Bonasorte joined the Florida State athletics department executive staff in 2008 after a 13-year career as the president and executive director of the Florida State University Varsity Club - the organization that gives back to every Seminole letter winner and allows them to give back to the current letter winners. He helped build the FSU Varsity Club into one of the top organizations of its kind across the nation.

As a player, Bonasorte earned All-America Third Team honors in 1979 by the Associated Press and All-America Second Team honors from Football News in 1980 starring on one of the toughest defensive units in Florida State history in 1979. He led the nation in interceptions for the majority of the 1979 season and finished with eight to rank fourth nationally and set a Seminole record for interceptions in a season. The Seminoles ranked sixth nationally and fifth nationally during his junior and senior seasons, respectively.

Bonasorte spent seven years working with the Elmont Sports Group - a leader in the building and marketing of professional sports teams. He served as the marketing director for two seasons for the Tallahassee Scorpions of indoor professional league. He served as the director of marketing for the East Coast Hockey league Tallahassee Tiger Sharks (1997-99) and served as the Vice President and General Manager for the Tallahassee Thunder of the Arena2 Football league (1999-2003).

Bonasorte and his wife, Beverly, have two sons, T.J. and Rocky.

DR. ALLISON RICH

- Senior Associate Athletics Director/SWA

Dr. Allison Rich is in her second year as the Senior Associate Athletics Director/Senior Woman Administrator. She oversees external operations of the FSU Athletic Department including marketing, tickets, media, communications and more. As the Senior Woman Administrator, she also plays an active role in monitoring and maintaining equitable treatment of all student-athletes, programs, coaches and staff.

Rich came to Florida State in May of 2010. She has vast intercollegiate athletics experience having worked as a Membership Services Representative at the NCAA and in athletic administration at both the University of Pacific and Cal State Fullerton.

Rich began her duties as Senior Associate Athletics Director and Senior Woman Administrator at Cal State Fullerton in January 2005 and was later elevated to Deputy Director of Athletics/SWA. In her role with the department, Rich supervised and coordinated the daily administrative operations of the Titan athletics department. Some of her other responsibilities included the department's budget, policies, strategic planning, legal issues, judicial affairs, hiring and personnel development.

Rich chaired the Athletics Equity Committee at Fullerton and maintained oversight of the athletic program's business affairs, personnel, compliance, facilities, tickets, equipment, sports medicine and strength and conditioning. Active across each campus she has worked on, Rich served on several committees including the Student Affairs Executive Committee, University Risk Management and the NCAA Certification Steering Committee. She also had a national presence, serving on the Executive Committee of the NCAA Division I Committee on Athletics Certification.

From 1998 to 2005, Rich was the Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Affairs at the University of the Pacific. At Pacific she was responsible for department policies and procedures, served as the athletics legal resource, was involved with the creation of an umbrella booster club structure and maintained oversight of individual sport support groups, and supervised various sports and programs. Prior to that, she spent two years as a Membership Services Representative for the NCAA where she drafted legislation, worked on several NCAA publications, worked with committees such as satisfactory progress and financial aid and spoke to groups around the country including various sport conferences and national associations.

Rich serves on the Board of Directors for the Sports Lawyers Association. She is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators (NACWAA), the Illinois State Bar Association, the Chicago Bar Association and Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society. Rich completed the Sports Management Institute (SMI) Executive Program in 2009.

Rich, from Chicago, Illinois, earned her bachelor's degree at Princeton University, her J.D. at Chicago-Kent College of Law and her Doctorate in Educational Administration at the University of the Pacific.

KEVIN TERRY

- Senior Associate Athletics Director/CFO

Kevin Terry is in his seventh year with the Florida State Athletics Department. After serving as Assistant Athletics Director of Business Operations and Finance, Terry was elevated to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director and CFO in July of 2010.

Terry joined the Florida State University Athletics Department in 2004, served as Assistant Business Manager from 2004-2007 and was promoted to Business Manager in 2007 in charge of all business operations for Seminole Athletics. Terry was later promoted to Assistant Athletics Director of Business Operations and Finance in 2009.

In his role as chief financial officer of the department, Terry directs the development and administration of the program's $68 million budget and coordinates the financial planning, business operations and accounting functions.

Currently, Terry is responsible for administrative oversight of the following departments: Business Operations, Ticket Operations, Facilities, Information Technology and Human Resources / Payroll. Before coming to Florida State University, Terry worked for five years with the Georgia Institute of Technology Athletic Association in a number of roles. While at Georgia Tech, Terry had multiple responsibilities within both Business Operations and Ticket Operations for the Yellow Jackets.

Terry received both his bachelor's degree in Business Administration and Finance and a master's degree in Sport Administration from Georgia State University in Atlanta.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

FLORIDA STATE COMPLIANCE

WHAT IS NCAA COMPLIANCE?

Florida State University is committed and obligated to the principle of institutional control in operating its athletics program in a manner that is consistent with the letter and the spirit of the NCAA, ACC and University rules and regulations. The maintaining of institutional control is imperative to the continued growth and success of Seminole Athletics. Proper rules compliance is the concern of everyone associated with Florida State University, and everyone plays a role. Keeping our student-athletes, administrators, coaching staffs and alumni/boosters abreast of NCAA and ACC rules is the key to ensuring proper rules compliance.

The FSU Compliance Team coordinates, monitors and verifies compliance with all NCAA requirements and educates the various constituencies of the University and the community regarding NCAA/ACC regulations. Our office is dedicated to providing educational programs and interpretive support to ensure that all individuals involved with the athletics program understand and adhere to the University's compliance expectations. It is the goal of the compliance program to place the University in a proactive position by educating, overseeing and monitoring the intercollegiate athletics program and maintaining a positive compliance environment. Some of the areas that the office is responsible for are Amateurism, Coaching Limits, Eligibility, Recruiting, Financial Aid, Awards and Benefits and Playing and Practice Seasons.

The Compliance Office is located on the Fourth Floor of the Moore Athletic Center and is staffed by the Associate Athletic Director for Compliance, two Assistant Athletic Directors, two Directors of Compliance and two Graduate Assistants. We welcome any questions or concerns that you may have regarding the NCAA or ACC regulations in relation to FSU student-athletes or athletics programs.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Student-Athlete Academic Services (SAAS) at The Florida State University is to help student-athletes strive for excellence in all aspects of life. This is accomplished by creating an environment that supports academic, athletic and personal achievement, utilizing highly qualified and dedicated support staff and administrative personnel. A combined effort helps individuals become better students, athletes, and citizens, and prepares student-athletes to make transitions to the next level of participation academically and athletically.

More specifically, the drive towards excellence will focus on the advancement of learning, developing leadership skills, and fostering the personal growth of the student athlete, while offering a high quality athletics program. SAAS personnel will strive to provide programs that develop meaningful standards of scholarship, leadership, integrity and self-responsibility. This focus extends to all phases of academic and professional development, culminating with graduation and job placement or graduate school.

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The advisors in SAAS serve as a portion of the advising unit for all student- athletes. The staff advises students through the Liberal Studies curriculum, degree prerequisites and major requirements. Advisors work with the students in a number of areas related to the academic experience at Florida State University, with a primary emphasis in advising and monitoring the progress toward the selected degree program, taking into consideration all variables which would enhance or impede each student toward the goal of graduation. By partnering with on-campus major advisors, the SAAS staff provides comprehensive assistance in all areas of university advising.

SUPPORT SERVICES

In addition to Academic Advisors, student-athletes have the opportunity to benefit from working with the staff Learning Specialists. Designed to provide intensive, essential learning strategies, the SAAS Learning Specialists' target population are at-risk student-athletes who would like to refine their basic skills. By providing proactive, early, sustained, individualized support to enhance student success and develop independent learners, Learning Specialists are utilized by more than just the at-risk population. Additional responsibilities include administering an academic needs assessment for student-athletes with learning challenges, as well as consulting on referrals for further testing if desired.

TUTORING PROGRAM

The Athletic Department at Florida State University has made a commitment to providing our student athletes with one of the finest and most comprehensive tutorial programs in the nation. The tutorial program is just one of several key support services that are available to all student-athletes as they progress towards their goal of obtaining a college degree from FSU.

SAAS hires approximately 85 tutors a year, from a variety of academic departments, who are committed to providing proactive individualized assistance with course comprehension and study skills. The Strategic Tutoring program provides each student-athlete with the opportunity to have individualized assistance in the areas of study skills, test preparation, organization and time management. Strategic Tutors tailor their efforts to meet the needs of each student, their learning style and their academic strengths. Tutorial assistance is a free service available to all student athletes in any of their academic coursework and may be obtained by filling out a tutorial request form at the beginning of the semester, and discussing needs with their advisor.

COMPUTER LAB

The Student Athlete Academic Services computer lab is located in the Moore Athletic Center on the second floor outside of the SAAS office. Florida State has 47 PC compatible computers and several laser printers available for use by the student-athletes. The computer lab is available to student-athletes with a current FSU ID card. The entire department is also equipped with wireless internet which can easily be accessed using the standard FSU issued logon.

BRIDGE PROGRAM

Student-Athlete Academic Services, in conjunction with Athletic Student Services and the University, offers incoming student-athletes a "Summer Bridge Program" to aid in the transition from high school to college and highlights many different topics that are important for student-athlete success in academics and FSU. The program is a week-long intensive orientation that incorporates the standard FSU orientation with the athletics department orientation and continues throughout the six-week summer session. Seminars, designed to acclimate the students to the University community, are conducted weekly. Seminar topics include media training, health promotions, academic mapping requirements, the Academic Honor Policy and the Student Code of Conduct, as well as faculty communications and expectations.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND AWARDS PROGRAMS

Student-Athlete Academic Services is committed to recognizing the academic success of all student-athletes. The annual "Golden Torch Gala" is an academic awards banquet that occurs each fall and is the highlight of the year. At this event, the ACC Honor Roll student-athletes, and individuals with the highest GPA on their respective teams are recognized, as well as the men's and women's teams with the highest combined GPA.

Team meetings are held each year, during which time student-athletes are notified of potential honors and awards and are encouraged to apply. A combination of a strong grade point average, athletic accomplishments, community service activities and leadership experiences make for a student-athlete capable of obtaining unlimited academic honors, awards and postgraduate opportunities. Florida State student-athletes have achieved great satisfaction in obtaining recognition for academic achievements. Over the past two decades, more than $470,000 in Postgraduate Scholarship monies have been granted to FSU student-athletes, as well as numerous other academic honors.

MATT SCHMAUCH ACADEMIC COMMITMENT AWARD

The Matt Schmauch Academic Commitment Award was established in honor and memory of former Academic Support Assistant Director Matt Schmauch, who passed away in June of 2003, and is given annually to a deserving football student athlete. The award does not necessarily go to the football player with the highest GPA. Rather, it goes to the player who is dedicated to getting a degree, is accountable and responsible in the classroom and works everyday to be a better student.

ABOUT STUDENT SERVICES

The Office of Student Services strives to establish a commitment to the total growth and development of each student-athlete. Through the N.O.L.E.S. program (New Opportunities for Leadership, Education & Service), an administrative commitment to academics and athletic excellence, as well as to personal development, these efforts are supported with programs and services in personal, career, and leadership development.

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Fostering the development of personal growth is a fundamental component of the N.O.L.E.S. program. This support program ensures that the student-athletes will be provided with opportunities to focus on personal growth areas such as values clarification, goal setting, fiscal planning, decision-making and personal responsibility. Programming focuses on helping the student-athletes develop a healthy lifestyle while they are at Florida State University and habits that will benefit them throughout their lives.

CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Preparing for life after college is a major focus of the N.O.L.E.S. program. The program is designed to work in cooperation with Florida State's Career Center to acquaint students with the job search process, provide networking opportunities and ultimately assist with job placement. The program places a priority on the development of the total person, with the goal of developing individuals who will have rewarding and productive lifestyles after they leave Florida State University.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Serving the community is the focus of the Seminole Spirit program. Student-athletes are challenged to give service to our community and individuals who are in need. With a clearly defined program of service, student-athletes are given the opportunity to develop a lifelong commitment to volunteerism. Over the years, our commitment to community service has grown leaps and bounds. During the 2006-2007, 2007-2008 and 2009-10 academic school years. The Florida State University department of athletics was recognized by the National Consortium for Academics and Sports for having one of the most successful outreach and community service programs in the nation, in which Seminole Student-Athletes impacted the lives of over 150,000 youth. During the 2010-11 academic year, Florida State's student-athletes performed almost 6,000 hours of community service as a group.

LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The Florida State University Department of Athletics is committed to developing programs of excellence that foster leadership development. Currently, the Office of Student Services offers three leadership programs to our student-athletes. The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC) has been in place at Florida State for over fifteen years and is a fantastic group of motivated student-athletes. The SAAC is made up of 45 student-athletes, with at least two representing every sports team and the spirit groups. Regularly scheduled meetings occur bi-weekly which gives the members an opportunity to discuss issues confronting student-athletes, here at Florida State, as well as in the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) and across the nation. The SAAC at Florida State has many responsibilities. They take the lead on a variety of events, starting with New Student-Athlete Orientation, Peers Helping Athletes Transition (P.H.A.T.) Tuesdays, the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole Awards Banquet, where seniors from each team are recognized and student-athletes who have excelled in the area of community service are honored. SAAC officers for the 2011-2012 academic year are President James Ramsey from Baseball, Vice President Margo Zwerling from Track and Field and Secretary Jacob Brooks from Cross Country.

In addition to the leadership program and opportunities provided to the student-athletes on the SAAC, there are two additional leadership programs that are offered to all male and female student-athletes. WILD (Women in Leadership Development) Women, and REAL (Reliable Educated Accountable Leaders) Men provide an opportunity for a small group of male and female student-athletes to further develop their leadership skills. Materials used for these groups are adapted from Jeff Janssen's 'Captain's Leadership Manual', John Maxwell's 'Ultimate Leadership', and Dale Carnegie's 'Leadership Institute'. Topics addressed include: effective communication, values and ethics, conflict resolution, goal setting, time management, leaving a legacy, and writing a personal mission statement. Group members are chosen on a first come, first serve basis and the curriculum lasts throughout the academic year.

FSU STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

FSU STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING MISSION STATEMENT AND PHILOSOPHY

It is the goal of the FSU Strength and Conditioning program to help each athlete reach their full athletic potential by providing them with training programs that are scientifically based and founded on modern methods of strength and conditioning.

Our motto as a strength and conditioning staff is simple: "Stay in the eye of the storm." The most fundamental and important aspect of the Florida State University strength and conditioning program is that our coaches will always be on the floor coaching their athletes. No athlete is left to train on his or her own. Every workout, every exercise, every set, and every rep will be monitored by a coach. The coach will teach, instruct, provide feedback, and motivate the athlete.

The objective of the Florida State strength and conditioning staff is not only to produce stronger, better conditioned athletes, but also to build discipline and mental toughness in each athlete through the implementation of a very structured and organized environment. Athletes are held accountable for the commitment and effort that they put into the program, and lifting and conditioning must be viewed as a vital element in the training program for athletes of any sport.

The Florida State strength and conditioning staff also plays a major role in the nutritional counseling and implementation of healthy diets for each of our athletes. Our staff is responsible for selecting NCAA approved supplements that we deem the most beneficial to our athletes. On a daily basis, our strength and conditioning coaches weigh-in athletes to help monitor changes in bodyweight that may be associated with dehydration, sickness, skipping meals, overeating or improper diet. This is all done in an effort to help our athletes reach their ideal playing bodyweights, keep energy levels high, and maintain sufficient hydration levels.

DON FAULS ATHLETIC TRAINING ROOM

The Don Fauls Athletic Training Room was completed in 2004 and serves as the centerpiece for the daily medical needs of Seminole Football athletes as well as the student-athletes for all 20 of FSU's intercollegiate teams. This 15,000 square foot facility provides FSU student-athletes with access to virtually any needed avenue of health care through the many amenities in place in the facility, as well as through the team and supporting physician network.

JAKE PFEIL, MS, ATC, LAT

- Associate Director of Sports Medicine
- Head Football Athletic Trainer

Jake Pfeil is in his eighth year as a member of the Florida State University staff, and his first as the Associate Director of Sports Medicine and head football athletic trainer. Pfeil oversees the daily medical care of the Seminole football team, including injury prevention and rehabilitation. Pfeil is certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association Board of Certification and is a licensed athletic trainer by the state of Florida. Pfeil is also an approved clinical instructor for the Florida State University Athletic Training Education Program. Pfeil came to Florida State in 2004 serving as the Insurance/Risk Coordinator. Since then he has served as the athletic trainer for Seminole baseball for the past six seasons. During that time Pfeil was part of the baseball programs' continued run of 34 consecutive post-season appearances, a 2010 ACC Championship, hosting four straight Super Regionals from 2008-11, and College World Series appearances in 2008 and 2010.

Immediately prior to joining the Florida State staff, Pfeil was employed by Tallahassee Orthopedic and Sports Physical Therapy, where his responsibility was serving as the head athletic trainer at Tallahassee Community College in 2003.

Pfeil earned a master's degree in sport administration from Mississippi State University in 2002, where he was a graduate assistant athletic trainer for the football team. He graduated from Florida State in 2000 with a bachelor's degree in sport management with an emphasis in athletic training, while also serving as a student athletic trainer with football and baseball. Pfeil was awarded summer internships with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons in 1999 and 2000, and was a seasonal assistant for the Falcons in 2002.

The Madison County, Florida native and his wife Cheryl, who is also an assistant athletic trainer at Florida State, welcomed their first son, Cole, in March of 2011.

OSCEOLA AND RENEGADE

Arguably the greatest spectacle in college football unfolds moments before kickoff at Doak Campbell Stadium when Osceola charges down the field atop Renegade, a beautiful Appaloosa, and plants a flaming spear at midfield prior to each home game.

The tradition was born on September 16, 1978, when a student led the football team from the tunnel, riding a horse as the Seminoles headed into battle against Oklahoma State. Jim Kidder and Reo were the original Osceola and Renegade. Since then, five different Renegades and 15 different riders have made the ride and planted the spear, which brings the game day crowd to its feet.

Bill Durham trained the riders and horses for 20 years before passing the honor and responsibility along to his son, Allen, who was a rider from 1992-1994. The clothing and rigging used by Osceola and Renegade are designed for authenticity and approved by the Seminole Indian Tribe of Florida.

THE SEMINOLE TRIBE OF FLORIDA

THE UNCONQUERED PEOPLE

By Barry Ray
FSU Office of News and Public Affairs

As a people, few have prevailed over more trying circumstances than the Seminole Indians of Florida. Over the course of almost two centuries, Florida's Seminoles endured three wars with the U.S. government, resisted numerous efforts to relocate them to federal reservations in the West, and ultimately made their home in one of the world's most inhospitable environments, the Florida Everglades. That they have not only survived, but thrived — all the while maintaining their fierce independence and rich culture — is a tribute to their courage and perseverance. This is their story.

Long before European explorers ever visited the area now known as Florida, native peoples had been living here for thousands of years. In fact, as many as 100,000 members of four Indian nations — the Apalachee, the Tequesta, the Timucua and the Calusa — were living in highly organized settlements throughout the peninsula when the Spanish first arrived in 1513.

The native peoples' lack of resistance to smallpox, yellow fever and other "European" diseases, as well as later slaving raids from the English colonies of Georgia and South Carolina, eventually decimated their numbers. By the mid-18th century, the Indian nations of Florida had ceased to exist.

In their place, groups of Indians from a confederation of tribes collectively referred to as the Lower Creeks began moving into Florida from Alabama and Georgia. They had been pushed out of their former homes by the encroachment of white settlers, as well as by conflicts with other tribes. It was around this time that the name "Seminoles" first appeared; there are several possible explanations as to its origins.

When the first English speakers began arriving in Florida in 1763, they found many Creeks living as yat'siminoli, or "free people," across the northern part of the Florida peninsula. ("Yat'siminoli" was a term used in the Mikisúkî, or Miccosukee, language, which still is spoken today.) The settlers may have simply ignored the Indians' separate tribal affiliations and called them all Seminolies, or Seminoles.

Others believe that the Seminole name comes from the Spanish word cimarron, meaning "wild men" or "unconquered." The Indians may have been given this name because they had escaped from slavery in the English-controlled colonies to the north.

With the end of the American Revolutionary War in 1784, English-speaking settlers began moving southward in ever greater numbers, buying or seizing land from the native inhabitants. By 1813, some of the Creek tribes in Alabama rose up against the white settlers and the Indian tribes that supported them. This conflict, known as the Creek War of 1813-14, proved disastrous to all of the tribes. U.S. troops led by Gen. Andrew Jackson crushed the uprising and forced a treaty on the Creeks that took more than 2 million acres of land from them. Several thousand Creek warriors and their families migrated south into Spanish Florida, where they and the Seminoles increased their resistance to white settlement.

In 1814, such conflicts escalated into the first of three Seminole wars. Over the next four years, Jackson illegally entered Spanish Florida numerous times to burn Seminole villages and kill resistance leaders.

With the end of the First Seminole War in 1818, many Indians moved further into Florida. By 1820, the year before Spanish Florida became a U.S. territory, there were at least 5,000 Seminoles, Creeks and Mikisúkî people living here. However, a series of federal treaties failed to protect their rights and, in 1835, war broke out again.

The Second Seminole War (1835-42) proved to be the longest, most costly, and the last of the U.S. wars of Indian removal fought east of the Mississippi River. It also would be the first guerilla-style war faced by U.S. troops. Led by the fierce warrior Osceola, the Seminoles were aided by runaway slaves, who received protection from their allies in return for a portion of the agricultural staples that they grew. These so-called "Black Seminoles" also had a reputation as fierce fighters, and were equally determined to preserve their freedom.

THE SYMBOL: SEMINOLES

Florida State would play two games in 1947 before students demanded the school acquire a symbol. While details conflict, most believe the account of a poll of the student body is accurate. The Florida Flambeau reported that Seminoles had won by 110 votes over Statesmen. The rest of the top contenders (in order) were Rebels, Tarpons, Fighting Warriors and Crackers.

In the 1950s, a pair of students dressed in Native American costumes and joined the cheerleaders on the field which eventually evolved into the majestic symbol of Osceola and Renegade that FSU now enjoys. Today, the Seminole Indian Tribe participates in many campus activities.

Florida State University is proud of its longstanding cooperative relationship with the Seminole Tribe of Florida. The Seminole people have suffered many hardships and injustices, but they have remained brave, dignified and proud. The Seminoles are unconquered. They symbolize what we hope will be the traits of all of our graduates, including our student-athletes.

The fighting ended in a stalemate in 1842, and an uneasy peace lasted for 14 years. In 1856, however, Seminole leader Billy Bowlegs and his followers were provoked by U.S. soldiers. They retaliated, and the ensuing series of skirmishes became known as the Third Seminole War (1856-58).

When U.S. troops once more withdrew — again with no treaty or victory — the Seminole Wars finally ended. All told, more than 3,000 Seminoles had been forcibly removed from Florida to the Western territories of Arkansas and Oklahoma. As few as 300 remained in Florida, and they took refuge within the dense swamps of the Everglades. However, their place in history was assured as the only American Indian tribe never to have signed a peace treaty with the U.S. government.

From the 1920s onward, as the development boom exploded in South Florida, the Seminoles lost more and more of their hunting lands to tourists and settlers. They became agricultural workers in the vegetable fields of South Florida, and also ran tourist attractions, wearing their colorful patchwork clothing, producing souvenirs and wrestling alligators.

On Aug. 21, 1957, the Seminole Tribe of Florida was established through a majority vote of Florida's Seminole Indians. This vote gave the Seminoles federal recognition as a self-governing tribe with a constitutional form of government. The Seminole Tribe of Florida now has almost 3,000 members living on five reservations across the peninsula at Hollywood, Big Cypress, Brighton, Immokalee and Tampa.

The Seminoles work hard to be economically independent. Tourism and gaming profits pay for infrastructure and schools on their reservations, while citrus groves, cattle agriculture, aircraft production, tobacco sales, land leases and aquaculture are other significant sources of revenue.

Having persevered through two centuries of adversity, the Seminole Indians of Florida have earned the right to call themselves "the unconquered people." Their indomitable spirit is one that Florida State University proudly seeks to emulate in all of its endeavors.

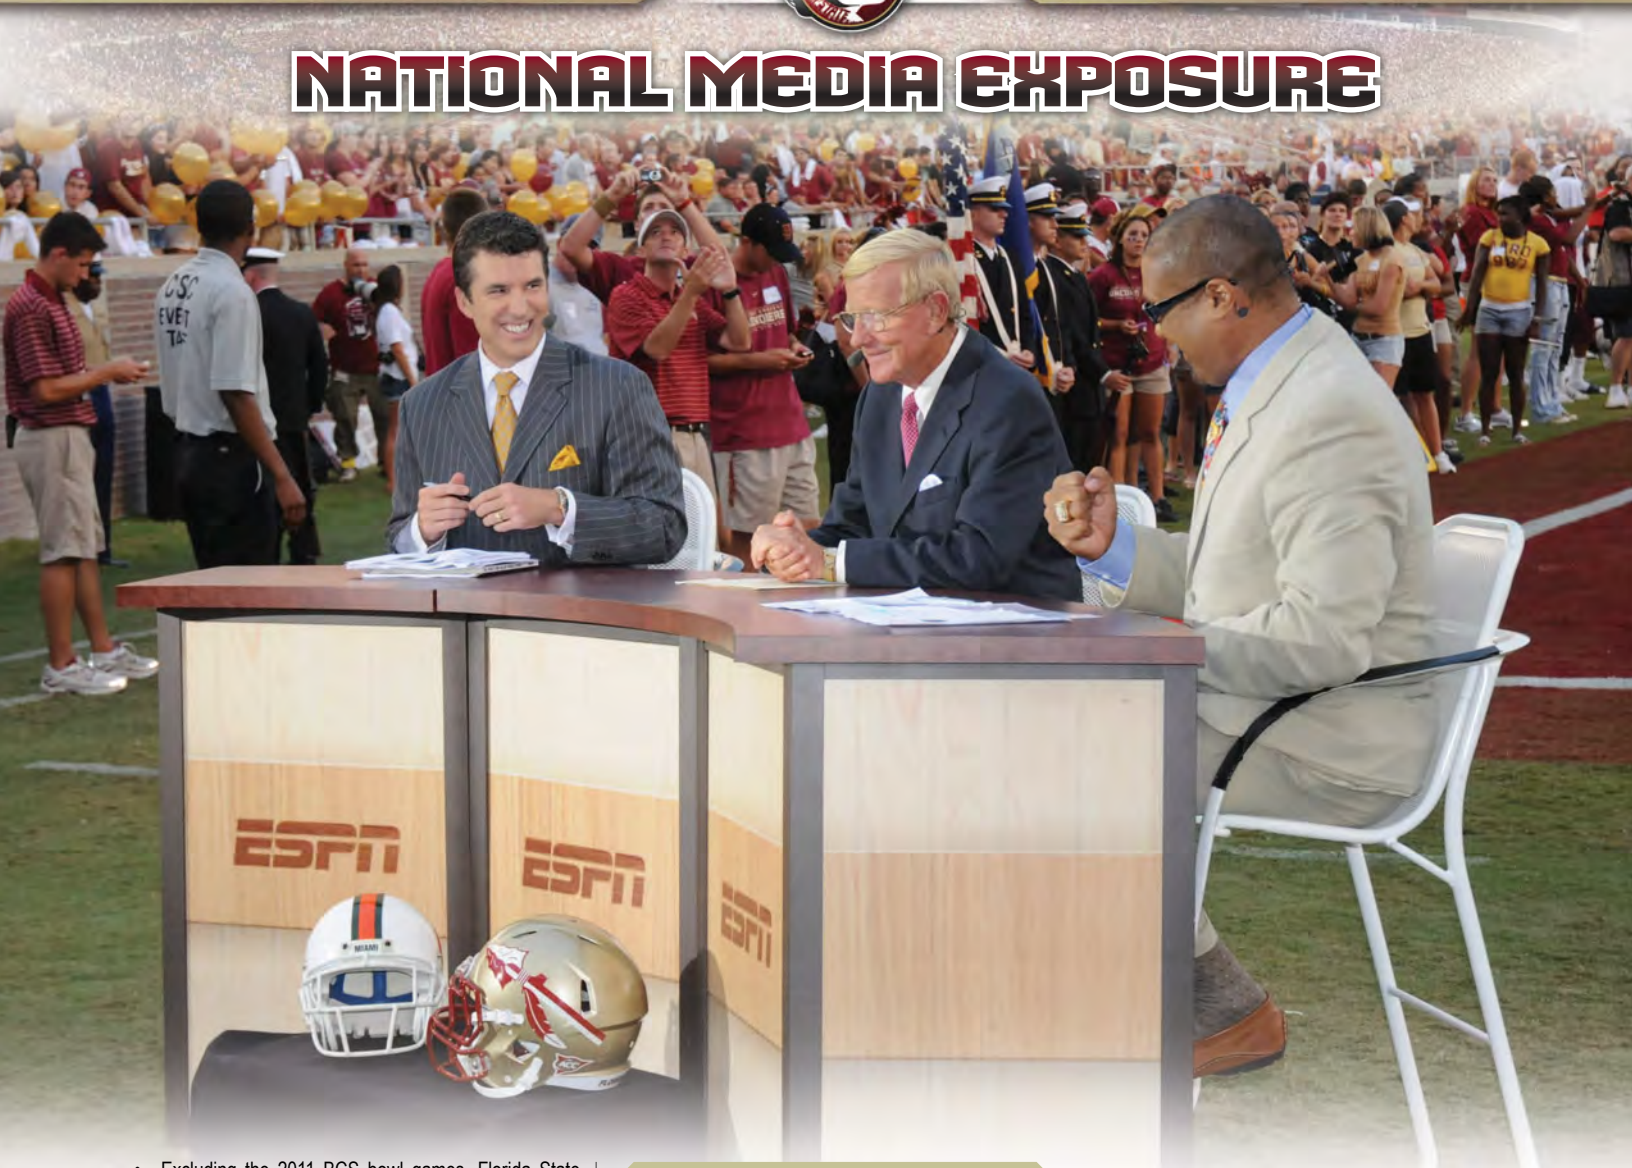
NATIONAL MEDIA EXPOSURE



- Excluding the 2011 BCS bowl games, Florida State has participated in two of the top five most viewed ESPN bowl games in the history of the sports cable network with the 2008 Champs Sports Bowl ranking fourth on the list and the 2010 Chick-fil-A Bowl ranking fifth.
- Two of the top three most-watched games in the history of the BCS featured the Seminoles (2000 Sugar Bowl and 2001 Orange Bowl).
- Florida State has played on national television 193 times since 1995, including 13 appearances in 2009.
- Florida State appeared in two of the top 10 most-viewed college football games during the 2009 season. The Seminoles' season-opener at home against Miami (ESPN) ranked 7th across all networks and drew a 5.07 rating and was seen in more than 5.8 million homes. FSU's regular-season finale at Florida (CBS) ranked 10th with a 4.70 rating and reached nearly 5.4 million homes and was that network's fourth highest rated game of the year.
- The Jan. 1, 2010 Gator Bowl game between FSU and West Virginia – Bobby Bowden's final game as coach – reached 4.5 million homes. The rating was the second-highest for the Gator Bowl dating back to 2003.

MOST TV APPEARANCES ON A MAJOR NETWORK SINCE 1995

1.	Florida State	193
1.	Michigan	193
3.	Penn State	161

- For the fifth time in seven years, Florida State helped set an attendance record at a bowl game. A crowd of 84,219 turned out at Jacksonville Municipal Stadium for the 2010 Gator Bowl, establishing a new bowl record.
- FSU's two previous bowl appearances – the 2008 Champs Sports Bowl (vs. Wisconsin) and 2007 Music City Bowl (vs. Kentucky) – also earned high marks from the networks. Not only did the 'Noles help set a new Champs Bowl attendance mark, but the 5.20 rating ranked fourth all-time among bowls broadcast by ESPN. FSU's Music City bowl appearance against Kentucky boosted ratings for that game by 80 percent over the previous year.

IMG College is the leading multimedia, marketing and licensing/brand management company in America representing more than 200 of the nation's top collegiate properties including the NCAA and its 89 championships, NCAA Football, leading conferences, and many of the most prestigious colleges and universities in the country. Headquartered in Winston Salem, N.C., IMG College employs 700 people in nearly 100 offices throughout the U.S. with annual sales of nearly $450 million.

IMG College is the leader in capturing consumer devotion to college sports through partnership opportunities in multimedia rights, licensing, events and hospitality, marketing, stadium and arena development, stadium seating solutions, ticketing, sales, and consulting. IMG College produces nearly 30,000 hours of radio programming on the largest sports network in the country, manages nearly 5,000 hours of local television programming, is the leading publisher of college sports publications, and is the largest manager of university athletic websites. IMG College is a division of IMG Worldwide, a global sports, fashion and media business. For more information, please visit www.imgworld.com. Seminole IMG Sports Marketing is headed up by General Manager, Paul Phipps.

Florida State's broadcast crew is known as one of the nation's best, as it provides insight and entertainment, as well as detailed and expert play-by-play. The broadcast features award-winning play-by-play announcer Gene Deckerhoff, a 32-year veteran of the Seminole broadcasts. Deckerhoff is nationally known as one of the finest announcers in the South. The "Voice of the Seminoles" for the past 32 years, he is a 12-time winner of the NSSA Florida Sportscaster of the Year Award and has been inducted into the Florida Sports Hall of Fame. A native of Jacksonville, Fla., Deckerhoff has been the play-by-play announcer for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers of the NFL for the past 22 years, making for some very busy fall weekends. He runs Gene Deckerhoff Productions, a firm specializing in sports broadcasting and the production of radio and television commercials.

National Champion and Super Bowl winner William Floyd joins Deckerhoff in the booth as the color analyst. Floyd is now his fourth season broadcasting FSU football games after joining the team in 2008. The former Florida State great is very familiar with the broadcasting world as he has hosted his own radio show in the Bay Area and worked as a reporter and studio analyst for SUN Sports. During the pregame show, sportscaster Tom Block and Senior Associate Athletic Director Monk Bonasorte join Floyd in providing in-depth analysis of the upcoming game. Florida State's game-day broadcasts begin two hours prior to every kickoff.

THE JIMBO FISHER SHOW

"The Jimbo Fisher Show," televised throughout the entire state of Florida, features the head football coach of the Florida State Seminoles. Every Monday afternoon during football season, Tom Block reviews the action packed highlights of the previous weekend's game.

JIMBO FISHER WEDNESDAY CALL-IN SHOW

On Wednesday evenings, Seminole fans know that the Seminole IMG College Sports Network is THE source for information on Seminole Athletics. Coach Fisher's call-in show is an hour-long broadcast beginning at 7:00 PM. The show will feature Jimbo Fisher and Gene Deckerhoff talking directly with fans from across the country, touching on game insights, trivia, and random Seminole banter.

SEMINOLE PRODUCTIONS

Anyone who has visited the second floor broadcast facilities in the Moore Athletics Center has seen them - the two very large, yet overcrowded trophy cases in the Seminole Productions area. That's because each and every year Florida State's Seminole Productions is recognized for excellence. With an experienced, award-winning staff and creative and talented students, Seminole Productions is viewed as a leader in sports production, graphics and corporate video. Creating the perfect blend of high tech wizardry with outstanding Seminole sports action is a big part of what Seminole Productions is all about.

Established in 1987, Seminole Productions handles virtually every video production need for Florida State Athletics. It produces the Jimbo Fisher, Leonard Hamilton and Mike Martin TV shows, as well as Seminole Sports Magazine and contracted shows for Sun Sports/ Fox Sports Florida. Seminole Productions also provides all of the production elements for Seminole Vision, the in-game entertainment productions for all Florida State football, basketball and baseball home contests, in addition to providing visual communication support for the government and other agencies throughout the State of Florida.

Over the years, Seminole Productions has won over 60 national and international awards in a variety of production and graphics categories. It was recognized for its work with Florida State athletics on both TV programs and for content running on FSU's Big Screen displays. In 2011 producer D.D. Garbarino was nominated for an Emmy Award for Seminole Gametime: Women's Basketball. The program featured outstanding behind-the-scenes footage of the FSU women's team as they participated in the NCAA postseason.

Seminole Productions also established itself as a leader in stereo 3D (S3D) video production while producing Florid State football's highlight video in S3D. FSU is the only school in the nation to have their football highlights in S3D. Executive Director Mark Rodin continues to test the boundaries of S3D with experimentation in other sports and various programming. Seminole Productions has partnered with several industry leaders in broadcast production to test and evaluate S3D equipment, while seeking new techniques and applications.

While staying ahead of the industry curve, expect continued programming excellence from Seminole Productions during the 2011-12 school year with more behind-the-scenes programs, weekly shows and specialty programming which will showcase all of the outstanding Florida State athletics teams, featuring the student-athletes and coaches that set the program apart.

For additional information on Seminole Productions, contact Mark Rodin at marodin@fsu.edu.

Florida State University

THIS IS FSU

One of the nation's elite research universities, Florida State University — with the Carnegie Foundation's highest designation, Doctoral/Research University-Extensive — offers a distinctive academic environment built on its cherished values and unique heritage, welcoming campus on the oldest continuous site of higher education in Florida, championship athletics, and prime location in the heart of the state capital.

Combining traditional strength in the arts and humanities with recognized leadership in the sciences, Florida State University provides unmatched opportunities for students and faculty through challenging academics, cultural discovery and community interaction. Underlying and supporting the educational experience at Florida State University is the development of new generations of citizen leaders, based on the concepts inscribed in our seal: Vires, Artes, Mores — Strength, Skill and Character.

Epitomized by recently named Rhodes Scholars Garrett Johnson and Myron Rolle — elite athletes and scholars committed to public service — and Joseph O'Shea — a campus and community leader as well as a top scholar — Florida State's 40,000 students are dedicated to academic excellence and providing leadership in our complex world.

Florida State University's 16 colleges offer more than 275 undergraduate, graduate, doctoral, professional and specialist degree programs, including medicine and law, covering a broad array of disciplines critical to society today. Each year the University awards over 2,000 graduate and professional degrees.

With its impressive breadth of leading graduate, professional and undergraduate programs, Florida State University is a demanding, intellectually stimulating, yet warm and caring environment for students and faculty. Recognized nationally for its commitment to diversity, Florida State University is a national leader in the number of doctorates awarded to African-American students and in the graduation rate of African-American undergraduates. Its College of Medicine and College of Law are ranked in the nation's Top 10 for Hispanic students.

Florida State University's arts programs — dance, film, music and theatre — rank among the finest in the world, offering an arts education comparable to leading conservatories. Its creative writing program is ranked among the nation's best and is home to the most consistently honored and published student body in the United States. Florida State is responsible for governance of the John and Mable Ringling Museum of Art and associated arts programs, one of the largest museum/university complexes in the nation.

Other programs consistently included in the top public university list include physics, chemistry, political science, psychology, criminology, public administration, library science, information, human sciences, business and law.

At the Ph.D. level, interdisciplinary programs draw on notable research faculty strengths that transcend the traditional disciplines, including neuroscience, molecular biophysics, computational science, materials science and research at the National High Magnetic Field Laboratory—home to the world's most powerful magnets.

COVERING THE SEMINOLES

PROCEDURES
All media who wish to cover FSU athletics will be expected to comply with all the procedures of the University, ACC and Sports Information office in order to be credentialed. Procedures will be provided in detail at the start of the 2011-12 athletic year.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS
All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials should be directed to our on-line credentialing site located at http://www.seminoles.com/multimedia/mediarelations.html no later than four days prior to the game. PHOTOS WILL BE REQUIRED THIS SEASON AND MUST BE UPLOADED AT THE TIME YOU REQUEST CREDENTIALS. Requests for season credentials should be made at least two weeks prior to the first game. Space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the FSU Sports Information Office. Any credential questions can be answered by Assistant A.D./SID Elliott Finebloom.

PRESS PARKING
Once again, parking is limited in 2011 and passes will be issued on a priority basis within the same guidelines as working credentials. Press parking is approximately 600 yards from the press box, located in the parking garage just north of the Seminole soccer field on Spirit Way.

FOOTBALL GAMEDAY
All media, with the exception of the live network telecast crew, will work from the 9th level of the press box. Media can access the press box only through the designated elevator in the northwest tower of the University Center. After parking, media should proceed down Stadium Drive and move towards Gate B in the northwest corner of the end zone. To enter the press box, do not enter the stadium but proceed to the right and enter through the external doors marked "Press Entrance."

RADIO-TV
Florida State will host both home and visiting radio booths in the press box. Network television (or the network broadcasting live) will be working from a mid-field booth on the 8th Level (one below working press). Both home and visiting radio will broadcast from booths at the south end of the 9th level.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Florida State reserves the right to admit only those photographers deemed to be on the premises for legitimate media purposes. All photographers working FSU games should be prepared to show a media ID card and equipment designed to photograph major college football. Florida State uses a double photo line system on its sidelines. Only those photographers actually shooting the game will be allowed on the "front" line. These shooters will be given photo armbands upon check-in to allow them front line access. All other photo personnel will be required to stay behind a second line as not to obstruct the view of the shooters. This would include grips, runners and sideline reporters. No media personnel are allowed in the team area of the sidelines at any time during a game. Sideline passes for local television will be severely curtailed for televised games and each station will be restricted to two passes. Still photographers may have access to the sidelines only. Those holding a photography credential should report to the Press Box where they will be issued an armband, rosters and a pre-game meal. The only access to the field is through the gate at the northwest corner of the stadium near Gate A. ANY SECONDARY OR COMMERCIAL USE OF ANY PICTURE TAKEN BY THE ACCREDITED ORGANIZATION OR INDIVIDUAL TO WHOM A CREDENTIAL HAS BEEN ISSUED (INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO USE IN DELAYED EDITORIAL, ADVERTISING, SALES PROMOTION OR MERCHANDISING) IS PROHIBITED WITHOUT PRIOR, SPECIFIC, WRITTEN APPROVAL OF FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY.

VIDEO SERVICES
Florida State's Sports Information Office has the ability to assist networks and television stations by providing video services through Seminole Productions, Inc. (SPI). Please call general manager Mark Rodin at (850) 644-6275 to arrange for these services.

TELEPHONES
Telephone service should be secured directly through the Florida State University Office of Telecommunications at (850) 644-4357. The Telecommunications Office can provide both lines and phones. Orders can also be placed on-line at www.otc.fsu.edu. Please make sure to request phone lines at least three days prior to the game.

INTERVIEWS
Media interviews with all FSU players and coaches MUST be arranged through the Sports Information Office. Contact Kerwin Lonzo, Football SID at (850) 644-5656 to arrange interviews with head coach Jimbo Fisher and Seminole players. Please give at least one day advance notice when requesting players for midweek interviews. Player's phone numbers will not be given to the media and players should not be called directly or contacted through social media sites to arrange interviews or ask questions.

FISHER PRESS CONFERENCE
Head Coach Jimbo Fisher will meet with the media on Monday's during the season and will be followed by the starting quarterback. Contact the Sports Information Office or refer to the weekly release for exact times and location for the press conferences which will begin during the week of the first game and run throughout the season.

SOCIAL MEDIA
Florida State Sports Information is making a continued effort in 2011-12 to utilize social media outlets as another way of passing information to our fans and those who cover our programs. Media can receive updated information from the SID office via Twitter by following @FSUSID. Fan feeds for the athletic department (@Seminoles_com) and the football program (@FSU_Football) are available as well. Our Facebook home is located at http://www.facebook.com/FSUSeminoles.
